To Donna Rawls
OFFICE OF GENERAL
COUNSEL

OFFICE OF GENERAL

Regarding MUR 7069, it is clear that I identified myself as the author of the letter and I clearly identified my home address at the beginning of the letter.

I was not aware I was required to provide a specific disclaimer different than what I provided.

I trust you will find that I have never been the subject of a prior complaint and I regret you must attend to this matter.

I await your review and response.

Sincerely,

Ron Hedlund

P.S. Apparently, my letter did little to sway the voters as my favored candidate lost to the complainant.
