General Counsel's Report

Background

The respondent was a candidate for the House of Representatives from the 10th Congressional District in Indiana who failed to file a Statement of Candidate and designate a Principal Campaign Committee. The Commission found reason to believe and reasonable cause to believe that the respondent had violated 2 U.S.C. §432(e)(1). Letters notifying the respondent of the Commission's findings were mailed to him by certified mail on April 4, 1978, and April 13, 1978, respectively.

Subsequently we received a Statement of Candidate (FEC Form 2) from the respondent, and a member of the General Counsel's staff had a telephone conversation with him in which he indicated he had no receipts or expenses for his campaign.

On the basis of this information the General Counsel's office recommended closing the file in regard to this respondent. On May 3, 1978, the Commission voted by 5-0 to close the file on this respondent if he did not turn out to be the winner of the primary election held on Tuesday, May 2, 1978.

Analysis

The Secretary of State of Indiana sent us the primary results for the 10th Congressional District after they were officially certified on May 17, 1978 (see attached). The respondent received 1,758 votes, the lowest number of votes for any Democratic candidate in the 10th Congressional District, losing the election.

Recommendation

In view of the above facts we recommend that the Commission take no further action with regard to this respondent and that the file be closed.

CERTIFICATION

7 3 0 1 0 1 5 1 6 1 2

I, Marjorie W. Emmons, Secretary to the Federal Election Commission, do hereby certify that on May 3, 1978, the Commission determined by a vote of 5-0 to adopt the recommendation of the General Counsel to take no further action with regard to respondents Damian J. Santay (MUR 566a) and John C. Salomone (MUR 566b), and to close the file in this matter with regard to these respondents. With regard to respondent Randall Harmon (MUR 566c), the Commission determined by a vote of 5-0 only to adopt the recommendation of the General Counsel to take no further action with regard to this respondent and to close the file in this matter with regard to this respondent in the event that this respondent did not turn out to be the winner in the primary election held on Tuesday, May 2, 1978.

Commissioner Aikens was not present at the time of the vote.

Accordingly, the file has been closed with regard to respondents Damian J. Santay and John C. Salomone. The file will remain open with regard to respondent Randall Harmon unless and until it is ascertained that he lost the primary election held on Tuesday, May 2, 1978.

General Counsel's Report

Background

On April 17, 1973, the Disclosure Division referred to the Office of General Counsel the names of three candidates for the House of Representatives who had registered with the Indiana State Board of Elections but had each failed to file a Statement of Candidate and designate a Principal Campaign Committee. The candidates registered with the Indiana State Board of Elections on March 3, 1973, and their Statements of Candidate and designations of Principal Campaign Committees were due on April 2, 1973. For each of the three candidates, the Commission found reason to believe and reasonable cause to believe that 2 U.S.C. §432(e)(1) had been violated. Each respondent was notified of the Commission's findings. Reason to Believe letters were mailed to the respondents by certified mail on April 4, 1973; Reasonable Cause to Believe letters were mailed to the respondents by certified mail on April 13, 1973.

Analysis

Damian J. Santay MUR 566a

On April 10, 1978, the respondent Damian J. Santay called Beverly White in the Disclosure Division for clarification of the reporting requirements. Subsequently, the respondent filed his Statement of Candidate (FEC Form 2). His Statement of Organization (FEC Form 1) has not been received yet, but the respondent indicated in his conversation with Ms. White that he would file it even though he had no intentions of raising or spending any money. Ms. White had indicated to the respondent that his Statement of Organization was due 10 days after his Statement of Candidate was filed, so the Statement of Organization can be expected any day now.

John C. Salomone MUR 566b

Subsequent to the referral by the Disclosure Division, the respondent John C. Salomone filed a Statement of Candidate (FEC Form 2) and a Statement of Organization (FEC Form 1) for his principal campaign committee bringing him in compliance with the reporting provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act, as amended.

Randall Harmon MUR 566c

On April 25, 1973, the Disclosure Division received a copy of the Statement of Candidate (FEC Form 2) from respondent Randall Harmon. The day before Anne Cauman of the Office of General Counsel called the respondent who did not understand that he needed to file a Statement of Organization. The respondent indicated that he is 75 years old and has run for Congress regularly since 1943; he has never raised or spent money for any of his previous campaigns and has no intentions of doing so now. While he is willing to comply with the Regulations he expressed considerable concern about finding another person to serve on his principal campaign committee. The respondent seemed somewhat vague and confused throughout the lengthy conversation and did not clearly understand what was required despite extensive efforts to explain it to him.

Recommendation

In view of the above facts, we recommend that the Commission take no further action with regard to these respondents and that the file be closed.

Mr. Santay called to say that he was sorry that he hadn't filed his Form 2 and that he was in the process of trying to file it at this time. He wanted to know if he had to have a principal campaign committee if all receipts and expenditures, if there were any, were handled through the candidate. I told him that he would have to form one anyway and that it would have to have two officers, a chairman and a treasurer. He said that he had two friends that could act as treasurer and chair, but he wanted to know if he had to designate a depository and open a bank account for the committee if they planned to raise and spend no money. I told him that the Regs. stated that a depository had to be designated.

He wanted to know if we had any more literature we could send to him, that he found it very helpful. I told him that we would send him a copy of the Law and the Regs., which he didn't think that he had received. He said that he would try to get his Form 2 in right away, even though he was not a serious candidate.

Dear

It has come to the attention of the Federal Election Commission that the Statement of Candidate (FEC Form 2) filed by you omitted certain information required by the Federal Election Campaign Act, as amended. Specifically, you have failed to designate a principal campaign committee and to file a Statement of Organization for that committee.

Your failure to amend your Statement of Candidate, designating a principal campaign committee, and to file that committee's Statement of Organization gives the Commission reason to believe that you are in violation of 2 U.S.C. 432(e)(1) and 11 C.F.R. 102.11.

You are hereby afforded a reasonable opportunity to demonstrate why no action should be taken against you. If you have not amended your Statement of Candidate or filed a Statement of Organization, you should file immediately with the Commission. A copy of these statements should also be filed with your Secretary of State or the equivalent state officer. In the event you have already filed the required statements, please so advise.

If you have any further questions, please contact our Reports Analysis Division on the toll free number (800)424-9530. Our local number is (202)523-4048.

Dear :

You have been notified twice of the requirement for you to file your Statement of Candidate (FEC Form 2), designating a principal campaign committee, and to file a Statement of Organization for that committee, as required by the Federal Election Campaign Act, as amended.

As of this date we have received no response from you. Your continued failure to file the above documents gives the Commission reasonable cause to believe that you are in violation of 2 U.S.C. 432(e)(1) and 11 CFR 101.2. You are hereby afforded a reasonable opportunity to demonstrate why no action should be taken against you.

You have thirty (30) days from the date of your receipt of this letter to conciliate this matter with the Commission. Unless an immediate response is received from you, the Reports Analysis Division must refer your name to our Office of General Counsel which may result in civil penalties.

You should file the required documents with the Clerk of the House, Office of Records and Registration, 1036 Longworth HOB, Washington, D.C. 20515. A copy of these statements should also be filed with your Secretary of State or the equivalent state officer. In the event you have already filed the required statements, please so advise.

If you have any further questions, please contact in our Reports Analysis Division on the toll free number (800)424-9530. Our local number is (202)523-4172.
