10 SECOND GENERAL COUNSEL'S REPORT
11

12 I. ACTIONS RECOMMENDED

13 We recommend that the Commission: (1) authorize pre-probable cause conciliation; (2)
14 approve the attached proposed conciliation agreement; and (3) approve the appropriate letters.

15 II. BACKGROUND

16 The Commission found reason to believe that the Committee violated 52 U.S.C.
17 § 30104(a), (b), and (g) and 11 C.F.R. §§ 104.4 and 109.10(d) by failing to report its receipts and 18 disbursements during the 2018 election cycle and authorized the use of compulsory process to 19 conduct an investigation to determine the amount of the unreported receipts and disbursements.¹
20 Although the Committee was uncooperative during 2019 and 2020, while the Commission
21 lacked a quorum to enforce its subpoenas, in late 2021 and early 2022, the Committee
22 cooperated by providing information and filing an 2018 April Quarterly Report disclosing
23 $414,648 of aggregate receipts, disbursements, and independent expenditures made in the first
24 quarter of 2018. The Committee also confirmed that it has had no activity since the first quarter
25 of 2018. Based on the results of the investigation, we recommend that the Commission authorize
26 pre-probable cause conciliation to resolve the violations and approve the proposed conciliation
27 agreement.

III. RESULTS OF THE INVESTIGATION

A. Procedural Summary

On June 14, 2019, this Office notified the Committee of the Commission's reason to believe findings and provided the Factual and Legal Analysis.² We also included questions and document requests regarding the Committee's failure to file any of its disclosure reports, to be answered by the Committee's treasurer.³ On June 20, 2019, the Committee's treasurer contacted the Commission's Reports Analysis Division ("RAD") and indicated that she would be filing the Committee's overdue disclosure reports.⁴ Notwithstanding these communications with RAD, the Committee did not file any reports and did not return RAD's follow-up telephone calls.⁵ During the summer of 2019, this Office contacted the treasurer, who again stated that she would file the Committee's missing reports as well as produce the documents requested in the notification to the Commission's findings.⁶ However, no reports were filed, and the treasurer did not respond to repeated attempts at communication.⁷

In addition to our communications with the Committee's treasurer, we also contacted Carlos Sierra, an El Paso area political consultant identified by both press accounts and the Committee's treasurer as having created and organized the Committee and directed its activities.⁸ Sierra initially agreed to a telephone interview on August 13, 2019, but did not answer when we called and did not

 2 Sierra said that he still intended to cooperate with the investigation but no longer intended to do the
 3 telephone interview and would prefer to correspond in writing via email.¹⁰ From September through 4 December 2019 Workman and Sierra neither responded to multiple attempts to contact them, nor
 5 provided any documents or other responsive information.¹¹

6 After Workman and Sierra failed to produce documents or answer our questions, and 7 Workman continued to fail to file the Committee's reports, the Commission issued Subpoenas to 8 Produce Documents and Orders to Submit Written Answers ("Subpoenas and Orders") directed to 9 the Committee and to Sierra.¹² On September 12, 2019, this Office sent those Subpoenas and 10 Orders to the Committee and Sierra by United Parcel Service and directed each to respond with 11 documents and answers within 30 days.¹³ The Subpoenas and Orders sought documents and 12 information related to the Committee's operations and finances.¹⁴ Despite acknowledging
 13 receipt of the Subpoenas and Orders,¹⁵ neither the Committee or Sierra complied, despite

On August 31, 2019, shortly after approving the subpoenas, the Commission lost a quorum following the resignation of Commissioner Matthew Petersen. Quorum was briefly reestablished from May 19 through July 2, 2020; lost again on July 3, 2020, following the resignation of Commissioner Caroline Hunter; and reestablished in December 2020.

