8 SECOND GENERAL COUNSEL’S REPORT

9 10 I. ACTIONS RECOMMENDED

11 We recommend that the Commission: (1) substitute the name Government Integrity LLC 12 (“GI LLC”) in the place of “Unknown Respondent” in the Commission’s previous findings that 13 Unknown Respondent violated 52 U.S.C. § 30122 by making a contribution in the name of 14 another; (2) find reason to believe that GI LLC knowingly and willfully violated 52 U.S.C.
15 § 30122 by making a contribution in the name of another; (3) find reason to believe that James 16 C. Thomas, III (“Thomas”) knowingly and willfully violated 52 U.S.C. § 30122 by knowingly 17 helping or assisting in the making a contribution in the name of another; (4) find reason to 18 believe that Now or Never PAC and Thomas, in both his official capacity as treasurer and in his 19 individual capacity, knowingly and willfully violated 52 U.S.C. § 30122 by knowingly accepting 20 a contribution in the name of another, and knowingly and willfully violated 52 U.S.C.
21 § 30104(b)(3)(A) by misreporting that contribution; (5) approve the attached Factual and Legal 22 Analyses; (6) approve the attached Subpoenas to Produce Documents and Orders to Submit 23 Written Answers to James C. Thomas, III, American Conservative Union, and Gregg Keller.

24 II. BACKGROUND

25 The Commission previously found reason to believe that Unknown Respondent violated 52
26 U.S.C. § 30122 when it made a $1.71 million contribution in the name of American Conservative 27 Union (“ACU”) to Now or Never PAC, an independent expenditure-only committee, and that ACU

7-04144-100

1 violated 52 U.S.C. § 30122 when it allowed its name to be used to effect that contribution.¹ The 2 Commission took no action at that time on the allegation that Now or Never PAC may have 3 knowingly accepted a contribution made in the name of another, in violation of 52 U.S.C. § 30122, 4 and the Office of General Counsel ("OGC") commenced an investigation.

5 III. SUMMARY OF INVESTIGATION

6 In its investigation, which is still ongoing, OGC learned the identity of Unknown 7 Respondent and additional information regarding the circumstances of the transaction.
8 According to ACU, Thomas, who is also the treasurer of Now or Never PAC, "wired $1,800,000 9 to ACU from an account with the name Government Integrity LLC."² ACU's Response further 10 states that Thomas "and other individuals who may have been political consultants" also gave an 11 employee of ACU instructions for wiring the $1,710,000 contribution to Now or Never PAC.³ 12 On the same day that ACU received the contribution from GI LLC with the assistance of 13 Thomas, ACU transferred the $1.71 million contribution to Now or Never PAC pursuant to 14 Thomas's wiring instructions.⁴ ACU later characterized the contribution to Now or Never PAC 15 as a "political contribution received by the Organization and promptly and directly delivered to a 16 separate political organization" in an IRS filing.⁵

¹ See Certification, MUR 6920 (American Conservative Union, et al.) (Jan. 27, 2017); First Gen. Counsel's Rpt., MUR 6920.

⁴ Id. at 1-2. ACU states that at the time of the contribution, ACU bank accounts had a combined total balance of approximately $538,000. Id. ACU therefore would not have been able to make a $1.71 million contribution to Now or Never PAC without the GI LLC funds.

⁵ See ACU Resp. at 2 (Apr. 23, 2015).

1 Based on this information, OGC designated GI LLC and Thomas (both in his individual 2 capacity and as agent of GI LLC) as respondents and notified them of the Complaint.⁶ Counsel 3 for Thomas provided a response on Thomas's behalf, and noted in a telephone conversation that 4 they do not represent GI LLC, but stated that he believed GI LLC had a sole member who is now 5 deceased.⁷ Thomas's response argues that the Complaint fails to show that GI LLC provided the 6 funds to ACU for the purpose of making a contribution to Now or Never PAC, and likewise fails 7 to show that Thomas had knowledge of the conduit arrangement.⁸ It further disputes the 8 Complaint's allegation that Now or Never PAC failed to accurately disclose the contribution 9 from GI LLC, and claims that even if that were true, personal liability would not be conferred to 10 Thomas as treasurer of Now or Never PAC. It does not contest Thomas's role in directing the 11 wire transfer from GI LLC's account to ACU, or his role in providing wiring instructions to 12 ACU for the contribution to Now or Never PAC.

