Re: MUR 5814

Dear Ms. Abely:

This is in response to your letter sent yesterday but not received by me until this morning, November 17, 2006.

As I indicated during our telephone conversation on November 14, 2006, I will be leaving town for two weeks starting tomorrow. My first day back in the office will be December 4, 2006.

I am forwarding today your letter containing the questions seeking information regarding this matter. I will not be in a position to review or discuss any of this until my return.

Accordingly, I am hereby requesting an extension of time for preparing the response and the information you are seeking. Inasmuch as December 24, 2006 is a Sunday, I will plan to submit a response within twenty days from my return to the office, or December 22, 2006.

Sincerely,

Cleta Mitchell, Esq.