3 Starting in the early summer of 2021, Sierra began providing information regarding the 4 Committee's activities, and in July 2021 he provided responsive documents and responses to our
 5 questions.¹⁷ During the late summer and fall of 2021, Sierra coordinated with Workman to 6 obtain responsive bank records that were produced to this Office in November 2021.¹⁸ During
 7 November and December 2021, Sierra prepared and submitted a draft of the Committee's 2018
 8 April Quarterly report (which was the only period in which it was active).¹⁹ After reviewing the 9 draft report, we identified deficiencies in the draft and sent Sierra a list of items that needed to be 10 corrected, including several missing purpose entries for Committee disbursements and the 11 omission of Schedule E disclosing the Committee's independent expenditures.²⁰ The Committee
 12 submitted its 2018 April Quarterly Report on December 10, 2021.²¹ After review by OGC and

2 Sierra of the need to file an amended report disclosing the Committee's independent
3 expenditures.²² We coordinated with the Committee's assigned RAD analyst to provide direct
4 assistance to Sierra in correcting the deficiencies, and on January 27, 2022, the Committee
5 submitted an Amended 2018 April Quarterly Report.²³ We compared the information in the 6 Amended 2018 April Quarterly Report with contemporaneous Committee invoices and bank
7 records provided by Workman²⁴ and, in consultation with the Committee's assigned RAD
8 Analyst, determined that the amended report appeared to completely and accurately disclose the 9 Committee's receipts, disbursements, and independent expenditures.

10 B. Committee Formation and Operation

11 Sierra states that he formed the Committee for the sole purpose of opposing a particular
12 candidate in the 2018 Primary Election for Texas's 18th Congressional District, Veronica
13 Escobar.²⁵ Sierra was solely responsible for forming and operating the Committee, and 14 Workman, the treasurer, was the only other staff member.²⁶ Workman states that Sierra 15 recruited her to be the Committee's treasurer, that she had no prior treasurer experience or 16 experience with FEC reporting, that she was not involved in any decisions about Committee
17 solicitations or disbursements, and that although she was signatory on the Committee's bank

 4 felt would contribute to the cause [of opposing Escobar’s election].”²⁸ Sierra states that he was
 5 the “sole decision maker on how funds were spent,” and that he “led creative direction” for ads

 7 opened the Committee’s bank account shortly after the Committee registered with the 8 Commission.³⁰ Sierra states that Workman was the only one with access to the account, and 9 Sierra never received statements directly from the bank.³¹

10 All of the Committee’s receipts and disbursements occurred between January 2 – March 11 1, 2018, the latter being the date of the primary election.³² The Committee disclosed $207,000 in

³⁴ Id. at 2, 10-16. In consultation with the Committee's RAD analyst, we determined that the $636.79 discrepancy between the Committee's reported total disbursements and the itemized disbursements on Schedule B of its Reports was caused by a quirk of the E-filing software that caused certain types of operating expenses to not be itemized Schedule B of the Report, despite being included in the Committee's electronic file and reflected in the total disbursements. RAD confirmed that the Committee had reported $207,000 in disbursements in the file the Committee uploaded.

IV. LEGAL ANALYSIS

The Act requires committee treasurers to file reports disclosing all receipts and disbursements, in accordance with the provisions of 52 U.S.C. § 30104.⁴⁰ These reports must include, inter alia, the amount and nature of these receipts and disbursements.⁴¹ Political Committees must also report the identification of each person whose aggregate contributions exceed $200 within the calendar year, or election cycle in the case of an authorized committee, along with the date and amount of any such contributions.⁴² Political committees are also required to report the name and address of each person to whom they make expenditures or other disbursements aggregating more than $200 per calendar year, or per election cycle for authorized committees, as well as the date, amount, and purpose of such payments.⁴³

An independent expenditure is an expenditure that expressly advocates the election or defeat of a clearly identified federal candidate and is not made in concert or cooperation with or at the request or suggestion of such candidate, the candidate's authorized political committee, or their agents.⁴⁴ Political committees must disclose their independent expenditures on Schedule E of their regular disclosure reports.⁴⁵ In addition to a political committee's regular reporting

⁴¹ 52 U.S.C. § 30104(b)(2), (4); 11 C.F.R. § 104.3(a), (b).

⁴² 52 U.S.C. § 30104(b)(3)(A); see also 11 C.F.R. § 104.3(a)(4)(i). For contributions by individuals, "identification" consists of name, mailing address, occupation, and employer. 52 U.S.C. § 30101(13)(A); 11 C.F.R. § 100.12.

⁴⁴ 52 U.S.C. § 30101(17); see also 11 C.F.R. § 100.22(a), (b) (definition of "expressly advocating").

