RE: MUR 7155
Bob Creamer

Dear Mr. Reiff:

On October 26, 2016, the Federal Election Commission notified your client, Bob Creamer, of a complaint alleging violations of certain sections of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended. On July 17, 2018, the Commission found, on the basis of the information in the complaint and information provided by your client, that there is no reason to believe that Bob Creamer violated 52 U.S.C. § 30116(a) by making excessive in-kind contributions. Accordingly, the Commission closed its file in this matter.

Documents related to the case will be placed on the public record within 30 days. See Disclosure of Certain Documents in Enforcement and Other Matters, 81 Fed. Reg. 50,702 (Aug. 2, 2016). The Factual and Legal Analysis, which explains the Commission's findings, is enclosed for your information.

If you have any questions, please contact Ray Wolcott, the attorney assigned to this matter, at (202) 694-1302.

Sincerely,

Lynn Y. Tran / RLW

26 I. INTRODUCTION

27 The Complaints allege that Priorities USA Action ("Priorities USA"), Democracy 28 Partners, Bob Creamer, Americans United for Change ("Americans United"), Scott Foval DBA 29 The Foval Group ("Foval"), Voces de la Frontera Action ("Voces"), and Alliance for Retired 30 Americans made prohibited in-kind contributions in the form of coordinated expenditures to 31 Hillary for America and Jose Villarreal in his official capacity as treasurer ("HFA") and the 32 Democratic National Committee and Andrew Tobias in his official capacity as treasurer (the 33 "DNC"), in violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended (the "Act") and

1 Commission regulations. The Complaint also alleges that HFA and DNC accepted these 2 contributions and did not report them.¹

3 Because the available information does not indicate that any of the activities identified in 4 the Complaints resulted in prohibited or excessive contributions, the Commission finds no reason 5 to believe that Respondents violated the Act and closes the files.

6 II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

7 HFA is the principal campaign committee for Hillary Clinton's 2016 presidential 8 campaign.² Priorities USA is an independent-expenditure-only political committee ("IEOPC") 9 that made independent expenditures during the 2016 general election advocating for Hillary 10 Clinton and against Donald Trump.³ Alliance for Retired Americans and Voces are both 11 nonprofit organizations registered under section 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code.⁴

12 Democracy Partners is a political consulting firm with partners who each maintain their 13 own businesses.⁵ Bob Creamer, a partner at Democracy Partners, maintains Mobilize, Inc.
14 ("Mobilize"), and he is affiliated with Americans United, a section 501(c)(4) organization.⁶
15 Scott Foval was employed by Americans United from August 2016 through October 17, 2016.⁷

1 Project Veritas Action Fund (“Project Veritas Action”), the Complainant in MUR 7157, 2 released a series of four hidden camera videos (the “PVA videos”), the first of which contained 3 conversations between Foval, Creamer, and undercover PVA representatives posing as agents for 4 a donor named “Charles Roth.”⁸ These PVA videos and other documents collected during the 5 undercover investigation form the basis for the Complaints.

6 The Complaint in MUR 7155 alleges that Americans United, Voces, Democracy 7 Partners, and Foval made coordinated communications at the request or suggestion of, or after 8 substantial discussions with, HFA and the DNC.⁹ The Complaint and its supplement in MUR 9 7157 allege that Priorities USA, Alliance for Retired Americans, Americans United, HFA, and 10 the DNC engaged in a criminal conspiracy to knowingly and willfully violate the Act and 11 Commission regulations by making, accepting, and not reporting prohibited and excessive 12 contributions in the form of coordinated communications.¹⁰ The specific activities alleged in the 13 Complaints are:

- 14 • Americans United coordinated with HFA and the DNC on an operation known as 15 “Donald Ducks,” which consisted of a person in a duck costume appearing at Trump 16 campaign events and carrying a sign reading “Donald Ducks Releasing His Tax 17 Returns;”¹¹
- 18 • Democracy Partners, Americans United, Creamer, and Foval coordinated with HFA and 19 the DNC to pay protesters to appear at Trump rallies;¹²

