Re: Pre-MUR 500

Dear Mr. Snapper:

The Federal Election Commission ("Commission"), the regulatory agency that administers and enforces the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"), has ascertained information in the normal course of carrying out its supervisory responsibilities indicating that you may have violated provisions of the Act, including 2 U.S.C. § 441f, which prohibits any person from making a contribution in the name of another person or knowingly permitting his name to be used to solicit such a contribution. In addition, no person may knowingly help or assist any person in making a contribution in the name of another. 11 C.F.R. § 110.4(b)(1)(iii).

Specifically, information in the Commission's possession indicates that in 2007 and 2008 certain reimbursed contributions to federal candidates were made by you from Ms. Patricia Cornwell's personal and corporate ("CEI Enterprises, Inc.") bank accounts held with Anchin Block Anchin ("ABA"), an accounting and business management firm, in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441f. The information suggests that beginning in March 2008, Ms. Cornwell solicited a group of nine individuals to make contributions to Hillary Clinton for President, and at her direction, you reimbursed these individuals for their contributions from her bank accounts. In addition, the information suggests that, at Ms. Cornwell's direction, you solicited additional donors including employees of ABA, their spouses and others, to make contributions to Hillary Clinton for President and reimbursed them through Ms. Cornwell's bank accounts. Based on the information, it appears that you may have carried out the reimbursement of a total of $48,300 in contributions to the Hillary Clinton for President committee through disbursements from Ms. Cornwell's bank accounts as follows:

Finally, the Third Amended Complaint and Jury Trial Demand filed in Cornwell Entertainment, Inc., et al v. Anchin Block Anchin LLP, and Evan Snapper, Civil Action No. 1:09-cv-11708-GAO (D. Mass.) (filed March 31, 2010), alleges that you mishandled Ms. Cornwell's political contributions, misinformed her of requirements regarding the same, and reimbursed employees of ABA and others improperly from Ms. Cornwell's personal and corporate bank accounts without her knowledge.

Notification of this matter is being provided to you pursuant to the Commission's Agency Procedure for Notice to Respondents in Non-Complaint Generated Matters, as published in the Federal Register August 4, 2009 (74 FR 38617). The Commission's Office of the General Counsel is reviewing this information in connection with making a recommendation to the Commission as to whether there is reason to believe that you violated the Act, an initial determination necessary to initiate an investigation into whether a violation has, in fact, occurred. See 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(2). Before the General Counsel makes such a recommendation, you may provide in writing any factual or legal materials that you believe are relevant to this matter, including any related documents. Your submission, if you choose to make one, must be submitted within 15 days of receipt of this letter and addressed to the General Counsel's Office. Subsequently, the General Counsel's Office will present its recommendations. The Commission will then consider the recommendations and, if the Commission finds that there is reason to believe that you violated the Act, initiate an enforcement matter.

This matter will remain confidential in accordance with 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(12)(A), unless you notify the Commission in writing that you wish the matter to be made public.

If you have any questions, please contact Erik A. Morrison at (202) 694-1650 or toll-free at (800) 424-9530.
