Re: FEC Campaign Finance Violations by Jack Antaramian and Mona Antaramian

To Whom It May Concern:

In January, 2011, we were notified of a list compiled by the Center for Responsive Politics and posted on their website "OpenSecrets.org" displaying the top contributors to the Democratic National Committee ("DNC") during the 2010 election cycle (the "OpenSecrets Contribution List"). The OpenSecrets Contribution List is attached as Exhibit "A". The OpenSecrets Contribution List shows Antaramian Development Group, LLC, a Florida limited liability company ("ADG") as the fifth highest contributor to the DNC during the 2010 election cycle.

Rest assured, this information was shocking, as we own a fifty percent interest in and are directors in ADG and we are British Subjects (and not United States citizens). To our knowledge, ADG has never directly or indirectly contributed to any political candidate or party, nor authorized any other member of the entity to contribute to any political candidate or party in the name of the company. The contributions attributed to ADG are all connected to donations by Jack J. Antaramian, a/k/a John Joseph Antaramian ("Jack"). During the 2010 election cycle, and in prior election cycles, Jack was a manager and minority interest holder of ADG.

Based on the information contained in the OpenSecrets Contribution List, we began a review of the contributions made by Jack, and individuals associated with Jack, available on the FEC website. We have attached the search results from the FEC database listing: (i) Jack's contributions, attached as Exhibit "B"; (ii) a list of Jack's wife, Mona Antaramian's ("Mona") contributions, attached as Exhibit "C"; (iii) a list of Jack's Son, David Antaramian's ("David") contributions, attached as Exhibit "D"; and (iv) a list of Jack's sister-in-law, Yasmeen Wilson's ("Yasmeen") contributions, attached as Exhibit "E" (collectively, the "FEC Individual Contribution Lists").

Additionally, we have learned from further investigation that Jack and Mona were large donors to the Obama Presidential Inaugural Committee donating $50,000.00 each. A copy of a document showing a list of donors to the Obama Presidential Inaugural Committee is attached as Exhibit "F".

After reviewing the corporate books for ADG, other entities Jack owns an interest in, and the FEC Individual Contribution Lists, based on information presented below, along with the size and frequency of the political contributions and donations made by Jack and his close family members, we have concerns that illegal conduct has occurred in campaign contributions made by Jack. The following issues, based on fact, information, and belief, are particularly concerning:

1. In-Kind Contributions and Corporate Contributions.

In spring 2009, Jack and Mona, through regular and ongoing communication with the DNC, agreed to contribute rent-free office space to the DNC.

On July 1, 2009, Jack, through an entity he owns named Antaramian Development Corporation of Naples, Inc., a Florida corporation, now known as Antaramian Development Corporation of Naples, a Florida corporation ("ADCN"), entered into a lease (the "Lease") with Pettit Square Partners, LLC, a Florida limited liability company, formerly known as Antaramian/Pettit Square Partners, LLC, a Florida limited liability company ("PSP"), for the lease of certain office space at the commercial development called Pettit Square. A copy of the Lease is attached as Exhibit "G". Along with being an owner and President of ADCN, Jack is also a minority interest holder in PSP. A copy of the Florida Department of State, Division of Corporations entity information for ADCN is attached as Exhibit "H".

Although the Lease lists Antaramian Development Corporation as the tenant, this was, according to Jack, a scrivener's error. A copy of ADCN's Answers to Plaintiffs Interrogatories Dated July 13, 2010, in the case styled Antaramian/Pettit Square Partners, LLC v. Antaramian Development Corporation Case No. 10-1759-CA (Fla. 20th Cir. Ct. filed March 10, 2010) (the "Litigation") is attached as Exhibit "I".

On July 23, 2009, the DNC began occupying the Pettit Square office space under the ADCN's Lease with PSP. A copy of the DNC's Answer and Affirmative defenses in the Litigation is attached as Exhibit "J". According to an email from Steve Hemping (a DNC representative) to Jack and Mona on July 28, 2009, the Pettit Square office space was "graciously donated" to the DNC. A copy of the email chain is attached as Exhibit "K".

The DNC occupied the space from July 23, 2009 through March 3, 2010, and failed to make any rent payment to PSP, as the landlord, or to ADCN, as the tenant, for the use of the office space. After attempts to collect rent from ADCN and the DNC failed, PSP instituted the Litigation.

A settlement agreement was eventually reached with the DNC and the DNC was dropped from the Litigation. A copy of the Notice of Voluntary Dropping With Prejudice of the DNC is attached as Exhibit "L". As part of the settlement agreement, the DNC agreed to and did pay $29,116.64 in back rent for the use of the office space. A copy of the check is attached as Exhibit "M".

The in-kind contribution of office space is a political campaign contribution by ADCN, the corporate entity that entered into the Lease with PSP. However, in addition to the illegal corporate contribution by ADCN, Jack and Mona personally provided in addition furniture, sofas, tables, lamps, storage drawers, a large copying machine and a desk. These items were even delivered to the DNC premises by a moving company, also paid for at the expense of Jack and Mona. A copy of the emails describing the donated items, along with the costs associated with some of these items is attached as Exhibit "N".