13 IV. LEGAL ANALYSIS

14 A. There is Reason to Believe Government Integrity LLC Made and James C.
15 Thomas, III Knowingly Helped or Assisted in Making a Contribution in the 16 Name of Another

17
18 As set forth in the Commission's Factual and Legal Analysis, there is reason to believe 19 that Unknown Respondent violated 52 U.S.C. § 30122 by making a $1.71 million contribution to 20 Now or Never PAC in the name of ACU. Because Government Integrity LLC⁹ made the ⁶ Thomas was notified in his capacity as treasurer of Now or Never PAC in March of 2015.

⁷ We requested information regarding the current status of GI LLC and Thomas's precise relationship with that entity, but the Response declined to provide such information or any factual background regarding the transaction. Thus, there is no further information in the record regarding the ownership and control of GI LLC other than the fact that Thomas acted on its behalf in making the $1.8 million transfer to ACU. Notably, the Response does not dispute Thomas's role as agent of GI LLC at the time of the transaction.

⁸ Thomas Resp. (May 23, 2017).

⁹ We do not know whether GI LLC elected to be treated as a corporation by the Internal Revenue Service pursuant to 26 C.F.R. § 301.7701-3. If information becomes available that would indicate that the contribution was

1 contribution, we recommend that the Commission substitute its name in the place of "Unknown
2 Respondent" in the Commission's previous finding and find reason to believe that GI LLC 3 violated 52 U.S.C. § 30122 by making the contribution in the name of another. We also 4 recommend that the Commission find reason to believe that Thomas violated 52 U.S.C. § 30122 5 by knowingly helping or assisting any person in making a contribution in the name of another.¹⁰ 6 Thomas sent the contribution to ACU from GI LLC while also providing wiring instructions for 7 the contribution to be delivered to Now or Never PAC. Though Thomas argues that the 8 Complaint has not demonstrated GI LLC's or Thomas's intent to make a contribution in the 9 name of another, as noted, the factual record shows that ACU characterized the contribution to 10 Now or Never PAC as a "political contribution received by the Organization and promptly and 11 directly delivered to a separate political organization."¹¹ Accordingly, the current record 12 provides reason to believe that Thomas violated 52 U.S.C. § 30122 by knowingly helping or 13 assisting any person in making a contribution in the name of another.¹²

14 B. There is Reason to Believe Now or Never PAC Knowingly Accepted and 15 Misreported a Contribution in the Name of Another

16 The Act prohibits a committee from knowingly accepting a contribution made in the 17 name of another.¹³ The Act also requires political committees such as Now or Never PAC to file properly attributable to its sole member under 11 C.F.R. § 110.1(g)(4), we would make the appropriate recommendation to the Commission at that time.

¹⁰ See 11 C.F.R. § 110.4(b)(iii). Because we do not yet know the precise nature of the relationship between GI LLC and Thomas, particularly whether Thomas provided any of the funds used to make the contribution, Thomas may have violated the Act's prohibition on knowingly helping or assisting a person in making a contribution in the name of another. See id.

¹¹ ACU Resp. at 2 (Apr. 23, 2015).

¹² See 11 C.F.R. § 110.4(b)(iii).

¹³ 52 U.S.C. § 30122; 11 C.F.R. § 110.4(b)(iv).

