Dear Ms. Ross,

I recently received the additional information relevant to MUR #7442, at which time I tried to contact the respondents. I was able to connect with them this week, and have arranged to talk with them today, telephonically, for the first time since receiving the new information. As such, we respectfully request an extension to time to respond to the new information on August 14, 2019. I note the clients frequently travel out of the county making it difficult to arrange any in person meetings or to obtain documents.

We appreciate your consideration of this request.
