RE: MUR 6865
Marc Chase

Dear Mr. Valencia:

On September 12, 2014, the Federal Election Commission notified your client, Marc Chase, of a complaint alleging violations of certain sections of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"). A copy of the complaint was forwarded to your client at that time. On January 8, 2015, the Commission notified you that it received additional information from the complainant pertaining to the allegations in the complaint, and forwarded to you a copy of that additional information.

Upon further review of the allegations contained in the complaint, information supplied by you, and information that the Commission obtained in the normal course of carrying out its supervisory responsibilities, the Commission, on August 11, 2015, found that there is reason to believe that Chase may have knowingly and willfully accepted or received, or assisted in the making, acceptance, or receipt of a contribution or donation by a foreign national, and allowed his name to be used to effect a contribution made in the name of another in violation of 52 U.S.C. §§ 30121(a)(2) and 30122 (formerly 2 U.S.C. §§ 441e(a)(2) and 441f)<sup>1</sup> and 11 C.F.R. §§ 110.20(g)-(h) and 110.4(b)(ii)-(iii). The Factual and Legal Analysis, which formed a basis for the Commission's finding, is attached for your information.

You may submit any factual or legal materials that you believe are relevant to the Commission's consideration of this matter. Please submit such materials to the General Counsel's Office within 15 days of receipt of this letter. Where appropriate, statements should be submitted under oath. In the absence of additional information, the Commission may find probable cause to believe that a violation has occurred and proceed with conciliation.

Please note that you and your client have a legal obligation to preserve all documents, records and materials relating to this matter until such time as you are notified that the Commission has closed its file in this matter. See 18 U.S.C. § 1519.

If your client is interested in pursuing pre-probable cause conciliation, you should so request in writing. See 11 C.F.R. § 111.18(d). Upon receipt of the request, the Office of the General Counsel will make recommendations to the Commission either proposing an agreement in settlement of the matter or recommending declining that pre-probable cause conciliation be pursued. The Office of the General Counsel may recommend that pre-probable cause conciliation not be entered into at this time so that it may complete its investigation of the matter. Further, the Commission will not entertain requests for pre-probable cause conciliation after briefs on probable cause have been mailed to the respondent.

Requests for extensions of time will not be routinely granted. Requests must be made in writing at least five days prior to the due date of the response and specific good cause must be demonstrated. In addition, the Office of the General Counsel ordinarily will not give extensions beyond 20 days.

This matter will remain confidential in accordance with 52 U.S.C. §§ 30109(a)(4)(B) and 30109(a)(12)(A) (formerly 2 U.S.C. §§ 437g(a)(4)(B) and 437g(a)(12)(A)) unless you notify the Commission in writing that your client wishes the matter to be made public.

If you have any questions, please contact Emily Meyers, the attorney assigned to this matter, at (202) 694-1650.

On behalf of the Commission,

Ann M. Ravel
Chair

Factual and Legal Analysis

1 II. RELEVANT FACTS

2 A. The Complaint, Supplemental Complaint, and Parallel Criminal Proceedings

3 The Complaint and Supplemental Complaint allege that Vargas and the Committee knew
4 that Azano unlawfully provided funds for, and directed Chase to, contribute $30,000 to the 5 DCCC for Vargas's and the Committee's benefit in the 2012 election.<sup>3</sup> To support this
6 allegation, the Complaint and Supplemental Complaint rely on a 26-count 2014 criminal
7 indictment pending in the United States District Court for the Southern District of California
8 charging Azano and others with violating §§ 30121 and 30122 of the Act and other laws.<sup>4</sup>
9 Azano and the other defendants pleaded not guilty to all counts.<sup>5</sup> A trial has been scheduled to 10 begin February 9, 2016.<sup>6</sup>

11 Encinas and Chase were also charged in separate criminal actions,<sup>7</sup> and each entered a 12 guilty plea. Encinas pleaded guilty to a two-count criminal Information charging conspiracy to 13 commit "at least one of . . . three crimes" — the knowing and willful violation of § 30121 of the 14 Act, the knowing and willful violation of § 30122 of the Act, and the knowing falsification of a
15 record to obstruct justice — as well as the filing of a false tax return.<sup>8</sup> Chase pleaded guilty to an

2 Act, as well as conspiracy to “knowingly and willfully commit at least one of” those crimes.<sup>9</sup>

3 Furthermore, Chase also executed an agreement with the San Diego Ethics Commission
4 by which he admitted to violations of the San Diego Municipal Code for the same local conduct
5 at issue in the criminal matter and was required to pay an $80,000 fine.<sup>10</sup>

6 B. Azano’s Alleged Conduit Contributions and Donations

7 According to the Superseding Indictment referenced in the Complaint, Azano effected
8 various unlawful campaign donations, including conduit donations to the campaign of Bonnie
9 Dumanis, a candidate in the 2012 San Diego mayoral primary and the District Attorney for San 10 Diego County; the San Diego County Democratic Party; and the DCCC.

