RE: MURs 7291 and 7449
DNC Services Corporation/
Democratic National Committee and William Q. Derrough in his official capacity as treasurer

Dear Messrs. Elias and Wilson:

On October 27, 2017, and August 8, 2018, the Federal Election Commission ("Commission") notified you of complaints alleging that your client, DNC Services Corporation/Democratic National Committee and William Q. Derrough in his official capacity as treasurer ("Committee"), violated certain sections of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended. A copy of each complaint was forwarded to you at that time.

Upon review of the allegations contained in the complaint, and information provided by you, the Commission, on July 23, 2019, found that there is reason to believe that the Committee violated 52 U.S.C. § 30104(b)(5)(A) and (b)(6)(B)(v) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.3(b)(3)(i) by misreporting the purpose of funds paid to Fusion GPS through Perkins Coie LLP. The Factual and Legal Analysis, which formed a basis for the Commission's finding, is enclosed for your information.

You may submit any factual or legal materials that you believe are relevant to the Commission's consideration of this matter. Statements should be submitted under oath. We request that all responses to the enclosed Request for Written Answers and Production of Documents be submitted to the Office of the General Counsel within 30 days of your receipt of this notification. Any additional materials or statements you wish to submit should accompany the response to the Request for Written Answers and Production of Documents. In the absence of additional information, the Commission may find probable cause to believe that a violation has occurred and proceed with conciliation. See 52 U.S.C. § 30109(a)(4).

Please note that you have a legal obligation to preserve all documents, records, and materials relating to this matter until such time as you are notified that the Commission has closed its file in this matter. See 18 U.S.C. § 1519.

If you are interested in pursuing pre-probable cause conciliation, you should make such a request by letter to the Office of the General Counsel. See 11 C.F.R. § 111.18(d). Upon receipt of the request, the Office of the General Counsel will make recommendations to the Commission either proposing an agreement in settlement of the matter or recommending declining that pre-probable cause conciliation be pursued. The Office of the General Counsel may recommend that pre-probable cause conciliation not be entered into in order to complete its investigation of the matter. Further, the Commission will not entertain requests for pre-probable cause conciliation after briefs on probable cause have been delivered to the respondents.

Requests for extensions of time are not routinely granted. Requests must be made in writing at least five days prior to the due date of the response and good cause must be demonstrated. In addition, the Office of the General Counsel ordinarily will not give extensions beyond 20 days. Pre-probable cause conciliation, extensions of time, and other enforcement procedures and options are discussed more comprehensively in the Commission's "Guidebook for Complainants and Respondents on the FEC Enforcement Process," which is available on the Commission's website at http://www.fec.gov/em/respondent_guide.pdf.

Please be advised that, although the Commission cannot disclose information regarding an investigation to the public, it may share information on a confidential basis with other law enforcement agencies.¹

This matter will remain confidential in accordance with 52 U.S.C. § 30109(a)(4)(B) and 30109(a)(12)(A), unless you notify the Commission in writing that you wish the investigation to be made public. For your information we have enclosed a brief description of the Commission's procedures for handling possible violations of the Act. If you have any questions, please contact Anne Robinson, the attorney assigned to this matter, at (202) 694-1650 or arobinson@fec.gov.

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

RESPONDENT: DNC Services Corp./Democratic National Committee and William Q. Derrough in his official capacity as treasurer MURs 7291 and 7449

I. INTRODUCTION

The three Complaints in these matters allege that the DNC Services Corp./Democratic National Committee and William Derrough in his official capacity as treasurer (“DNC” or “Committee”) and the authorized committee of Democratic Party nominee Hillary Clinton failed to file accurate disclosure reports when they mischaracterized the payee and purpose of certain disbursements disclosed as made to Perkins Coie LLP for legal services, when in fact the payments were passed through to the research firm Fusion GPS for the purpose of opposition research and should have been disclosed as such.¹ The DNC contends that the disbursements at issue were properly disclosed because Perkins Coie LLP (“Perkins Coie”) hired Fusion GPS (“Fusion”) to support its provision of legal services to the DNC, and the Committee did not contract with or make payments to Fusion.²

For the reasons set forth below, the Commission finds reason to believe that the DNC violated 52 U.S.C. § 30104(b)(5)(A) and (b)(6)(B)(v) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.3(b)(3)(i) by failing to properly report the purpose of certain disbursements.