2 • Americans United and Voces coordinated with HFA and the DNC on a get-out-the-vote 3 drive called “Vote November 8th for a Stronger Economy that Makes Us Stronger 4 Together” (the “Fall Plan”), which involved alleged fraudulent registration of non-5 residents in Wisconsin;¹³ and 6
7 • Priorities USA, Americans United, Alliance for Retired Americans, Democracy Partners, 8 Voces, Foval, and Creamer made public communications based on “shared electoral 9 strategy” and messaging developed in coordination with HFA and the DNC.¹⁴

10 A. “Donald Ducks”

11 The Complaints argue that “Donald Ducks” was a public communication by Americans 12 United, made after substantial discussions and with material involvement from both HFA and the 13 DNC. Specifically, the Complaints allege that Americans United implemented the “Donald 14 Ducks” operation that the DNC and HFA originally developed.¹⁵

15 The DNC argues that it conducted the “Donald Ducks” operation through a contract with 16 Mobilize, and it provided invoices showing that the DNC paid the associated expenses.¹⁶ 17 Mobilize, in turn, subcontracted with Foval, although it is unclear whether Mobilize contracted 18 with Foval individually, with Foval’s LLC, or with Americans United.¹⁷ Foval provided services

¹⁶ The DNC provided invoices showing that it paid for the “Donald Ducks” operation under a contract that the DNC and Mobilize entered into in June 2016 (the “Mobilize contract”) for Mobilize to “coordinate events and actions” related to the 2016 Presidential Election. Democracy Partners Resp. at 1 (MUR 7155). Disclosure reports show disbursements from the DNC to Mobilize, Inc., which mirror the invoices. See DNC Resp. at 2 (MUR 7155) (Dec. 19, 2016); DNC 2016 Amended October Monthly Report (Jun. 1, 2017). Disclosure reports also indicate that Mobilize’s work for the DNC was not limited to the “Donald Ducks” operation. See DNC 2016 Amended August Monthly Report (Jun. 1, 2017); DNC 2016 Amended September Monthly Report (Jun. 1, 2017); DNC 2016 Amended October Monthly Report (Jun. 1, 2017); DNC 2016 Amended Pre-General Report (Jun. 1, 2017); DNC 2016 Amended Pre-General Report (Jun. 1, 2017); DNC 2016 Amended Year-End Report (Jun. 1, 2017) (disclosing a total of $183,408.93 in payments from the DNC to Mobilize). Respondents provided documentation showing that $41,338.95 of the disbursements related to services for the “Donald Ducks” operation, but did not provide itemized invoices showing the services included in the remaining $142,069.98.

¹⁷ See Democracy Partners Resp. at 1 (MUR 7155) (“Scott Foval was engaged as a sub-contractor in June of 2016.”); Compl. Ex. F at 2 (MUR 7155) (quoting Foval as saying “I am contracted with [Bob Creamer] . . . DNC pays Democracy Partners, Democracy Partners pays the Foval Group, The Foval Group goes and executes . . .”); see

1 under the subcontract from June 2016 until October 17, 2016, when Americans United 2 terminated him.¹⁸ Although both the Complaints and several press reports suggest that “Donald 3 Ducks” was “transferred” from the DNC to Americans United at some point — after the DNC 4 received negative press regarding possible copyright infringement — Americans United’s 5 President, Brad Woodhouse, provided two sworn declarations stating that Americans United did 6 not pay for any expenses associated with “Donald Ducks.”¹⁹

7 B. Paid Protesters

8 The Complaints allege generally that Democracy Partners, Creamer, Foval, and 9 Americans United paid and coached protesters at Trump campaign rallies; that HFA and the 10 DNC reviewed and approved the messages the protestors used; and that these activities 11 constituted coordinated communications by Democracy Partners, Creamer, Foval, and 12 Americans United.²⁰ Specifically, the Complaints point to press coverage of a Trump rally in 13 Chicago on March 11, 2016, and portions of the PVA Videos during which a Democracy 14 Partners employee says “[s]o the Chicago protest when they shut all that, that was us.”²¹ In 15 support of the more general allegation regarding paying and training protesters, the Complaints 16 highlight Foval’s statements in the PVA videos claiming that he and Creamer are the primary ¹⁹ See Americans United Resp. Attach. A (MUR 7155) (Dec. 16, 2016); Americans United Resp. Attach. A (MUR 7157) (Dec. 16, 2016). In both declarations, Woodhouse states that the Americans United’s “sole expenses associated with the effort consisted of staff time to prepare and issue press releases about the effort over the internet, along with unpaid Twitter messaging.” Id.