11 In late December 2011, Azano allegedly provided $10,000 cash to Chase and instructed
12 him to recruit employees and friends to act as straw donors for donations to Dumanis.<sup>11</sup> It
13 appears that on December 29 and 31, 2011, and January 2, 2012, Chase and sixteen individuals<sup>12</sup>

<sup>12</sup> The Superseding Indictment, Chase’s Plea Agreement, and Chase’s Ethics Commission Order each provide non-exhaustive lists of donations by Chase and other individuals to Dumanis’s campaign, but they differ as to the number of donations and how they identify the individual donors. See, e.g., Superseding Indictment ¶ 31 (listing $500 donations to Dumanis’s campaign by Chase and thirteen individuals, identified by their initials); Chase Plea ¶ B.7. (listing $500 donations to Dumanis’s campaign by Chase and eleven individuals, identified by description); Chase Ethics Comm’n Order ¶ 14 (listing $500 donations to Dumanis’s campaign by Chase and twelve individuals, identified by name). The disclosure reports that Dumanis’s campaign filed with the San Diego Ethics Commission show three other donations that appear to have been made at Chase’s direction and potentially were reimbursed by Chase, since they were made by employees of Chase’s companies or their spouses on December 29 and 31, 2011, as

1 each donated $500 to Bonnie Dumanis for Mayor 2012, Dumanis's candidate controlled
2 committee, using the cash that Azano had provided to Chase.<sup>13</sup> Chase has admitted that he told
3 many of the recruited straw donors that Azano provided the $500 that he gave them.<sup>14</sup>

4 In his plea agreement, Chase acknowledges that on September 27, 2012, again at Azano's
5 direction, Chase wrote two checks totaling $30,000 to the San Diego County Democratic Party,
6 which then made expenditures to support the mayoral candidacy of Bob Filner, then U.S.
7 Representative for California's 51st District.<sup>15</sup> Chase further acknowledges that on September were the reimbursed donations. Bonnie Dumanis for Mayor 2012, Semi-Annual Stmt. at 32, 69 (Jan. 31, 2012) ("Dumanis Semi-Annual Statement") (showing $500 donations from Bernard Chase, salesman at Symbolic Motor Car Co., on Dec. 31, 2011, and from Erik Grochowaik, president of Symbolic Watch Int'l, and his wife, Christine Grochowaik, on Dec. 29, 2011). It is unclear whether these donations are identified in the list included in Chase's Plea Agreement, whether they do not appear on any list of reimbursed donations but were nonetheless reimbursed by Chase, or whether these donations were not reimbursed by Chase.

The disclosure reports filed by candidates in San Diego's 2012 mayoral race are available through the City of San Diego Public Portal for Campaign Finance Disclosure at <http://nf4.netfile.com/pub2/Default.aspx?aid=CSD>.

<sup>13</sup> Superseding Indictment ¶¶ 22.c., 31; Chase Plea ¶ B.7.; Chase Ethics Comm'n Order ¶¶ 11, 14-16; Dumanis Semi-Annual Statement at 4, 32, 53, 69, 81, 132, 133, 141, 196 (showing $500 contributions from Chase, Chase's family, Chase's personal assistant, and employees and employees' spouses of Chase's companies, South Beach Acquisitions, Inc., Symbolic Watch Int'l, and Symbolic Motor Car Co., on Dec. 29 and 31, 2011); Bonnie Dumanis for Mayor 2012, Amend. Pre-Election Stmt. at 56 (May 24, 2012) ("Dumanis Pre-Election Statement") (showing $500 contributions from a salesman at Symbolic Motor Car Co. and his wife).

The San Diego Ethics Commission has executed a separate Stipulation, Decision, and Order for eight of the individuals who donated to Dumanis's mayoral campaign at Chase's direction with Azano's funds. The Orders stipulate that Chase asked each individual to donate to Dumanis's campaign with the understanding that the individual would be reimbursed in full for the donation, and that Azano was the source of the funds that Chase used to reimburse the donations. The Orders are available in the Voting Ballot Matters folder.

