OFFICE OF GENERAL
COUNSEL

To the Federal Election Commission, re: File MUR 6345

My name is Jay Fields, I am one of the co-founders of The Keep God in America Rally. I was the treasurer for the rally, which was held in March 2010. We were told by BCM founder, Raymond Johnson, that BCM was a 501-C3 but as we found out later this was not the case. Several of our vendors informed us to this fact. We had to pay the sales tax.

After the rally, we were trying to pay off the last of our commitments, when some money came in earmarked for Chris Nwasike. Because my wife and I had endured some financial hardships during Chris wanted us to have this money. Chris asked me to write a check to Jorgine to compensate us for our losses. At that time Jorgine wanted to help a young man running for office, so she donated the money to him.

We are self employed and lost a lot of time and money during the month of the rally and spent a lot of our own money on the rally, also. Since that time all of the Keep God in America debt has been paid in full.

I hope this information is helpful to you.

Respectfully,

Jay Fields