1 organizers of the protests at Trump campaign events and that the DNC and HFA “cleared” the 2 protesters’ proposed messaging.²² The Complaint also relies on Foval’s statements referring to 3 paying protesters:

- 4 • “We have to be really careful because what we don’t need is for it to show up on CNN 5 that the DNC paid for X people to; that’s not going to happen.”²³
- 6 • “I’m saying we have mentally ill people that we pay to do [expletive], make no mistake.
7 Over the last 20 years, I have paid off a few homeless guys to do some crazy stuff”²⁴

8 The PVA videos on which the Complaints rely provide no specific context for these statements.

9 HFA and the DNC question the authenticity of the PVA videos, arguing that Project 10 Veritas “devised the questions themselves, cherry-picked excerpts of responses, and presented 11 them out of context.”²⁵ The DNC also argues that the Complaints fail to present facts which 12 support the coordination allegation.²⁶ Americans United also challenges the videos’ authenticity 13 and provided an affidavit in which Brad Woodhouse attests that Americans United neither paid 14 any protesters to appear at the Chicago Trump rally nor paid for any signs carried by protesters at 15 Trump rallies.²⁷ Democracy Partners also questions the videos’ authenticity, characterizing 16 Foval’s statements cited in the Complaint as factually inaccurate “puffery and bragging by a 17 short-term contractor.”²⁸ Democracy Partners specifically denies paying protesters and cites

3 C. Voter Registration and GOTV Activity in Wisconsin

4 The Complaints allege that Americans United and Voces engaged in the Fall Plan, which 5 resulted in prohibited in-kind contributions to HFA and the DNC. In support, both Complaints 6 provided copies of the Fall Plan, which was written on Americans United letterhead.³⁰ The 7 Complaints allege that Americans United and Voces developed and executed the Fall Plan in 8 consultation with HFA and the DNC. The Complaints also allege that the voter registration and 9 GOTV activity listed in the Fall Plan were targeted to reach voters likely to support Clinton and 10 that they may have intentionally registered non-residents.³¹

11 Respondents state that the Fall Plan was only a proposal distributed by Americans United 12 and Voces through a press release to generate interest in funding the proposed activities.³² In his 13 declarations, Woodhouse states that Americans United did not carry out the Fall Plan and did not 14 incur any expenses in connection with the proposed activities.³³

15 D. Shared Electoral Strategy and Messaging

16 The Complaints allege that HFA and the DNC conducted weekly conference calls with 17 the other respondents to “determine shared electoral strategy” and discuss plans to “shape 18 content and messaging to benefit HFA and the DNC.”³⁴ The Complaints allege that these calls

1 involved “material discussion” about the “timing, content, and audience” for public 2 communications disseminated by these outside groups “at or with the direction, approval, [or]

4 unsubstantiated by any information describing either the content of these alleged discussions or 5 any specific examples of alleged coordinated communications.³⁶

6 I. LEGAL ANALYSIS

7 A. Coordination Allegations

8 The Act prohibits any person from making, and any candidate or committee from 9 accepting or receiving, excessive or prohibited contributions.³⁷ In addition, corporations and 10 independent-expenditure-only political committees are prohibited from making contributions to 11 federal candidates.³⁸ The term “contribution” includes anything of value given for the purpose 12 of influencing a federal election.³⁹ Further, any expenditure made by a person “in cooperation, 13 consultation, or concert, with, or at the request or suggestion of, a candidate, authorized political 14 committee, or a national or state party committee” is considered an in-kind contribution.⁴⁰ These 15 expenditures are deemed “coordinated”⁴¹ and qualify as contributions to the candidate and must ⁴¹ 11 C.F.R. § 109.20(a).

