RE: MUR 6850
Arvin Lee Black, II

Dear Mr. Black:

On April 16, 2015, the Federal Election Commission found that there is probable cause to believe you violated 52 U.S.C. § 30122 (formerly 2 U.S.C. § 441f), provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, in connection with alleged contributions in the names of others.

The Commission has a duty to attempt to correct such violations for a period of at least 30 days and no more than 90 days by informal methods of conference, conciliation, and persuasion, and by entering into a conciliation agreement with a respondent. If we are unable to reach an agreement after 30 days, the Commission may institute a civil suit in United States District Court and seek payment of a civil penalty.
