Re: FEC MUR 7448

Dear Mr. Jordan:

We are writing as counsel to Citizens for Waters and its Treasurer, David L. Gould, in response to the complaint filed by the National Legal and Policy Center on or about August 1, 2018 ("the Complaint"), in MUR 7448.

Introduction

The Complaint was filed against Citizens for Waters and Mr. Gould; the California Democratic Party ("CDP") and its Treasurer, Katherine Moret; and Kamala Harris for Senate and its Treasurer, Stephen J. Kaufman, alleging violations of the contribution limits set forth in Sections 431(8)(A)(i), 432(e)(3) and 441a(a)(2)(A) of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act") and 11 CFR 100.52.¹ The Complaint alleges that a $35,000 payment made by the CDP to Citizens for Waters for a slate mailer featuring Kamala Harris was an illegal "coordinated" contribution exceeding the Party's $5,000 contribution limit to Kamala Harris for Senate. The Complaint is unclear about the violations involving Citizens for Waters.

However, the Complaint completely overlooks and fails to acknowledge the existence of the CDP's separate "coordinated party expenditure" limit, which allowed the CDP to make the payment to Citizens for Waters on behalf of Kamala Harris for Senate in connection with the November 8, 2016 General Election. (See 52 U.S.C. 30116(d) and 11 C.F.R. 109.30, 109.32-109.34.) The payment was within the CDP's coordinated expenditure limit for the U.S. Senate race during the 2016 General Election, and was timely and properly disclosed by Citizens for Waters and the CDP on their campaign reports. Therefore, the Complaint does not provide any basis for asserting a violation of the Act or Commission regulations, and the Commission should immediately dismiss the complaint as to all respondents.

¹ The Complaint refers to the prior statutory provisions. These sections have been renumbered as 52 U.S.C. §§ 30101(8)(A)(i), 30102(e)(3) and 30116(a)(2)(A).

Moreover, the Complaint does not provide any basis for the FEC to conduct an audit of Citizens for Waters, and complainant's request to the Commission for such an audit should be soundly rejected.

Analysis

Citizens for Waters (FEC ID#C00167585) is the principal campaign committee of Congresswoman Maxine Waters, and David L. Gould serves as the committee's Treasurer. In accordance with California law, Citizens for Waters produces and distributes a "slate mailer" known as the Congresswoman Maxine Waters Sample Ballot and Voter Recommendations, featuring federal and non-federal candidates appearing on the ballot. Pursuant to the FEC in Advisory Opinion 2004-37 (Waters), a payment made by a federal candidate to Citizens for Waters for the proportionate costs of his or her appearance in the slate mailer is not considered a contribution to Citizens for Waters.

The CDP (FEC ID#C00105668) is the federally registered state party committee of the Democratic Party in California. A state party committee may contribute up to $5,000 per election to a U.S. Senate candidate. Separate and in addition to this contribution limit, a state party committee may make "coordinated party expenditures" in connection with the general election of a federal candidate. (52 U.S.C. 30116(d); 11 C.F.R. 109.30, 109.32-109.34.) A state party committee may pay for goods or services (including communications) on behalf of a federal candidate, up to the applicable "coordinated party expenditure" limit.

The Commission has provided guidance explaining the difference between the party's use of its contribution limit and its coordinated party spending authority, as follows: "In making a coordinated party expenditure, the party committee pays for goods or services in coordination with a candidate but does not give the money directly to the candidate or candidate committee. For example, the payment of a campaign bill could be treated and reported as a coordinated party expenditure . . ."² Accordingly, the Act, FEC regulations and Commission guidance are all clear that a state party can use its coordinated spending authority outside of its $5,000 per election contribution limit, to pay a bill on behalf of a general election candidate for U.S. Senate in the state.