1 regular disclosure reports.¹⁴ Committees must disclose itemized breakdowns of receipts,
2 including the name and address of each person who has made any contribution in an aggregate
3 amount or value in excess of $200 within the calendar year, together with the date and amount of 4 any such contribution.¹⁵ In addition, if a committee treasurer discovers after receipt of an 5 apparently legitimate contribution that it was made in the name of another, the treasurer must 6 refund or disgorge the contribution within 30 days.¹⁶ The requirement that a contribution be 7 made in the name of its true source promotes Congress's objective of ensuring the complete and 8 accurate disclosure by candidates and committees of the political contributions they receive.¹⁷

9 Thomas, the treasurer of Now or Never PAC, appears to have both wired the $1.8 million
10 from GI LLC to ACU and provided instructions on wiring the $1.71 million contribution from 11 ACU to Now or Never PAC on the same day. His role as treasurer of Now or Never PAC leaves
12 little doubt that Now or Never PAC knew that ACU was not the true source of the $1.71 million 13 contribution. Accordingly, we recommend that the Commission find reason to believe that Now 14 or Never PAC and James C. Thomas, III, in his official capacity as treasurer, violated 52 U.S.C.
15 § 30122 by knowingly accepting a contribution in the name of another, and violated 52 U.S.C.
16 § 30104(b)(3)(A) by failing to accurately report the contribution.

(informing recipient committee of its obligation to refund or disgorge illegal contribution); Advisory Op. 1996-05 (Jay Kim for Congress) (allowing for disgorgement of illegal contributions to U.S. Treasury as an alternative to refunding contributions).

¹⁷ See, e.g., United States v. O'Donnell, 608 F.3d 546, 553 (9th Cir. 2010) (“[T]he congressional purpose behind [section 30122] — to ensure the complete and accurate disclosure of the contributors who finance federal elections — is plain.”).

1 C. There is Reason to Believe Thomas, GI LLC, and Now or Never PAC Acted 2 Knowingly and Willfully and That Thomas Violated the Act in His Personal 3 Capacity
4

5 We further recommend that the Commission find that the potential violations by Thomas, 6 GI LLC, and Now or Never PAC were knowing and willful. A violation of the Act is knowing 7 and willful if the “acts were committed with full knowledge of all the relevant facts and a 8 recognition that the action is prohibited by law.”¹⁸ This does not require proving knowledge of 9 the specific statute or regulations that the respondent allegedly violated.¹⁹ Instead, it is sufficient 10 that the respondent “acted voluntarily and was aware that his conduct was unlawful.”²⁰

11 Here, Thomas played a central role in the conduit scheme. He not only assisted GI LLC 12 in making a contribution in the name of another, but did so for the benefit of the PAC for which 13 he is treasurer. His dual role in both the making of and receipt of the contribution demonstrates 14 his knowledge of the conduit scheme. Thomas has served as the treasurer of Now or Never PAC 15 since 2012, when the group filed its Statement of Organization.²¹ He is also the treasurer of at 16 least one other federal committee²² and two Missouri political committees.²³ As such, we 17 presume he has significant knowledge of campaign finance law. The Commission has 18 previously afforded weight to a respondent’s knowledge of campaign finance law in finding that

1 a respondent knowingly and willfully violated 52 U.S.C. § 30122.²⁴ Based on the foregoing, we 2 recommend that the Commission find that Thomas knowingly and willfully violated 52 U.S.C. § 3 30122 by knowingly helping or assisting in the making of a contribution in the name of another 4 and accepting a contribution made in the name of another, and that he knowingly and willfully
5 violated 52 U.S.C. § 30104(b)(3)(A) by failing to accurately report that contribution as treasurer 6 of the recipient committee. Because Thomas's conduct is attributable to both GI LLC²⁵ and 7 Now or Never PAC, we further recommend that the Commission find that GI LLC likewise 8 knowingly and willfully violated 52 U.S.C. § 30122, and that Now or Never PAC and Thomas, 9 in his official capacity as treasurer, knowingly and willfully violated 52 U.S.C. §§ 30122 and 10 30104(b)(3)(A).

