RE: MUR 6920

Dear Mr. Thomas:

The Federal Election Commission (“Commission”) is the regulatory agency that administers and enforces the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended (the “Act”). Based on a complaint filed by Citizens for Responsibility and Ethics in Washington on February 27, 2015, the Commission found reason to believe that Unknown Respondent violated 52 U.S.C. § 30122 by making a $1.71 million contribution to Now or Never PAC in the name of American Conservative Union.¹ The Complaint and the Factual and Legal Analysis which formed the basis for the Commission’s finding are attached for your information.

The Commission authorized the Office of General Counsel to investigate the source of the contribution. During our investigation, we obtained information indicating that Government Integrity LLC may be an Unknown Respondent as to which the Commission made findings. Specifically, we received information indicating that you wired the $1.71 million contribution to American Conservative Union from an account in the name of Government Integrity LLC for delivery to Now or Never PAC. We are now preparing to make a recommendation to the Commission in connection with that information. Prior to making our recommendation, we offer you an opportunity to provide in writing a response to the Complaint and the Commission’s Factual and Legal Analysis. Should you choose to respond, you may also submit any materials — including documents or affidavits from persons with relevant knowledge — that you believe may be relevant or useful to the Commission’s consideration of this matter.

Your submission, if you choose to make one, must be submitted within 15 days of receipt of this letter. You should address any response to the Office of General Counsel, and the response should reference MUR 6920. After 15 days, we will prepare recommendations to the Commission, taking into account any response you submit in making our recommendations. For your information, I have enclosed a brief description of the Commission's preliminary procedures for processing possible violations discovered by the Commission.

This matter will remain confidential in accordance with 52 U.S.C. §§ 30109(a)(4)(B) and 30109(a)(12)(A) unless you notify the Commission in writing that you wish the matter to be made public. Please be advised that, although the Commission cannot disclose information regarding an investigation to the public, it may share information on a confidential basis with other law enforcement agencies.² If you intend to be represented by legal counsel in this matter, please advise the Commission by completing the enclosed form stating the name, address, and telephone number of such counsel, and authorizing such counsel to receive any notifications and other communications from the Commission.

If you have any questions, please contact Antoinette Fuoto, the attorney handling this matter, at (202) 694-1634. Information is also available on the Commission's website at www.fec.gov.

Kathleen Guith

COMPLAINT

1. Citizens for Responsibility and Ethics in Washington (“CREW”) and Anne L. Weismann bring this complaint before the Federal Election Commission (“FEC”) seeking an immediate investigation and enforcement action against the American Conservative Union, Now or Never PAC, James C. Thomas III, and an Unknown Respondent for direct and serious violations of the Federal Election Campaign Act (“FECA”).

Complainants

2. Complainant CREW is a non-profit corporation, organized under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. CREW is committed to protecting the right of citizens to be informed about the activities of government officials and to ensuring the integrity of government officials. CREW seeks to empower citizens to have an influential voice in government decisions and in the governmental decision-making process. CREW uses a combination of research, litigation, and advocacy to advance its mission.

3. In furtherance of its mission, CREW seeks to expose unethical and illegal conduct of those involved in government. One way CREW does this is by educating citizens regarding the integrity of the electoral process and our system of government. Toward this end, CREW monitors the campaign finance activities of those who run for federal office and those who make expenditures to influence federal elections, and publicizes those who violate federal campaign finance laws through its website, press releases, and other methods of distribution. CREW also files complaints with the FEC when it discovers violations of the FECA. Publicizing campaign finance violations and filing complaints with the FEC serve CREW's mission of keeping the public informed about individuals and entities that violate campaign finance laws and deterring future violations of campaign finance law.

4. Complainant Anne L. Weismann is the interim executive director and chief counsel of Citizens for Responsibility and Ethics in Washington, a citizen of the United States, and a registered voter and resident of Maryland. Both as a voter and as part of her responsibilities for CREW, Ms. Weismann is committed to ensuring the integrity of federal elections and the campaign finance requirements of the FECA. To that end, Ms. Weismann reviews campaign finance filings and media reports to determine whether candidates and political committees comply with the requirements of the FECA.

