RE: MURs 7291 and 7449

Dear Mr. Levy and Ms. Clattenburg:

The Federal Election Commission has the statutory duty of enforcing the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, and Chapters 95 and 96 of Title 26, United States Code. The Commission has issued the attached Order to Submit Written Answers and Subpoena to Produce Documents which requires your client, Fusion GPS, to provide certain information in connection with an investigation it is conducting.

There is a federal statute, 52 U.S.C. § 30109(a)(12), requiring all persons to keep confidential investigations conducted by the Federal Election Commission, except with the written consent of the person who is the subject of the investigation. This means that unless you have such written consent, you and your client should not publicly disclose the existence of an ongoing Commission investigation or the fact that the Commission has contacted you or your client in connection with this matter. This restriction, however, does not prevent you or your client from discussing the underlying facts and circumstances with any person, including the subject of the investigation or their counsel.

Your client is required to submit the information within 30 days of your client's receipt of this Order and Subpoena. All answers to questions must be submitted under oath. Please do not hesitate to contact me with any questions at (202) 694-1572 or by email at tewald@fec.gov.

Sincerely,

Questions and Document Requests

INSTRUCTIONS

1. In answering these questions and requests for production of documents, furnish all documents and other information, however obtained, including hearsay, that is in possession of, known by or otherwise available to you, including documents and information appearing in your records.
2. Each answer is to be given separately and independently, and unless specifically stated in the particular discovery request, no answer shall be given solely by reference either to another answer or to an exhibit attached to your response.
3. The response to each question propounded herein shall set forth separately the identification of each person capable of furnishing testimony concerning the response given, denoting separately those individuals who provided informational, documentary or other input, and those who assisted in drafting the response.
4. If you cannot answer the following questions in full after exercising due diligence to secure the full information to do so, answer to the extent possible and indicate your inability to answer the remainder, stating whatever information or knowledge you have concerning the unanswered portion and detailing what you did in attempting to secure the unknown information.
5. Should you claim a privilege with respect to any documents, communications, or other items about which information is requested by any of the following interrogatories and requests for production of documents, describe such items in sufficient detail to provide justification for the claim. Each claim of privilege must specify in detail all the grounds on which it rests.
6. Mark each page with identification and consecutive document control numbers (i.e., Bates numbers). Provide a master list showing the name of each person from whom responsive documents are submitted and the corresponding consecutive document control numbers used to identify that person's documents.
7. The discovery requests shall refer to the time period from January 1, 2016 to the present.
8. The following questions and requests for production of documents are continuing in nature so as to require you to file supplementary responses or amendments during the course of this investigation if you obtain further or different information prior to or during the pendency of this matter. Include in any supplemental answers the date upon which and the manner in which such further or different information came to your attention.
9. All responses must be submitted under oath or affirmation under penalty of perjury, including any response that you have no responsive documents.

DEFINITIONS

For the purpose of these discovery requests, including the instructions thereto, the terms listed below are defined as follows:

1. “You” shall mean the named witness in this action to whom these discovery requests are addressed, including all officers, employees, agents or attorneys thereof.
2. “Person” shall be deemed to include both singular and plural, and shall mean any natural person, partnership, committee, association, corporation, or any other type of organization or entity.
3. “Document” shall mean the original and all non-identical copies, including drafts, of all papers and records of every type in your possession, custody, or control, or known by you to exist. The term “document” includes, but is not limited to, books, letters, electronic mail, social media postings, messages sent via Twitter, instant messages, text messages, contracts, notes, diaries, log books, log sheets, records of telephone communications, transcripts, vouchers, accounting statements, ledgers, checks, money orders or other commercial paper, financial records, calendar entries, appointment records, pamphlets, circulars, leaflets, reports, memoranda, correspondence, surveys, tabulations, audio and video recordings, drawings, photographs, graphs, charts, diagrams, lists, computer print-outs, and all other writings and other data compilations from which information can be obtained. If the document request calls for a document that is maintained on or in a magnetic, optical, or electronic medium (for example, but not limited to, computer hard drive, USB drive, or CD-ROM), provide both “hard” (i.e., paper) and “soft” (i.e., in the magnetic or electronic medium) copies, including drafts, and identify the name (e.g., Microsoft Word for Windows, WordPerfect) and version numbers of the software by which the document(s) will be most easily retrieved.
4. “Identify” with respect to a document shall mean state the nature or type of document (e.g., letter, memorandum), the date, if any, appearing thereon, the date on which the document was prepared, the title of the document, the general subject matter of the document, the location of the document, and the number of pages comprising the document.
5. “Identify” with respect to a person shall mean state the full name, the most recent business and residential addresses and the corresponding telephone numbers, email addresses, the present occupation or position of such person, the occupation or position of such person during the relevant time period, and the nature of the connection or association that person has to any party in this proceeding. If the person to be identified is not a natural person, provide the legal and trade names, the address and telephone number, and the full names of both the chief executive officer and the agent designated to receive service of process for such person.