It also appears that around the same time, Encinas provided cash to employees and friends, directing them to donate it to Dumanis, and then told Azano that he had done so. 1 24, 2012, he wrote a $30,000 check to the DCCC, also at Azano's direction with input from 2 Encinas and others.<sup>16</sup>

3 The Superseding Indictment further alleges that Azano also supported Dumanis and
4 Filner by effecting donations to local independent expenditure committees. On or about May 2,
5 2012, Azano donated $100,000 to a local independent expenditure committee that he established
6 to support Dumanis.<sup>17</sup> On or about September 27, 2012, at Azano's direction, Chase wrote a
7 $120,000 check to a local independent expenditure committee supporting Filner, and Cortes
8 personally delivered the check to that committee's representative.<sup>18</sup>

9 The Superseding Indictment also alleges that Azano subsequently reimbursed Chase
10 $180,000 for the campaign contribution and donations that Chase had made to the DCCC, the 11 San Diego County Democratic Party, and a local independent expenditure committee supporting
12 Filner.<sup>19</sup>

(describing Encinas's participation in arranging Chase's contribution to the DCCC, including Encinas's knowledge that contributions made by foreign nationals or in the name of another are prohibited under the Act, based on his discussions with Marco Polo Cortes — a San Diego-based lobbyist also named in the Superseding Indictment — and a representative of the Committee); Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee, Third Amend. 2012 Oct. Airsam N492RM, LLC appears to be one of Azano's United States-based companies. Encinas also contributed $3,000 to San Diegans for Bonnie Dumanis for Mayor on or about May 16, 2012. <sup>19</sup> Superseding Indictment ¶¶ 22.s.-t. (stating that on or about October 2, 2012, Azano paid Chase $380,000, $180,000 of which involved reimbursement for campaign contributions and donations); Chase Plea ¶¶ B.13.-14. (similar).

4 III. LEGAL ANALYSIS

5 The available information in the record before the Commission is sufficient to support a
6 finding of reason to believe that Chase, using funds from Azano, a foreign national, knowingly
7 and willfully violated 52 U.S.C. § 30121's prohibition on donations by foreign nationals in 8 connection with federal, state, and local elections, and also knowingly and willfully violated
9 52 U.S.C. § 30122's prohibition on contributions in the name of another through the single 10 contribution to the DCCC.

11 Section 30121 of the Act makes it unlawful for foreign nationals (i.e., those who are 12 neither U.S. citizens nor permanent residents) to contribute or donate funds or anything of 13 value<sup>21</sup> in connection with a federal, state, or local election, or to make a contribution or donation
14 to a committee of a political party.<sup>22</sup> It is also unlawful to knowingly solicit, accept, or receive a
15 contribution or donation from a foreign national, or provide substantial assistance in the making
16 of a contribution or donation by a foreign national.<sup>23</sup>

<sup>21</sup> Commission regulations define "anything of value" to include in-kind contributions — the provision of goods or services without charge or at a charge that is less than the usual and normal charge. 11 C.F.R. § 100.52(d)(1).

<sup>22</sup> 52 U.S.C. § 30121(a)(1), (b); 11 C.F.R. §§ 110.20(b), (f). Unlike other provisions of the Act, § 30121 applies to donations to state and local elections in addition to contributions to federal elections. See, e.g., Advisory Op. 2006-16 (TransCanada) at 2; MUR 6093 (Transurban Group) (Commission unanimously approved recommendation to find reason to believe that Transurban Group, an Australian-based international company, violated 2 U.S.C. § 441e (recodified at 52 U.S.C. § 30121) when it donated $174,000 to candidates and political committees in Virginia state and local elections).

1 Section 30122 prohibits contributions in the name of another person, including the
2 making of the contribution, knowingly permitting one's name to be used to effect such a
3 contribution, or knowingly helping or assisting any person in making a contribution in the name
4 of another."<sup>24</sup>

5 Based on the information charged in the Superseding Indictment and represented under
6 oath in the related guilty plea proceedings of Encinas and Chase, Chase's Ethics Commission
7 Order, and the Orders that individual donors executed with the San Diego Ethics Commission,
8 the record presently before the Commission provides reason to believe that Chase may have
9 violated § 30121's prohibition on contributions and donations by foreign nationals in connection
10 with federal, state, and local elections, and also may have violated § 30122's prohibition on 11 contributions in the name of another through the single contribution to the DCCC. Furthermore,
12 based on the stipulations in Chase's plea agreement — in which he admits under oath that he
13 "knowingly and willfully, directly or indirectly, made a donation by a foreign national"<sup>25</sup> and 14 "knowingly and willfully, directly or indirectly, made a contribution in the name of another
15 person"<sup>26</sup> — the Commission finds reason to believe that Chase's violations of the Act were 16 knowing and willful.<sup>27</sup>
