RE: MUR 7401

Dear Mr. Clark:

On June 11, 2018, the Federal Election Commission notified you of a complaint alleging violations of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended. A copy of the complaint was forwarded to you at that time.

Upon further review of the allegations contained in the complaint, and information supplied by you, the Commission, on July 11, 2019, voted to dismiss the allegation against you in connection with prohibited contributions to Donald J. Trump and Donald J. Trump for President and Bradley T. Crate in his official capacity as treasurer in the form of coordinated communications or expenditures. The Factual and Legal Analysis, which more fully explains the Commission's decision, is enclosed for your information.

You are advised that the confidentiality provisions of 52 U.S.C. § 30109(a)(12)(A) remain in effect, and that this matter is still open with respect to other respondents. The Commission will notify you when the entire file has been closed.

If you have any questions, please contact Nicholas Bamman, the attorney assigned to this matter, at (202) 694-1650.

Sincerely,

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION
FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

RESPONDENT: Tim Clark MUR: 7401

I. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

6 The Complaint generally alleges that various individuals and organizations coordinated
7 communications with Donald J. Trump and his principal campaign committee, Donald J. Trump
8 for President, Inc. and Bradley T. Crate in his official capacity as treasurer (“Trump
9 Committee”). Based on alleged meetings between individuals associated with the Trump
10 Committee and various other individuals and organizations, the substance of which is vague and 11 unsubstantiated by the Complaint’s attachments, the Complaint concludes that various
12 individuals and organizations coordinated communications with the Trump Committee.¹

13 II. LEGAL ANALYSIS

14 The Act prohibits corporations from making, and candidates or their committees from 15 knowingly accepting, contributions in connection with any election to political office.²
16 Expenditures made by any person “in cooperation, consultation, or concert with, or at the request
17 or suggestion of” a candidate or his authorized committee or agent qualify as an in-kind
18 contribution to the candidate and must be reported as expenditures made by the candidate’s
19 authorized committee.³

20 A communication that is coordinated with a candidate or his authorized committee is 21 considered an in-kind contribution and is subject to the limits, prohibitions, and reporting

2 52 U.S.C. § 30118(a).

³ 52 U.S.C. § 30116(a)(7)(B); 11 C.F.R. § 109.20(a), (b).

1 requirements of the Act.⁴ A communication is coordinated with a candidate, his authorized
2 committee, or agent of either, if it meets a three-prong test set forth in the Commission's
3 regulations: (1) it is paid for, in whole or in part, by a person other than the candidate or
4 authorized committee; (2) it satisfies a content standard in 11 C.F.R. § 109.21(c); and (3) it
5 satisfies a conduct standard in 11 C.F.R. § 109.21(d). All three prongs must be satisfied for a
6 communication to be considered coordinated under Commission regulations.⁵

7 Here, the Complaint does not identify any specific communications with which to 8 conduct a coordination analysis. Nor do the conclusory allegations of meetings between 9 individuals from the Trump campaign and various individuals and organizations indicate, based 10 on the available information in the record, any impermissible coordination under the Act or 11 Commission regulations. Because the allegations fail to indicate that a violation occurred, the 12 Commission dismisses the allegations that various individuals and organizations made, and the 13 Trump Committee accepted, prohibited contributions in the form of coordinated communications
14 or expenditures in violation of 52 U.S.C. §§ 30116 and 30118 and 11 C.F.R. § 109.21.

⁴ 52 U.S.C. § 30116; 11 C.F.R. § 109.21(b).