1 be reported as expenditures made by the candidate's authorized committee or political party 2 committee.⁴²

3 A communication that is coordinated with a candidate or his authorized committee or a 4 political party committee is considered an in-kind contribution and is subject to the limits, 5 prohibitions, and reporting requirements of the Act.⁴³ Under Commission regulations, a 6 communication is coordinated with the candidate, the candidate's authorized committee, a 7 political party committee, or an agent of the candidate, authorized committee, or party committee 8 if it meets a three-prong test: (1) it is paid for, in whole or part, by a person other than the 9 candidate, authorized committee, or national or state party committee; (2) it satisfies one of five 10 content standards in 11 C.F.R. § 109.21(c);⁴⁴ and (3) it satisfies one of six conduct standards 11 described in 11 C.F.R. § 109.21(d).⁴⁵ All three prongs must be satisfied for a communication to 12 be coordinated under these regulations.⁴⁶

13 In addition, the national committee of a political party may make coordinated party 14 expenditures in connection with the presidential general election, subject to the limits established

⁴² 52 U.S.C. § 30116(a)(7)(B); 11 C.F.R. § 109.20(a).

⁴³ 52 U.S.C. § 30116; 11 C.F.R. § 109.21(b).

⁴⁵ The six types of conduct that satisfy the conduct prong are: (1) a request or suggestion; (2) material involvement; (3) a substantial discussion; (4) use of a common vendor; (5) use of a former employee or independent contractor; and (6) republication of campaign material. 11 C.F.R. § 109.21(d)(1)-(6).

⁴⁶ 11 C.F.R. § 109.21(a); see also Explanation and Justification, Coordinated and Independent Expenditures, 68 Fed. Reg. 421, 453 (Jan. 3, 2003) ("Coordination E&J"). See Factual and Legal Analysis at 5, MUR 7029 (McGinty).

1 by the Act and Commission regulations.⁴⁷ Coordinated party expenditures include 2 disbursements for communications that are coordinated with the candidate.⁴⁸ For the 2016 3 general election, national party committees were limited to making $23,821,100 in coordinated 4 party expenditures for presidential candidates.⁴⁹

5 The regulations further provide that an expenditure that is coordinated with a candidate, 6 authorized committee, or political party committee within the meaning of section 109.20(a), but 7 was not made for either a coordinated communication or a party coordinated communication is 8 either an in-kind contribution to the candidate, authorized committee, or party committee, or a 9 party coordinated expenditure.⁵⁰

10 1. Coordinated Communications

11 Priorities USA disclosed numerous independent expenditures for public communications 12 supporting Clinton and criticizing Trump during the 2016 election cycle.⁵¹ Thus, both the 13 payment and content prongs of the coordinated communications test are satisfied as to Priorities 14 USA.

15 As to the conduct prong, the Complaint in MUR 7157 makes a general allegation that all 16 of the communications Priorities USA reported as independent expenditures were, in fact, 17 coordinated with the Clinton campaign, but it fails to provide any specific information to support 18 the allegation. This factual insufficiency, by itself, supports a no-reason-to-believe finding as to ⁴⁷ 52 U.S.C. § 30116(d); 11 C.F.R. §§ 109.30, 109.32.

⁴⁸ 11 C.F.R. § 109.30. See also 11 C.F.R. § 109.37 (defining a party coordinated communication as a communication that is (a) paid for by a political party committee or its agent; (b) satisfies at least one of three content standards; and (c) satisfies at least one of the conduct standards in 11 C.F.R. §§ 109.21(d)(1) through (d)(6)).

⁵¹ See supra note 3.

1 Priorities USA. In addition, the Complaints' general allegations of coordination between the 2 HFA and Priorities USA are sufficiently rebutted by Respondents' specific denials.⁵²

3 The Commission has previously found that there was insufficient information on which 4 to base an investigation into whether the conduct standard was met where a PAC had "ongoing 5 communications" with party officials and elected officials, but the complainants neither 6 identified which particular conduct standard would apply nor connected the discussions to any 7 alleged coordinated communications.⁵³ Respondents argue that these Complaints are similarly 8 lacking.⁵⁴ The Complaints do not establish how these alleged discussions involving Priorities 9 USA, HFA, and the DNC satisfy the conduct prong and do not link any particular discussions to 10 any specific public communications. The factual record, therefore, does not support a conclusion 11 that the conduct prong is satisfied regarding Priorities USA's independent expenditures.⁵⁵

12 In addition, as the available information does not indicate that any Respondent other than 13 Priorities USA and the DNC satisfies the payment prong of the coordinated communications test,

⁵² See supra note 36.

1 there is no basis to conclude that any other Respondent made or accepted excessive or prohibited 2 contributions in the form of coordinated communications.

