RE: Response to MUR 6278

Dear Mr. Jordan,

Joyce B Segers and the Committee to Elect Joyce Segers to Congress hereafter referred to as "the Committee" admit the facts as stated in the complaint and acknowledge the applicability of the relevant law.

Joyce Segers and the Committee assert by way of response that these violations of law requiring a disclaimer on public communications were mistakes which have been rectified. It was recognized immediately after the event on March 6, 2010 in Hood River, Oregon referred to in the complaint that the flyer handed out there was out of compliance and was withdrawn from circulation and never used after that. Efforts have been made to find and destroy any existing flyers that were handed out. The requisite disclaimer was added to the candidate's website on May 30, 2010.

Joyce Segers and the Committee deny that Federal law was "willfully" disregarded as alleged in the complaint. There was no intent to disregard the law which is implied in the word "willfully" and there is no evidence to support such an allegation.

Joyce Segers and the Committee recognize the seriousness of the requirement to include the disclaimer on all public communications including websites, apologize for the failure to comply and will comply faithfully with whatever action the FEC requires.

Sincerely,

Wendell Fitzgerald