11 Finally, we recommend that the Commission find Thomas personally liable for his role in 12 accepting a contribution in the name of another on behalf of Now or Never PAC. The 13 Commission has stated that, "[d]ue to their 'pivotal role,' treasurers may be held personally 14 liable for failing to fulfill their responsibilities under the Act and the Commission's 15 regulations."²⁶ Thus, the Commission has determined as a matter of policy that it will proceed 16 against treasurers in their personal capacity:

17 [W]here information indicates that the treasurer knowingly and willfully violated 18 an obligation that the Act or regulations specifically impose on treasurers or 19 where the treasurer recklessly failed to fulfill the duties imposed by law, or where 20 the treasurer has intentionally deprived himself or herself of the operative facts

²⁴ See Factual & Legal Analysis at 9, MUR 7027 (MV Transportation, Inc.) (concluding that a respondent's conduct was knowing and willful where respondent had donated over $100,000 to federal candidates and was familiar with campaign finance regulations) (open matter).

²⁵ See note 7 supra.

1 giving rise to the violation.²⁷

2 Because Thomas's conduct on behalf of Now or Never PAC was knowing and willful, we 3 recommend that the Commission find reason to believe that Thomas knowingly and willfully 4 violated 52 U.S.C. §§ 30122 and 30104(b)(3)(A) in his personal capacity.

5 V. DISCOVERY

6 We have on multiple occasions requested additional information, including 7 communications and other documents discussing the transaction, from ACU, ACU's former 8 executive director, Gregg Keller, and Thomas. We have requested information about the nature 9 of the relationship between GI LLC and Thomas, the source of the funds Thomas wired, the 10 purpose for wiring those funds through ACU, and Respondents' knowledge of relevant campaign 11 finance law. The current record is unclear as to whether Thomas provided the funds to the GI 12 LLC account, or whether other parties were involved. Additionally, we are seeking any 13 documentation regarding Thomas's purpose in orchestrating the transaction that may 14 demonstrate whether his actions were knowing and willful.

15 The parties have either delayed or declined our requests for additional factual information 16 and documents pertaining to the transaction. Given the impending expiration of the statute of 17 limitations – the contribution was delivered to Now or Never PAC on October 31, 2012, and thus 18 the violation expires on October 31, 2017 – and the parties' reluctance to voluntarily cooperate 19 with our investigation, we propose the attached subpoenas and orders to compel answers to 20 written questions and to produce documents to: (1) Thomas, (2) ACU, and (3) Keller. As 21 explained below, we believe that the subpoenas and orders are necessary to obtain the

3 A. James C. Thomas, III

4 Thomas has consistently declined to provide factual information regarding the 5 contribution at issue in this matter. In early May, we spoke with Thomas's counsel and asked 6 that Thomas provide information and documents to complete the factual record, including more 7 information regarding GI LLC and its unknown principal. We received Thomas's response to 8 the Commission's findings on May 23, 2017, but it did not contain any of the requested factual 9 information. We again asked counsel to provide additional information. In a phone call on May 10 30, 2017, counsel showed hesitancy to provide additional factual information, stating that he did 11 not want to provide a "roadmap" to the Commission of his client's conduct. Counsel then 12 but stated that his client likely would not agree to toll the statute 13 of limitations,

14 During that discussion, counsel stated that he would provide an attorney proffer that may 15 mitigate Thomas's conduct, but late in the evening on June 6, 2017, when that proffer was due, 16 counsel informed us via email that Thomas would not provide any declaration or proffer at this 17 time. Accordingly, we propose the attached order to compel James C. Thomas, III to answer 18 questions and provide documents regarding the contribution at issue.

19 B. American Conservative Union

20 Following ACU's submission of its written narrative, we asked counsel for ACU whether 21 they possessed any documents reflecting communications between ACU and Thomas about the 22 transaction. This information is needed to confirm the nature of the arrangement between GI 23 LLC/Thomas and ACU. ACU did not respond, and we inquired about any such documents on 11004414141

1 several occasions between April 14, 2017 and June 13, 2017. On May 25, 2017, counsel for 2 ACU indicated in an email that their client possessed several documents that are responsive to 3 our inquiry, but that counsel had not yet completed a privilege review. Counsel further stated 4 that he would get back to us regarding the results of the privilege review during the week of May 5 30, 2017. On June 6, 2017 we spoke with counsel, who informed us that he believed most of 6 their documents were privileged. On June 13, 2017, counsel confirmed that he had privilege 7 concerns about all of the responsive documents in ACU's possession and has not produced any 8 documents.