The utilities for the donated DNC premises were also paid for by Jack and Mona. A copy of emails and referenced utility bills and statements are attached as Exhibit "O".

Although the in-kind contribution to the DNC by ADCN was already illegal because it was provided by a corporation, Jack, knowingly and willfully attempted to pass the contribution off as a contribution of his son, even though this attempt was impossible as the Lease was negotiated and executed by his corporation. A copy of the email discussing the in-kind contribution is attached as Exhibit "P".

Additionally, as of June 19, 2009, Jack represented in an email to the management company in charge of managing the Pettit Square office space that "I am in the tenant." A copy of the June 19, 2009 email is attached as Exhibit "Q".

When the Lease was finally executed, Jack replaced himself as the tenant with ADCN, a corporation. He did not, as misrepresented to the DNC, replace himself with his son. Jack's misrepresentation to the DNC was merely an attempt by Jack to make a contribution in the name of another.

The emails in Exhibit "N" illustrate that as of May 12, 2009, Jack and Mona were both aware that they had already met or were near the lawful campaign contribution limits for the 2009 year. As the FEC Individual Contribution Lists demonstrate, by April 30, 2009, both Jack and Mona had already met the annual contribution limit to the DNC. However, this did not stop their attempts to continue contributing, but rather led them to engage in illegal contribution schemes to avoid being specifically identified as the contributors of major campaign contributions.

In addition to passing off contributions as if made by others, and making illegal corporate contributions, Jack also failed to report a variety of in-kind contributions for the smaller benefits like furniture, fixtures, utilities, and moving services referenced in Exhibit "N". Based on the email evidence attached to this letter, it appears clear that this conduct, as to Jack and Mona's actions at Pettit Square, was a knowing and willful violation of law.

2. Contributions of Possibly Laundered Money from the Antaramian Family Trust and/or Overseas Bank and/or Other Accounts.

Jack is also involved in separate litigation in a case styled Zand et al. v. Jack J. Antaramian et al., Case No. 10-6683-CA (Fla. 20th Cir. Ct., filed Nov. 24, 2010), regarding a $1,000,000.00 investments entry fee (the "$1 Million Investments Entry Fee") paid via wire transfers from Switzerland to Jack's trust, the Antaramian Family Trust, at overseas accounts in four installments starting in 2001. Jack required this $1 Million Investments Entry Fee of us prior to our being allowed by Jack to participate with Jack in real estate development projects in Naples, Florida.

We were instructed to wire the $1 Million Investments Entry Fee from Switzerland to overseas accounts for the benefit of the Antaramian Family Trust. A copy of the wire transfers is attached as Exhibit "R". To date, this money has not been reported as income to the IRS (see Notice attached as Exhibit "S" from Howard Matwud, Jack's tax lawyer). Because Jack's financial assets are tied to the Antaramian Family Trust and Overseas/Channel Islands Bank and/or Other Accounts, and because Jack did not have direct access to ADG funds in making his political contributions, upon information and belief, it is likely that Jack has been utilizing the Antaramian Family Trust, along with other offshore funds in which Jack may have laundered money, to make his political contributions.

3. Contributions in the Name of Another.

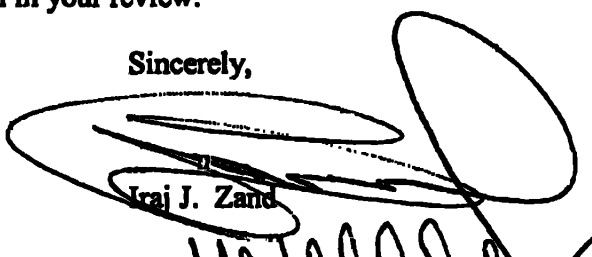

In light of the illegal in-kind contributions Jack made to the DNC at Pettit Square, a review of the FEC Individual Contribution Lists also raises concerns that other contributions made by Mona, David, and Yasmeen were actually funded by Jack. During the 2008 election cycle, Yasmeen contributed $11,000.00 to individuals and to the DNC. Even more perplexing is why Yasmeen would state that she was employed by ADG in regard to any of the contributions made during this period. Yasmeen has never been employed by ADG. These facts, coupled with Yasmeen's family relationship with Jack, raise the suspicion that Jack himself funded these contributions by giving money to Yasmeen to contribute.

For the 2010 election cycle, as shown in the FEC Individual Contribution Lists, Yasmeen contributed a total of $18,000.00 to individuals and to the DNC. Upon information and belief, Yasmeen's income during the 2010 election cycle makes such sizeable donations highly suspect.

Finally, on January 21, 2010, the day after Jack and Mona each made $30,400.00 contributions to the DNC, David, as a student, made the same maximum contribution to the DNC. Although nothing explicitly illegal is manifested from David's contributions, the timing and amount, in addition to the fact that David is a student, raises concern that all of these donations were, in fact, from Jack, whether by his own funds, those of the Antaramian Family Trust, or drawn from some other overseas funds or accounts.

This information has been provided to you based on facts, information, and belief, and we provide you with the opportunity to investigate the circumstances of these contributions and donations, and also other contributions and donations made by Jack, and hope this information and the attached exhibits prove helpful in your review.

Sincerely,

Iraj J. Zand