5. When CREW and Ms. Weismann discover a violation of the FECA, they submit complaints against violators pursuant to their rights under the FECA. 52 U.S.C. § 30109(a)(1). CREW and Ms. Weismann rely on the FEC to comply with the FECA when making its enforcement decisions because the FEC is the exclusive civil enforcement authority for violations of the FECA. 52 U.S.C. § 30107(e). CREW and Ms. Weismann are injured if the FEC dismisses their complaints contrary to the FECA.

6. In addition, in order to assess whether an individual, candidate, political committee, or other regulated entity is complying with federal campaign finance law, CREW needs the information contained in receipts and disbursements disclosure reports political committees must file pursuant to the FECA, 52 U.S.C. § 30104(a); 11 C.F.R. § 104.1. CREW is hindered in its programmatic activity when an individual, candidate, political committee, or other regulated entity fails to disclose campaign finance information in reports required by the FECA.

7. CREW relies on the FEC's proper administration of the FECA's reporting requirements because the FECA-mandated disclosure reports are the only source of information CREW can use to determine if an individual or entity is complying with the FECA. The proper administration of the FECA's reporting requirements includes mandating that all disclosure reports required by the FECA are properly and timely filed with the FEC. CREW is hindered in its programmatic activity when the FEC fails to properly administer the FECA's reporting requirements, because it denies CREW information to which it is statutorily entitled.

8. Ms. Weismann also is entitled to receive information contained in disclosure reports required by the FECA, 52 U.S.C. § 30104(a); 11 C.F.R. § 104.1. Ms. Weismann is harmed when an individual, candidate, political committee or other entity fails to report campaign finance activity as required by the FECA. See FEC v. Akins, 524 U.S. 11, 19 (1998), quoting Buckley v. Valeo, 424 U.S. 1, 66-67 (1976) (political committees must disclose contributors and disbursements to help voters understand who provides which candidates with financial support). Ms. Weismann is further harmed when the FEC fails to properly administer the FECA's reporting requirements, limiting her ability to review campaign finance information.

Respondents

9. The American Conservative Union ("ACU") is a tax-exempt organization formed in 1964 and organized under section 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code.¹

10. Now or Never PAC is an independent-expenditure only committee ("super PAC") formed in 2012.²

11. Mr. Thomas is the treasurer of Now or Never PAC.³

12. Unknown Respondent is the true source of funds ACU transferred to Now or Never PAC.

Factual allegations

13. During the 2012 election cycle, Now or Never PAC's reported spending $7,760,174 on independent expenditures.⁴

14. Now or Never PAC disclosed receiving $8,200,500 in contributions during the 2012 election cycle.⁵ The largest contribution the group disclosed to the FEC was from ACU, which Now or Never PAC said contributed $1,710,000 on October 31, 2012.⁶ Mr. Thomas electronically signed the form, certifying he had examined the report and it was true, correct, and complete to the best of his knowledge and belief.⁷

15. ACU initially filed its 2012 Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") Form 990 tax return in November 2013.⁸ Despite Now or Never PAC's report to the FEC of receiving the $1.71 million contribution, ACU asserted to the IRS it did not engage in any direct or indirect political campaign activities, and did not disclose making any contribution to Now or Never PAC.⁹

16. In April 2014, ACU's tax preparer provided the organization the results of its independent auditor's report of ACU's finances for 2012.¹⁰ Contrary to ACU's initial tax return, the auditor's report asserted ACU made a $1.71 million political donation in 2012.¹¹

17. A month later, in May 2014, ACU filed an amended 2012 tax return with the IRS.¹² This tax return acknowledged ACU engaged in political campaign activities in 2012, and further disclosed ACU's $1.71 million contribution to Now or Never PAC.¹³ The funds for this contribution, however, were not from ACU. According to ACU's amended tax return, ACU acted as a conduit for a contribution earmarked to Now or Never PAC.¹⁴

18. IRS regulations permit tax-exempt organizations to accept political contributions and "promptly and directly" transfer those funds to a separate segregated fund. 26 C.F.R. § 1.527-6(e). The IRS instructions for reporting political contributions characterize such transfers as occurring when a "section 501(c) organization collects political contributions or member dues earmarked for a separate segregated fund, and promptly and directly transfers them to that fund."¹⁵

19. ACU's tax return designates its contribution to Now or Never PAC as this type of transfer. As ACU explained, the "$1,710,000 was a political contribution received by the Organization and promptly and directly delivered to a separate political organization."¹⁶ Confirming the designation, in reporting the transfer, ACU filled out "0" in the column for the "[a]mount paid from filing organization's funds," and put "1,710,000" in the column for "[a]mount of political contributions received and promptly and directly delivered to a separate political organization."¹⁷

¹⁷ Id., Schedule C, Part I-C, Line 5 (d), (e).