The coordinated party expenditure limit for a Senate candidate is calculated as follows: state voting age population x 2 cents, increased by the COLA; or $20,000 increased by the COLA, whichever is greater. (52 U.S.C. 30116(d); 11 C.F.R. 109.32.) Based on the statutory formula, the CDP's "coordinated party expenditure" limit during the 2016 election cycle applicable to a candidate for United States Senate was $2,886,500.

(https://transition.fec.gov/info/charts_cpe_2016.shtml.)

In 2016, Kamala Harris was the endorsed candidate of the CDP and the Democratic nominee for the office of United States Senator in the November 8, 2016 General Election.³ Kamala Harris prevailed in the general election and is now a current United States Senator from California. Kamala Harris for Senate (FEC ID# C00571919) is Senator Harris' principal campaign committee.

For the November 6, 2018 general election, Citizens for Waters requested payment from Kamala Harris for Senate in the amount of $35,000, for the proportionate cost of the slate mailer attributable to Kamala Harris. Citizens for Waters received a $35,000 payment from the CDP on October 17, 2016 for Sen. Harris' appearance in the general election slate mailer. The CDP disclosed that payment as a "Coordinated Party Expenditure" on Schedule F for Line 25 of the CDP's 12 Day Pre-General Report for the period 10/1/16-10/19/16. The report indicated that the payment was made on behalf of Kamala Harris, and described the payment as "Fair share of slate mailer." (A true and correct copy of the cover page and relevant page from the CDP's 12 Day Pre-General Report is attached hereto as Exhibit "A.")⁴

As is evident from the Complaint, Citizens for Waters disclosed the $35,000 payment received from the CDP as a slate mailer payment on Schedule A for Line 15 (offset to operating expenditures) on its 12 Day Pre-General Report, and on its Slate Mailer Organization Campaign Statement (Form 401) filed under California law. (See relevant pages of Citizens for Waters reports, submitted with the Complaint and reattached here for convenience collectively as Exhibit "B.")⁵

The Complaint alleges that the payment made by the CDP to Citizens for Waters for the appearance of Kamala Harris on the slate mailer was an excess contribution that did not qualify as an "exempt party activity." (see 11 CFR §§100.80, 100.140.) The slate mailer produced and distributed by Citizens for Waters is not an "exempt party activity," nor does FEC Advisory Opinion 2004-37, which authorizes this activity, make any suggestion that it should be – as the Complaint implies. However, as is evident from this response and the supporting materials – including the Complaint itself -- the $35,000 payment made by the CDP to Citizens for Waters was a proper "coordinated party expenditure" under 52 U.S.C. § 30116(d), and was properly and timely disclosed by the CDP and Citizens for Waters. Therefore, the Complaint is baseless.

Conclusion

For the reasons described herein, the Complaint does not contain any factual or legal basis for asserting a possible violation of the Act by respondents. The CDP made a proper payment for the general election on behalf of Kamala Harris within its "coordinated party expenditure" limit, and the payment was properly disclosed by Citizens for Waters as an offset to operating expenditures on its 12 Day Pre-General Report. In filing this Complaint, the National Legal and Policy Center has either completely misconstrued the law or purposefully chosen to ignore the key statute and regulations providing the basis for this payment.

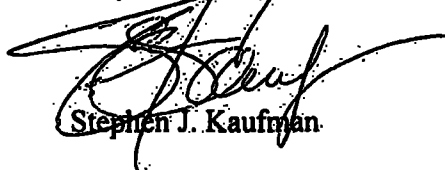

⁴ The CDP originally described the expenditure as a "slate mailer" payment and then amended its 12 Day Pre-General Report to add the "Fair Share" language.

⁵ Citizens for Waters reported the payment on its 12 Day Pre-General Report as received from the Democratic State Central Committee of California FFA, the name on the bank account used by the CDP for its federal program.

Therefore, we respectfully request that the Commission find no reason to believe a violation has occurred, and dismiss this Complaint in its entirety with no further action against respondents.

Very truly yours,

Stephen J. Kaufman