9 Accordingly, we propose the attached order to compel ACU to provide documents regarding the 10 transaction at issue so that ACU will either produce the documents or make a formal assertion of 11 privilege.

12 C. Gregg Keller

13 Counsel for ACU suggested that we contact Gregg Keller, the former executive director 14 of ACU, for additional information that current ACU employees may not have regarding the 15 nature of the arrangement between GI LLC/Thomas and ACU. On May 11, 2017, we spoke with 16 Keller's counsel to set up a time for an informal interview with Keller, but counsel has been 17 unwilling to set a date. On June 15, 2017, counsel informed us that his client would not consent 18 to an informal interview. We therefore propose the attached order to compel Keller to provide 19 documents and answer questions regarding the transaction.

5 MUR: 6920

6 RESPONDENT: Government Integrity LLC

7 I. INTRODUCTION

8 This matter was generated by a Complaint alleging that an Unknown Respondent made a
9 $1.71 million contribution to Now or Never PAC in the name of American Conservative Union
10 (“ACU”), in violation of 52 U.S.C. § 30122 and 11 C.F.R. § 110.4(b). The Commission found 11 reason to believe that Unknown Respondent violated 52 U.S.C. § 30122. Based on the available 12 information, the Commission now substitutes Government Integrity LLC in the place of 13 “Unknown Respondent” in the Commission’s previous reason-to-believe finding in this matter 14 and finds that Government Integrity LLC acted in a knowing and willful manner.

15 II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

16 Now or Never PAC, an independent expenditure only committee, reported that on 17 October 31, 2012, it received a $1.71 million contribution from ACU,¹ a 501(c)(4) social welfare
18 organization.² In May 2014, apparently after an independent auditor reviewed its 2012 19 finances,³ ACU filed an Amended 2012 IRS Form 990 that disclosed the $1.71 contribution to 20 Now or Never PAC as “a political contribution received by the Organization and promptly and 21 directly delivered to a separate political organization.”⁴ The Complaint alleged that Unknown

³ Compl. ¶¶ 15-17, Exs. B (Conlon & Associates Independent Auditor’s Report, Apr. 9, 2014) and C (ACU Amended Form 990, May 12, 2014).

⁴ Compl Ex. C at Schedule O, Schedule C.

1 Respondent is the true source of the $1.71 million contribution made in ACU's name to Now or 2 Never PAC.⁵ Based on ACU's representation that the contribution to Now or Never PAC was "a
3 political contribution received by the Organization and promptly and directly delivered to a 4 separate political organization,"⁶ the Commission found reason to believe that an Unknown 5 Respondent violated 52 U.S.C. § 30122 and commenced an investigation.

6 During the investigation, the Commission learned that James C. Thomas, III, who is also 7 the treasurer of Now or Never PAC, wired $1,800,000 to ACU from an account with the name 8 Government Integrity LLC and provided an employee of ACU instructions for wiring the 9 $1,710,000 contribution to Now or Never PAC. Based on this information, OGC designated GI
10 LLC and Thomas, as agent of GI LLC, as respondents and notified them of the Complaint. GI 11 LLC did not respond to the notification.

12 III. LEGAL ANALYSIS

13 The Act prohibits a person from knowingly permitting his or her name to be used to 14 effect a contribution in the name of another.⁷ The requirement that a contribution be made in the 15 name of its true source promotes Congress's objective of ensuring the complete and accurate 16 disclosure by candidates and committees of the political contributions they receive.⁸ Courts have 17 uniformly rejected the assertion that "only the person who actually transmits funds . . . makes the ⁵ Compl. ¶¶ 12, 17.