The allegations regarding Fusion GPS were severed from MUR 7331 and merged into MUR 7291.

II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The DNC is the national committee of the Democratic Party, and Hillary for America (“HFA”) is the authorized committee of Hillary Clinton’s 2016 presidential campaign.³ Fusion is a research consulting firm headquartered in Washington, DC.⁴ Glenn Simpson is the majority owner of Fusion and has testified under oath regarding the research conducted by Fusion for Clinton and the DNC.⁵ Christopher Steele is a British national who worked as a subcontractor to Fusion through his investigative research firm, Orbis Business Intelligence.⁶ Perkins Coie is a law firm of which Marc Elias is a partner.⁷ Elias’s biography on Perkins Coie’s website states that he “served as general counsel to” HFA “in 2016.”⁸ In its responses, the Committee

Perkins Coie was approached by Fusion in March 2016 and agreed to pay for the continuation of research on then-candidate Donald J. Trump that Fusion had conducted on behalf of a Republican donor.¹⁰ Marc Elias and Perkins Coie reportedly formally retained Fusion in April 2016.¹¹ The DNC states that the research was for the purpose of supporting Perkins Coie's representation of it.¹² HFA campaign manager Robby Mook reportedly approved a budget request for the research without knowing the identity of the researcher.¹³ Simpson, when asked in his congressional testimony whether he was aware, when Fusion was retained by Perkins Coie, that Perkins Coie was working on behalf of the DNC, testified that "nobody gave me a document or informed me specifically of that" but also that he did not think Perkins Coie was engaging Fusion for itself; Simpson further testified that "I have been in Washington for several decades, and I spent a lot of time on Capitol Hill and it was well-known to me that Perkins Coie represented the DNC.”¹⁴ Fusion likely worked for Perkins Coie on a series of 30-day contracts, and their relationship ended with the 2016 presidential election.¹⁵

Fusion reportedly stated that it was paid $1.02 million by Perkins Coie for fees and expenses related to the research on Trump.¹⁶ Perkins Coie publicly acknowledged that it hired Fusion on behalf of the DNC and HFA, and the two committees appear to have shared the costs related to Fusion’s work for Perkins Coie.¹⁷ In fact, the DNC reported making a $66,500 payment to Perkins Coie on August 16, 2016, for “Research Consulting,” which the DNC acknowledges was the first DNC payment for Perkins Coie’s “legal consulting supported by the research efforts of Fusion.”¹⁸ Overall, the DNC reported paying $5,267,642.67 to Perkins Coie

Simpson did not address whether he knew that HFA was also a client, but he did deny having any “dealings” with Clinton. Id. at 106. Simpson also, however, testified that he had, over the years, fielded journalists’ questions about the Clinton Foundation and Hillary Clinton, but that “at some point, you know, that became a conflict of interest.” Id. at 150-51 (not specifying at which point he knew that became a conflict or how he knew).

between March and December 2016.¹⁹ HFA reported paying a total of $4,941,201.09 to Perkins Coie between March and December 2016.²⁰ The reported $1.02 million figure representing Perkins Coie's total payments to Fusion would comprise 8.4% of all the fees paid to Perkins Coie by the two committees during the 2015-2016 election cycle. The DNC, for the most part, reported that the purpose of its Perkins Coie payments was "Legal and Compliance Consulting." In addition, other DNC payments to the law firm listed "Postage & Shipping," "Travel," "Data Services Subscription," and "Printing & Copying." HFA reported the purpose of all amounts it paid Perkins Coie as "Legal Services."

The DNC asserts that Perkins Coie retained Fusion to assist with its legal representation of the Committee and that the committee did not contract directly with Fusion or make any payments directly to Fusion.²¹ Therefore, the DNC contends, the disbursements at issue were properly disclosed and the complaints should be dismissed.²²

III. LEGAL ANALYSIS

The Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended (the "Act") and Commission regulations require political committees to report the name and address of each person to whom they make expenditures or other disbursements aggregating more than $200 per calendar year, or ¹⁹ See generally DNC 2016 Disclosure Reports. The DNC paid Perkins Coie $6,726,407.25 between January 1, 2015, and December 31, 2016, of which $6,466,711.46 was for "Legal and Compliance Consulting." See MUR 7291 Compl. ¶ 9; see generally DNC 2015-16 Disclosure Reports.