3 2. Party Coordinated Expenditures

4 There is information in the record that the DNC paid its vendors to conduct the “Donald 5 Ducks” operation, and may have paid its vendors to train or support protesters at Trump rallies.⁵⁶ 6 The DNC provided documentation showing that it paid for the “Donald Ducks” operation 7 pursuant to a contract with Mobilize.⁵⁷ Democracy Partners, Americans United, Foval, and 8 Creamer were involved in the “Donald Ducks” operation as vendors performing services — 9 either directly or as subcontractors — under Mobilize’s contract with the DNC.

10 As to the allegations regarding paying, organizing, and training protesters, Americans 11 United stated that it did not pay anyone to protest at one Trump rally in Chicago and did not pay 12 for any signs carried by protesters at Trump rallies, and there is no information in the Complaints 13 linking Americans United with training or organizing any protesters.⁵⁸ HFA, the DNC, and 14 Democracy Partners, however, do not specifically address the broad allegation that they trained 15 and organized protesters who appeared at Trump rallies, and some statements in the PVA videos 16 suggest that Foval and Creamer may have provided these kinds of services. During the time the 17 alleged training and organizing occurred, Democracy Partners, Creamer, and Foval were 18 providing general political consulting services to the DNC under a contract between the DNC 19 and Mobilize.⁵⁹ The invoices the DNC provided do not itemize the services that Mobilize and its ⁵⁶ See supra note 16.

⁵⁷ The DNC’s and Democracy Partners’s statements are corroborated by invoices the DNC provided and disclosure reports showing corresponding disbursements from the DNC to Mobilize. See DNC Resp. at 2-3, Ex. A (MUR 7155); Democracy Partners Resp. at 3-4 (MUR 7155).

⁵⁹ See Democracy Partners Resp. at 1 (MUR 7155) (identifying Foval as a subcontractor performing services under the Mobilize/DNC contract beginning in June, 2016).

1 various subcontractors performed under the contract, so it is possible that the services included 2 organizing and training protesters, as suggested by Foval and Creamer's statements cited in the 3 Complaints.⁶⁰

4 Even so, the coordination claims regarding "Donald Ducks" and protestor training and 5 support fail for a different reason; the expenses associated with these activities fit within the 6 DNC's available coordinated party expenditure limit. The DNC reported $23,383,306.68 in 7 coordinated party expenditures supporting Clinton in the 2016 general election.⁶¹ Both party 8 coordinated communications and other types of coordinated party expenditures are aggregated 9 and counted against the $23,821,100 limit.⁶² Therefore, even if all of the DNC's $183,408.93 in 10 disbursements to Mobilize were coordinated with HFA, the DNC's total party coordinated 11 expenses for the 2016 presidential general election would have been $23,566,715.61 — still 12 below the legal limit.⁶³

13 3. Coordinated Expenditures

14 As to the remainder of the coordination allegations, the Complaints do not provide any 15 information indicating that the activities outlined in the Fall Plan and any associated GOTV 16 activities actually occurred, and do not identify any associated expenditures by any Respondent.
17 Additionally, Americans United stated that it "did not carry out, and incurred no expenses" in 18 connection with the proposed Fall Plan and that it was merely a proposal distributed by ⁶⁰ Disclosure reports indicate that the DNC paid Mobilize $183,408.93 for political consulting services in 2016. See supra note 16. Invoices show that $41,338.95 of what Mobilize received was related to services for the "Donald Ducks" project, but Respondents did not provide itemized invoices showing the services included in the remaining $142,069.98.

1 Americans United and Voces through a press release to generate interest in funding the proposed 2 activities.⁶⁴ In light of the lack of supporting information in the Complaints and Respondents' 3 specific denials, the available information does not support a finding that any Respondent made 4 or accepted in-kind contributions in the form of coordinated expenditures in connection with the 5 Fall Plan.

6 As the information in the record does not support the coordination allegations outlined in 7 the Complaints, the Commission finds that there is no reason to believe that Respondents 8 violated the Act by making or accepting excessive or prohibited in-kind contributions.

9 B. Reporting Violations

10 The Complaints allege that if the activities at issue are found to be coordinated 11 communications, then HFA and the DNC failed to disclose the resulting contributions. As the 12 Commission concludes that there is no reason to believe regarding the coordination allegations, 13 the Commission also finds that there is no reason to believe that Respondents violated the 14 reporting provisions of the Act.
