 FEC Form Signed.pdf

Hi Dawn,

Attached is the signed "Designation of Counsel" form you requested (It was also faxed to the number on the form.).

As I mentioned earlier today, I would like to discuss this matter with you for a few minutes. If it is convenient for you, I will give you a call around 3:30 pm.

Additionally, we would like to request the 20 day extension in order to properly prepare and respond to the Commission. We received the letter Dec 23, 2015 and with the Christmas and New Year's holidays many of the personnel involved in this matter had previous commitments and it will be extraordinarily difficult for us to prepare a thoughtful and complete response in the little time remaining before the deadline.

If this formal request is insufficient or if there is a required FEC form that must be completed, could you please notify me so that we can submit a proper request?

Thank you for your assistance,

Bill Parrish

Hi Mr. Parrish,

Because the Federal Election Campaign Act requires enforcement matters to be kept confidential, I'll need Mr. Yu to authorize me in writing to speak with you. Below is a designation of counsel. He can sign it naming you as his designee and you can scan it and e-mail it to me. Alternatively, he can email me that he authorizes me to speak with you in connection with Matter Under Review (MUR) 6824. Despite the name of the form, you need not be a lawyer to be the person he designates to communicate with us. He or you can simply cross out "counsel" and substitute "representative" where appropriate. I've already filled in the case number: MUR 6824. Also, just to clarify, the Commission's reason to believe finding was made as to his campaign committee, and not Mr. Yu. Given that the matter involves Mr. Yu's loans, though, Mr. Yu can probably best answer our questions. He should sign the form and his and the Committee's names can be written on the "Respondent" line.

Also, if you need additional time to respond, especially given the holidays, I can grant you a short extension not to exceed twenty days. I would need an email requesting the extension with a brief statement of the reason. Once I get permission from Mr. Yu to speak with you, I'll be happy to phone you.

Sincerely,

Dawn M. Odrowski

Good afternoon Ms. Odrowski,

I am writing to in response to a letter Mr. Eugen Yu received from your office concerning the MUR 6824.

I am Mr. Yu's advisor and wish to briefly discuss the letter he received.

As you may be aware, we are working under a short deadline to respond to the letter and would like to clarify some information prior to responding.

At your convenience, could you please give me a call?

Thank you,

Bill Parrish
