RE: MUR 5949

Dear Mr. Jordan:

I am writing in response to your letter dated November 6, 2007 regarding the Federal Election Commission complaint referenced above.

After reviewing the complaint, I am unclear exactly what violation of the FEC Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"), I am alleged to have committed. I am referenced three times in the complaint. First, the complaint says I am the wife of Gordon Fischer. Second, the complaint says I was a senior aide to former Iowa Governor Tom Vilsack. Third, the complaint says my husband announced September 24, 2007 that he and I would be supporting Senator Barack Obama for president. While I do not dispute the veracity of any of these statements (in fact, I'm proud to say all three are completely true!), I do not think any of them indicates I have violated the Act in any way.

If I misunderstand the Act or the complaint against me, please advise.

Sincerely,

Monica Fischer

P.S. I note your letter to me was addressed in part to the address of the complainant, so I did not receive it until November 28, 2007. Please use the correct address above in any future correspondence.
