RE: MUR 7401

Dear Mr. Penalta:

Records or information held by the financial institution named in the attached subpoena have been obtained by the Federal Election Commission (the "Commission") for the purpose of investigating possible violations of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, by your client, Timothy Selaty, Sr., in connection with activities conducted by Citizens for Trump during the 2016 election cycle through the present. In accordance with the Right to Financial Privacy Act of 1978, if you desire that such records or information from the personal account indicated in the subpoena not be made available, you must:

1. Fill out the accompanying motion paper and sworn statement, or write one of your own, stating that you are the customer whose records are being requested by the Commission and either give the reasons you believe that the records are not relevant to the legitimate law enforcement inquiry stated in this notice or any other legal basis for objecting to the release of the records;
2. File the motion and statement by mailing or delivering them to the clerk of any one of the following United States District Courts: the United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas or the United States District Court for the District of Columbia;
3. Serve the Commission by mailing or delivering a copy of your motion and statement to: Federal Election Commission, Office of the General Counsel, 1050 First St, NE, Washington, D.C. 20463; and
4. Be prepared to come to court and present your position in further detail.

If you do not follow the above procedures, upon the expiration of ten days from the date of service or 14 days from the date of mailing of this notice, the records or information requested therein may be used by the Commission. These records may be transferred to other Government authorities for legitimate law enforcement inquiries, in which event you will be notified after the transfer.

If you have any questions, please contact me at (202) 694-1628.

Sincerely,