20. Even though ACU was not the source of the transferred funds, Now or Never PAC reported ACU as the contributor.¹⁸ ACU has not publicly identified the contributor who provided the $1.71 million contribution it delivered to Now or Never PAC.

Count I

21. The FECA and FEC regulations prohibit knowingly permitting one's name to be used to effect a contribution in the name of another person and knowingly helping or assisting any person in making a contribution in the name of another. 52 U.S.C. § 30122; 11 C.F.R. § 110.4(b).

22. ACU admitted in its amended 2012 tax return – filed under penalty of perjury – that it received a $1.71 million political contribution earmarked for Now or Never PAC, then promptly and directly delivered the contribution to the super PAC. ACU further reported that none of the money transferred to Now or Never PAC came from ACU's funds. As a result, ACU knowingly permitted its name to be used to effect the contribution and knowingly helped the undisclosed donor make the contribution, in violation of 52 U.S.C. § 30122 and 11 C.F.R. § 110.4(b).

23. Any person who knowingly and willingly violates any provision of the FECA involving the making, receiving, or reporting of any contribution aggregating more than $25,000 in a calendar year is subject to up to five years in prison and fines. 52 U.S.C. § 30109(d)(1). ACU only disclosed the contribution to Now or Never PAC after an independent audit of its 2012 finances, and its amended 2012 tax return reported ACU simply acted as a conduit for a contribution by an undisclosed donor. As a result, ACU's conduct was knowing and willful, and thus subject to criminal penalties and referral to the Department of Justice. 52 U.S.C. §§ 30109(a)(5)(C), (d)(1).

Count II

24. The FECA and FEC regulations also prohibit knowingly accepting a contribution made by one person in the name of another. 52 U.S.C. § 30122; 11 C.F.R. § 110.4(b).

25. If Now or Never PAC knowingly accepted a $1.71 million contribution from ACU made in the name of another, Now or Never PAC violated 52 U.S.C. § 30122 and 11 C.F.R. § 110.4(b). If Now or Never PAC's violations were knowing and willful, they also are subject to criminal penalties and referral to the Department of Justice. 52 U.S.C. §§ 30109(a)(5)(C), (d)(1).

Count III

26. The FECA and FEC regulations further prohibit making a contribution in the name of another person. 52 U.S.C. § 30122; 11 C.F.R. § 110.4(b).

27. The Unknown Respondent provided to ACU the $1.71 million it in turn transferred to Now or Never PAC. By making a contribution to Now or Never PAC in the name of ACU, the Unknown Respondent violated 52 U.S.C. § 30122 and 11 C.F.R. § 110.4(b). If the Unknown Respondent's violations were knowing and willful, they also are subject to criminal penalties and referral to the Department of Justice. 52 U.S.C. §§ 30109(a)(5)(C), (d)(1).

Conclusion

WHEREFORE, Citizens for Responsibility and Ethics in Washington and Anne L. Weismann request that the FEC conduct an investigation into these allegations, declare the respondents to have violated the FECA and applicable FEC regulations, impose sanctions appropriate to these violations and take such further action as may be appropriate, including referring this case to the Department of Justice for criminal prosecution.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

The Board of Directors
American Conservative Union, Inc.
Washington, D.C.

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of the American Conservative Union, Inc. (Organization), which comprise the statement of financial position as of December 31, 2012, and the related statements of activities, cash flows, and functional expenses for the year then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with U.S. generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the American Conservative Union, Inc. as of December 31, 2012, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended, in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

NOTE 1: SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Organization

The American Conservative Union (Organization) was incorporated as a non-stock, nonprofit corporation in the Commonwealth of Virginia in 1964. In 2006, the Organization incorporated in the District of Columbia, under the District of Columbia Nonprofit Corporation Act.