⁷ 52 U.S.C. § 30122; see also 11 C.F.R. § 110.4(b). The term "person" includes partnerships, corporations, and other organizations. 52 U.S.C. § 30101(11); 11 C.F.R. § 100.10.

⁸ See, e.g., United States v. O'Donnell, 608 F.3d 546, 553 (9th Cir. 2010) ("[T]he congressional purpose behind [section 30122] — to ensure the complete and accurate disclosure of the contributors who finance federal elections — is plain.").

1 contribution,”⁹ recognizing that “it is implausible that Congress, in seeking to promote 2 transparency, would have understood the relevant contributor to be [an] intermediary who 3 merely transmitted the campaign gift.”¹⁰ Accordingly, the Act and the Commission’s regulations 4 provide that a person who provides funds to another for the purposes of contributing to a 5 candidate or committee “makes” the resulting contribution.¹¹ If an intermediary merely plays a 6 “ministerial role” in transmitting a contribution, the contribution should not be attributed to the 7 intermediary but instead to the original source.¹²

8 Based on ACU’s representation that the contribution to Now or Never PAC was “a
9 political contribution received by the Organization and promptly and directly delivered to a 10 separate political organization,” the Commission found reason to believe that Unknown 11 Respondent violated 52 U.S.C. § 30122. Because the Commission identified Government 12 Integrity LLC as the “Organization” that provided ACU with the political contribution that it 13 immediately delivered to Now or Never PAC, the Commission substitutes Government Integrity 14 LLC in the place of “Unknown Respondent” in the Commission’s previous finding that there is 15 reason to believe that Unknown Respondent violated 52 U.S.C. § 30122 by making a 16 contribution in the name of another. The Commission also finds reason to believe that 17 Government Integrity LLC’s actions were knowing and willful. A violation of the Act is 18 knowing and willful if the “acts were committed with full knowledge of all the relevant facts and 7 contribution demonstrates his knowledge of the conduit scheme. Thomas has served as the 8 treasurer of Now or Never PAC since 2012, when the group filed its Statement of 9 Organization.¹⁶ He is also the treasurer of at least one other federal committee,¹⁷ and two 10 Missouri political committees.¹⁸ As such, we presume he has significant knowledge of 11 campaign finance law, and the Commission has previously afforded weight to a respondent’s 12 knowledge of campaign finance law in finding that a respondent knowingly and willfully 13 violated 52 U.S.C. § 30122. Because Thomas’s conduct is attributable to GI LLC,¹⁹ the

6
7 RESPONDENT: Now or Never PAC and James C. Thomas, III in his official capacity as 8 treasurer

9
10 I. INTRODUCTION

11 This matter was generated by a Complaint alleging that an Unknown Respondent made a
12 $1.71 million contribution to Now or Never PAC in the name of American Conservative Union
13 (“ACU”), in violation of 52 U.S.C. § 30122 and 11 C.F.R. § 110.4(b). The Commission 14 previously took no action at that time on the allegation that Now or Never PAC may have 15 knowingly accepted a contribution made in the name of another, in violation of 52 U.S.C.
16 § 30122, and the Office of General Counsel (“OGC”) commenced an investigation. Based on 17 the available information, the Commission now finds reason to believe that Now or Never PAC 18 and James C. Thomas, III, in his official capacity as treasurer, violated 52 U.S.C. § 30122 by 19 knowingly accepting a contribution in the name of another, and violated 52 U.S.C.
20 § 30104(b)(3)(A) by failing to accurately report the contribution. The Commission further finds 21 that these violations were knowing and willful.

22 II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

23 Now or Never PAC, an independent expenditure only committee, reported that on 24 October 31, 2012, it received a $1.71 million contribution from ACU, a 501(c)(4) social welfare 25 organization. James C. Thomas, III is treasurer of Now or Never PAC. In May 2014, apparently 26 after an independent auditor reviewed its 2012 finances, ACU filed an Amended 2012 IRS Form 27 990 that disclosed the $1.71 contribution to Now or Never PAC as “a political contribution 28 received by the Organization and promptly and directly delivered to a separate political

1 organization.” The Complaint alleged that Unknown Respondent is the true source of the $1.71
2 million contribution made in ACU’s name to Now or Never PAC. Based on ACU’s
3 representation that the contribution to Now or Never PAC was “a political contribution received 4 by the Organization and promptly and directly delivered to a separate political organization,” the 5 Commission found reason to believe that an Unknown Respondent violated 52 U.S.C. § 30122 6 and commenced an investigation.

