MUR # 6/55

Dear Sir or Madam:

During 2007 I made a $2300.00 contribution to the Hillary Clinton general election campaign.

As per the election guideline, the complain is require to return the contribution once candidate is not participating in the general election.

Mrs. Clinton campaign mailed the refund of the general contribution on August 28, 2008. After few weeks I called the campaign at 703-8751025 and spoke to John and Monica. I told them that I didn't received the check and was told that the check was mailed and cashed. I advised them that the check was mailed to the wrong address and wan never deposited at my bank account. They promised me that they will investigate it and mail me a new check to the correct address.

Since then, sixty days later, I never received anything from the Clinton campaign. Numerous phone calls and email were neglected, and needless to say I never received my refund as required by law.

I will really appreciate if you can help me receive my money back.

Sincerely,

Michael Reznik