The mission of the Organization is to educate the public about current social, economic, and political issues.

Significant accounting policies are as follows:

Basis of Presentation

Financial statement presentation follows the recommendations of the FASB ASC 958-205 Presentation of Financial Statements for Not-for-Profit Organizations. Under FASB ASC 958-205, the Organization is required to report information regarding its financial position and activities according to three classes of net assets: unrestricted net assets, temporarily restricted net assets, and permanently restricted net assets. The Organization did not have any temporarily or permanently restricted net assets at December 31, 2012.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect: (1) the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements; and (2) the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Income Taxes

The Organization is exempt from federal income taxes under section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, as an organization described in section 501(c)(4).

The Organization's income tax returns are subject to review and examination by federal and state authorities. The Organization is not aware of any activities that would jeopardize its tax-exempt status. The Organization is not aware of any activities that are subject to tax on unrelated business income.

NOTE 1: SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES, CONTINUED

Revenue Recognition

Contributions are recognized when the donor makes a promise to give to the Organization that is, in substance, unconditional. Contributions are considered to be available for unrestricted use unless specifically restricted by the donor. Support that is restricted by the donor is reported as an increase in temporarily restricted net assets, depending on the nature of the restriction and when the restrictions are met. When a restriction expires (that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or the purpose of the restriction is accomplished), temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets in the Statement of Activities. Revenue received with temporary restrictions that are met in the same reporting period is reported as unrestricted support, and increases unrestricted net assets.

Other types of revenue, such as conference fees, memberships, and management fees are recognized when earned.

Functional Classification of Expenses

The Organization allocates its expenses on a functional basis among program, and management and general, and fundraising, according to their natural expenditure classification.

Related Party Transactions

The Organization is under common control with the American Conservative Union Foundation, Inc. (Foundation). The Foundation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, education, and/or scientific purposes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. A majority of the total number of voting directors of the Foundation shall at all times be current or former voting members of the Board of Directors of the American Conservative Union, Inc. There is no financial interest between the Organization and the Foundation. However, the Organization received management fees of $164,828 from the Foundation in 2012.

3 FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

4 RESPONDENT: Unknown Respondent MUR: 6920

5 I. INTRODUCTION

6 This matter was generated by a Complaint alleging that an Unknown Respondent made a
7 $1.71 million contribution to Now or Never PAC in the name of American Conservative Union
8 (“ACU”), in violation of 52 U.S.C. § 30122 and 11 C.F.R. § 110.4(b).

9 II. FACTS

10 Now or Never PAC, an independent expenditure only committee, reported that on 11 October 31, 2012, it received a $1.71 million contribution from ACU,¹ a 501(c)(4) social welfare
12 organization.² In May 2014, apparently after an independent auditor reviewed its 2012
13 finances,³ ACU filed an Amended 2012 IRS Form 990 that disclosed the $1.71 contribution to 14 Now or Never PAC as “a political contribution received by the Organization and promptly and 15 directly delivered to a separate political organization.”⁴ The Complaint alleges that Unknown
16 Respondent is the true source of the $1.71 million contribution made in ACU’s name to Now or
17 Never PAC.⁵

1 III. LEGAL ANALYSIS

2 The Act prohibits a person from knowingly permitting his or her name to be used to
3 effect a contribution in the name of another.⁶ The requirement that a contribution be made in the 4 name of its true source promotes Congress’s objective of ensuring the complete and accurate
5 disclosure by candidates and committees of the political contributions they receive.⁷ Courts have 6 uniformly rejected the assertion that “only the person who actually transmits funds . . . makes the 7 contribution,”⁸ recognizing that “it is implausible that Congress, in seeking to promote 8 transparency, would have understood the relevant contributor to be [an] intermediary who
9 merely transmitted the campaign gift.”⁹ Accordingly, the Act and the Commission’s regulations
10 provide that a person who provides funds to another for the purposes of contributing to a
11 candidate or committee “makes” the resulting contribution.¹⁰ If an intermediary merely plays a 12 “ministerial role” in transmitting a contribution, the contribution should not be attributed to the 13 intermediary but instead to the original source.¹¹

14 Based on ACU’s representation that the contribution to Now or Never PAC was “a
15 political contribution received by the Organization and promptly and directly delivered to a
