MUR 6516

CONCILIATION AGREEMENT

This matter was initiated by the Federal Election Commission ("Commission") pursuant to information ascertained in the normal course of carrying out its supervisory responsibilities.

The Commission found reason to believe that Terry Keith Howell ("Respondent") violated 2 U.S.C. § 441f.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Commission and the Respondent, having participated in informal methods of conciliation, prior to a finding of probable cause to believe, do hereby agree as follows:

I. The Commission has jurisdiction over the Respondent and the subject matter of this proceeding, and this agreement has the effect of an agreement entered pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(4)(A)(i).

II. Respondent has had a reasonable opportunity to demonstrate that no action should be taken in this matter.

III. Respondent enters voluntarily into this agreement with the Commission.

IV. The pertinent facts in this matter are as follows:

1. Timothy Mobley is a home builder and was business partners with Rep. Vernon G. Buchanan in real estate developments and Buchanan's former Suncoast Ford car dealership. Mobley also served as a volunteer fundraiser for Buchanan.

2. Timothy Hohl has been Mobley's accountant for 30 years and is also Mobley's brother-in-law. Hohl's accounting firm and the offices of Mobley's businesses share a building that Mobley and Hohl jointly own.

1 3. Terry Keith Howell has owned and operated trucking companies for many
2 years.

3 4. Express Freight of Florida, LLC ("EFF") is a trucking company that
4 Mobley, Hohl, and Howell formed in early 2008, in which each had an ownership interest.

5 5. MTampa Financing, LLC, is a company that Mobley formed at 6 approximately the same time as EFF which he wholly owned and controlled through other
7 entities. Mobley expected MTampa Financing, LLC to finance EFF's operations by purchasing
8 EFF's account receivables at a discount, a business known as factoring.

9 Applicable Law

10 6. The Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"),
11 provides that no person shall make a contribution in the name of another person or knowingly
12 permit his or her name to be used to effect such a contribution. 2 U.S.C. § 441f. Section 441f
13 prohibits providing money to others to effect contributions in their names without disclosing the 14 source of the money to the recipient candidate or committee at the time the contribution is made,
15 it includes knowingly helping or assisting any person in making a contribution in the name of 16 another, and it applies to individuals as well as incorporated or unincorporated entities.

17 11 C.F.R. § 110.4(b); 2 U.S.C. § 431(11) (term "person" includes partnerships and corporations).

18 7. During the 2005-2006 election cycle, a person could contribute no more
19 than $2,100 to a candidate and his or her authorized committee per election, and during the 2007-
20 2008 election cycle, the limit was $2,300 per election. See 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a).

Respondents' Reimbursement of Howell's Contributions

8. In March 2008, Mobley solicited Howell to contribute $8,800 to Vern Buchanan for Congress ("VBFC"). Mobley provided Howell with contribution instructions from VBFC that indicated that he could contribute $8,800, which could be divided between the 2006 and 2008 election cycles, and divided between the primary and general elections within each cycle.

9. Howell informed Mobley and Hohl that he did not have sufficient funds to make the contributions. Mobley told Howell to make the contributions, and told Howell that he (Mobley) would give the money back to Howell.

10. Howell wrote two personal checks dated March 27, 2008, totaling $8,800, to VBFC.

11. EFF wrote an $8,800 check to Howell dated March 28, 2008, and signed by Hohl and Howell, to reimburse Howell for his contributions to VBFC. The memo line of the check states "Political Contribution." Howell deposited the check on March 28, 2008.

12. VBFC disclosed to the Commission that, on March 31, 2008, it received $8,800 in contributions from Howell.

13. Mobley then authorized his company, MTampa Financing, LLC, to disburse $8,800 to EFF to reimburse EFF for its reimbursement of Howell's contributions to VBFC. This was accomplished through an $8,800 MTampa Financing, LLC, check made payable to EFF that was dated April 1, 2008, and signed by Hohl.

14. Accordingly, MTampa Financing, LLC, was the true contributor for the $8,800 in contributions to VBFC.

13044331702

1 V. Respondent violated 2 U.S.C. § 441f by making and assisting in the making of
2 $8,800 in contributions from MTampa Financing, LLC, to Vern Buchanan for Congress in Howell's
3 name.

4 VI. 1. Respondent will pay a civil penalty to the Federal Election Commission in
5 the amount of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000), pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(5)(A).

6 2. Respondent will cease and desist from violating 2 U.S.C. § 441f.

7 VII. The Commission, on request of anyone filing a complaint under 2 U.S.C.
8 § 437g(a)(1) concerning the matters at issue herein or on its own motion, may review compliance
9 with this agreement. If the Commission believes that this agreement or any requirement thereof has 10 been violated, it may institute a civil action for relief in the United States District Court for the 11 District of Columbia.

12 VIII. This agreement shall become effective as of the date that all parties hereto have 13 executed same and the Commission has approved the entire agreement.

14 IX. Respondent shall have no more than 60 days from the date this agreement
15 becomes effective to comply with and implement the requirements contained in this agreement
16 and to so notify the Commission.

17 X. This Conciliation Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties
18 on the matters raised herein, and no other statement, promise, or agreement, either written or
