Hi Kim,

I assume that you want the financial transaction information obtained. I worked with independent journalist Lee Stranahan on this. Lee called and told me of how he went to the non-profit's website and easily downloaded the information, and then sent me a copy of the data he downloaded.

I've attached the data I received from Lee, as given in the attached email. Lee reached out to some of these folks and confirmed that they did in fact donate to Stockman's campaign. If there was no collusion between Stockman's campaign and this non-profit started by an associate of his, how did his donor's data find its way onto the non-profit's website?