7 During the investigation, the Commission learned that Thomas wired $1,800,000 to ACU
8 from an account with the name Government Integrity LLC (“GI LLC”) and provided an 9 employee of ACU instructions for wiring the $1,710,000 contribution to Now or Never PAC.

10 III. LEGAL ANALYSIS

11 A. There is Reason to Believe Now or Never PAC Knowingly Accepted and 12 Misreported a Contribution in the Name of Another

13
14 The Act prohibits a committee from knowingly accepting a contribution made in the 15 name of another.¹ The Act also requires political committees such as Now or Never PAC to file 16 regular disclosure reports.² Committees must disclose itemized breakdowns of receipts, 17 including the name and address of each person who has made any contribution in an aggregate 18 amount or value in excess of $200 within the calendar year, together with the date and amount of 19 any such contribution.³ In addition, if a committee treasurer discovers after receipt of an 20 apparently legitimate contribution that it was made in the name of another, the treasurer must

INFORMATION

1 refund or disgorge the contribution within 30 days.⁴ The requirement that a contribution be 2 made in the name of its true source promotes Congress's objective of ensuring the complete and
3 accurate disclosure by candidates and committees of the political contributions they receive.⁵

4 Thomas, the treasurer of Now or Never PAC, appears to have both wired the $1.8 million
5 from GI LLC to ACU and provided instructions on wiring the $1.71 million contribution from 6 ACU to Now or Never PAC on the same day. His role as treasurer of Now or Never PAC leaves
7 little doubt that Now or Never PAC knew that ACU was not the true source of the $1.71 million 8 contribution. Accordingly, the Commission finds reason to believe that Now or Never PAC and 9 James C. Thomas, III, in his official capacity as treasurer, violated 52 U.S.C. § 30122 by 10 knowingly accepting a contribution in the name of another, and violated 52 U.S.C.
11 § 30104(b)(3)(A) by failing to accurately report the contribution.

12 B. There is Reason to Believe Now or Never PAC Acted Knowingly and 13 Willfully
14

15 The Commission further finds that the potential violations by Now or Never PAC were 16 knowing and willful. A violation of the Act is knowing and willful if the "acts were committed 17 with full knowledge of all the relevant facts and a recognition that the action is prohibited by 18 law."⁶ This does not require proving knowledge of the specific statute or regulations that the 19 respondent allegedly violated.⁷ Instead, it is sufficient that the respondent "acted voluntarily and

5 his knowledge of the conduit scheme. Thomas has served as the treasurer of Now or Never PAC

7 RESPONDENT: James C. Thomas, III

8 I. INTRODUCTION

9 This matter was generated by a Complaint alleging that an Unknown Respondent made a
10 $1.71 million contribution to Now or Never PAC in the name of American Conservative Union
11 (“ACU”), in violation of 52 U.S.C. § 30122 and 11 C.F.R. § 110.4(b). Based on the available 12 information, the Commission now finds that James C. Thomas, III knowingly and willfully violated 13 52 U.S.C. § 30122 by knowingly helping or assisting in the making of a contribution in the name of 14 another and by knowingly accepting a contribution made in the name of another, and that he 15 knowingly and willfully violated 52 U.S.C. § 30104(b)(3)(A) in his personal capacity by failing to 16 accurately report that contribution as treasurer of the recipient committee.