⁴⁵ 52 U.S.C. § 30104(b); 11 C.F.R. § 104.3(b). Committees shall report the name and address of any person who receives a disbursement for an independent expenditure from the committee during the reporting period in an aggregate amount in excess of $200 within the calendar year (or election cycle for an authorized committee), as well as the date, amount, and purpose of any such independent expenditure and include a statement that indicates whether such independent expenditure is in support of or in opposition to a candidate, as well as the name and office sought obligations, when a committee makes or contracts to make independent expenditures aggregating $1,000 or more after the 20th day, but more than 24 hours before, the date of an election, the Act requires the Committee to file an additional report describing those expenditures within 24 hours.⁴⁶ Additional 24-hour reports must be filed each time subsequent independent expenditures relating to the same election aggregate an additional $1,000 or more.⁴⁷ Further, a political committee that makes or contracts to make independent expenditures aggregating $10,000 or more outside of that 20-day period, up to and including the 20th day, must file a report describing those expenditures within 48 hours.⁴⁸ Additional 48-hour reports must be filed each time subsequent independent expenditures relating to the same election aggregate an additional $10,000 or more.⁴⁹ These reports must be filed within 24 or 48 hours, respectively, “following the date on which a communication that constitutes an independent expenditure is publicly distributed or otherwise publicly disseminated.”⁵⁰

Here, based on the investigation, it is apparent that the Committee failed to disclose $207,000 in receipts and $207,000 in disbursements, totaling $414,000 in unreported activity. The Committee also failed to file any 24- or 48-hour reports related to $195,606.76 in independent expenditures, despite aggregating more than $1,000 and $10,000 in independent by such candidate. 52 U.S.C. § 30104(b)(6)(B)(iii); 11 C.F.R. § 104.3(b)(3)(vii). Committees must also report the total of all independent expenditures. 52 U.S.C. § 30104(b)(4)(H)(iii); 11 C.F.R. § 104.3(b)(1)(vii).

⁴⁶ 52 U.S.C. § 30104(g)(1); 11 C.F.R. §§ 104.4(c), 109.10(d).

⁴⁹ 52 U.S.C. § 30104(g)(2); 11 C.F.R. §§ 104.4(b), 109.10(c).

⁵⁰ 11 C.F.R. § 104.4(b)(2), (c).

expenditures during the respective periods of time prior to the 2018 primary election.⁵¹ This confirms the Commission's original finding that there is reason to believe the Committee violated 52 U.S.C. § 30104(a), (b) (g) and 11 C.F.R. §§ 104.4 and 109.10(d) by failing to file reports of its receipts and disbursements.⁵²

During the course of the investigation, the Committee filed its 2018 April Quarterly report and a subsequent amendment. As discussed above, based on the banking records and other information we obtained, the amended report appears to accurately disclose all of the Committee's receipts and disbursements, and the information received during the investigation indicates that the Committee's activity was limited to that single reporting period. The public record, therefore, now reflects a complete picture of the Committee's activity.

⁵¹ Supra note 34. The Committee crossed the $10,000 aggregate 48-hour reporting threshold on January 20, 2018, and crossed $1,000 aggregate the 24-hour reporting threshold on March 1, 2018. Id.

⁵² OGC considered, but is not recommending, finding reason to believe as to Workman in her personal capacity. The Commission has determined that it may deem a current or former treasurer to be party to an enforcement action in their personal capacity where the available information suggests, inter alia, that the treasurer recklessly failed to fulfill duties imposed by law or intentionally deprived themselves of operative facts giving rise to the violation. See Statement of Policy Regarding Treasurers in Enforcement Proceedings, 70 Fed. Reg. 3, 4 (Jan. 3, 2005) (the "Treasurer Policy"). Workman, who had no prior experience as a treasurer, had a very limited role in terms of the Committee's operations. Workman did not direct unreported campaign disbursements and did not direct the Committee's fundraising or spending. Additionally, although the Committee raised and spent a significant amount of money, it was only active for a short period of time, and all of its activity was confined to the reporting period for a single disclosure report. Although Workman appears to have failed in her duties as treasurer, the available information indicates that it was likely due to inexperience and ignorance of those responsibilities rather than recklessness or willful blindness to the Committee's activities. Compare Factual & Legal Analysis ("F&LA") at 5, MUR 6889 (Michael Delk) (dismissing allegations against a treasurer in his personal capacity where the available information indicated that he was "a non-professional political committee staffer, and an inexperienced PAC participant," and the alleged reporting violations appeared to have been caused by the treasurer's "reli[ance] on the erroneous guidance of politically experienced, professional [committee] staff")