17 II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

18 Now or Never PAC, an independent expenditure only committee, reported that on 19 October 31, 2012, it received a $1.71 million contribution from ACU,¹ a 501(c)(4) social welfare
20 organization.² James C. Thomas, III is the treasurer of Now or Never PAC. In May 2014,

1 political organization.”⁴ The Complaint alleged that Unknown Respondent is the true source of 2 the $1.71 million contribution made in ACU’s name to Now or Never PAC.⁵ Based on ACU’s
3 representation that the contribution to Now or Never PAC was “a political contribution received
4 by the Organization and promptly and directly delivered to a separate political organization,”⁶
5 the Commission found reason to believe that an Unknown Respondent violated 52 U.S.C.
6 § 30122 and commenced an investigation.

7 During the investigation, the Commission learned that Thomas wired $1,800,000 to ACU
8 from an account with the name Government Integrity LLC (“GI LLC”) and provided an 9 employee of ACU instructions for wiring the $1,710,000 contribution to Now or Never PAC.
10 Based on this information, OGC designated Thomas as a respondent and notified him of the 11 Complaint.

12 III. LEGAL ANALYSIS

13 A. There is Reason to Believe James C. Thomas, III Knowingly Helped or 14 Assisted in Making a Contribution in the Name of Another

15 As previously determined by the Commission, there is reason to believe that Unknown 16 Respondent violated 52 U.S.C. § 30122 by making a $1.71 million contribution to Now or Never 17 PAC in the name of ACU. Because GI LLC made the contribution with Thomas’s assistance, 18 the Commission finds reason to believe that Thomas violated 52 U.S.C. § 30122 by knowingly 19 helping or assisting any person in making a contribution in the name of another.⁷ Thomas sent

⁶ ACU Resp. at 2 (Apr. 23, 2015).

⁷ See 11 C.F.R. § 110.4(b)(iii). Because we do not yet know the precise nature of the relationship between GI LLC and Thomas, particularly whether Thomas provided any of the funds used to make the contribution, Thomas

1 the contribution to ACU from GI LLC while also providing wiring instructions for the 2 contribution to be delivered to Now or Never PAC. Though Thomas argues that the Complaint 3 has not demonstrated GI LLC's or Thomas's intent to make a contribution in the name of 4 another, as noted, the factual record shows that ACU characterized the contribution to Now or 5 Never PAC as a "political contribution received by the Organization and promptly and directly 6 delivered to a separate political organization."⁸ Accordingly, the current record provides reason 7 to believe that Thomas violated 52 U.S.C. § 30122 by knowingly helping or assisting any person 8 in making a contribution in the name of another.⁹

4 Thomas, the treasurer of Now or Never PAC, appears to have both wired the $1.8 million
5 from GI LLC to ACU and provided instructions on wiring the $1.71 million contribution from 6 ACU to Now or Never PAC on the same day. Based on this information, the Commission has 7 found reason to believe that Thomas, in his official capacity as treasurer of Now or Never PAC, 8 violated 52 U.S.C. § 30122 by knowingly accepting a contribution in the name of another, and 9 violated 52 U.S.C. § 30104(b)(3)(A) by failing to accurately report the contribution.

10 C. There is Reason to Believe Thomas Acted Knowingly and Willfully and that 11 Thomas Violated the Act in his Personal Capacity

12 13 The Commission also finds that the potential violations by Thomas were knowing and 14 willful. A violation of the Act is knowing and willful if the "acts were committed with full 15 knowledge of all the relevant facts and a recognition that the action is prohibited by law."¹⁵ This 16 does not require proving knowledge of the specific statute or regulations that the respondent

8 presume he has significant knowledge of campaign finance law. The Commission has 9 previously afforded weight to a respondent’s knowledge of campaign finance law in finding that 10 a respondent knowingly and willfully violated 52 U.S.C. § 30122. Based on the foregoing, the 11 Commission finds that Thomas knowingly and willfully violated 52 U.S.C. § 30122 by 13 accepting a contribution made in the name of another, and that he knowingly and willfully

14 violated 52 U.S.C. § 30104(b)(3)(A) by failing to accurately report that contribution as treasurer 15 of the recipient committee.

16 Finally, the Commission finds Thomas personally liable for his role in accepting a