²⁰ See generally HFA 2016 Disclosure Reports. HFA paid $5,631,421.02 to Perkins Coie between January 1, 2015, and December 31, 2016 for "Legal Services." See MUR 7291 Compl. ¶ 8; see generally HFA 2015-16 Disclosure Reports.

per election cycle for authorized committees, as well as the date, amount, and purpose of such payments.²³

Commission regulations define “purpose” as a “brief statement or description of why the disbursement was made.”²⁴ “The ‘purpose of disbursement’ entry, when considered along with the identity of the disbursement recipient, must be sufficiently specific to make the purpose of the disbursement clear.”²⁵ The Commission has determined that the description of purpose should be sufficient to allow “a person not associated with the committee [to] easily discern why the disbursement was made when reading the name of the recipient and the purpose.”²⁶ Examples of sufficient statements of purpose include, but are not limited to, dinner expenses, media, salary, polling, travel, party fees, phone banks, travel expenses, travel expense reimbursement, and catering costs.²⁷ In addition to the non-exhaustive list of examples included in the regulation, the Commission has provided guidance that a description of purpose such as “Consultant-Legal” is sufficient for a disbursement to a consultant; the sufficiency of the description is read in context with the name of the payee.²⁸ Additional guidance set forth on the

Reg. at 888; see also FEC Campaign Guide for Congressional Candidates at 103 (June 2014) (the description of purpose must be sufficiently specific such that it makes clear the reason for the disbursement when considered in conjunction with the payee’s identity).

Commission's website includes "Legal / Legal Fees / Legal Services" as a sufficient description of purpose.²⁹

During the 2016 election cycle, HFA disclosed $5.6 million in payments made to Perkins Coie whose purpose was reported as "Legal Services."³⁰ The DNC, during the same 2016 cycle, disclosed more than $6.4 million in payments issued to Perkins Coie for the purpose of "Legal and Compliance Consulting."³¹ In addition to these DNC legal expenses, the record indicates that the DNC also reported one disbursement of $66,500 to Perkins Coie, for "legal consulting supported by the research efforts of Fusion," with the purpose of "Research Consulting."³² The DNC indicated in its response that this payment was "the first time it made a payment" for such Fusion-supported services.³³ And, according to Fusion's reported public statement, Perkins Coie paid a total of $1.02 million to Fusion in 2016³⁴ for the purpose of conducting opposition research on Trump using funds obtained from HFA and the DNC.³⁵

The DNC maintains that the purpose was correctly reported as "legal services," on the basis that Fusion was hired in connection with the legal services provided by Perkins Coie.³⁶ In

1 addressing “purpose” reporting, the Committee has not provided details on how Fusion’s
 2 research supported Perkins Coie’s legal work. The Committee claims that the Commission
 3 recognizes that legal services can include a “range of diverse legal services” including litigating,
 4 advising on trademark issues and vetting staff, but the responses never state that Fusion’s
 5 research was used for those services.³⁷ Nor does the response to the Commission assert that such 6 information would be privileged. A person reading the Committee’s disclosure reports could not 7 have discerned that the Committee was disbursing funds for anything other than the legal 8 services, travel, or assorted fees that were identified by reading the name of the recipient (i.e.,
 9 Perkins Coie) together with the reported purpose (i.e., legal services or legal or compliance
 10 consulting).³⁸ The fact that the DNC’s initial payment to Perkins Coie for services supported by 11 Fusion disclosed the purpose of “Research Consulting,” indicates that the DNC was aware that 12 “research” was the specific purpose of this and later disbursements to Perkins Coie for its work
 13 supported by Fusion.³⁹ The DNC argues that all subsequent payments made to Perkins Coie “for 14 all of its legal services” disclosed a purpose of “Legal and Compliance Consulting,” when, in 15 fact, subsequent payments disclosed a variety of purposes including, but not limited to, “Postage
 16 & Shipping,” “Travel,” “Data Services Subscription,” and “Printing & Copying.”⁴⁰

Further, Advisory Opinion 1983-25 (Mondale for President), which addresses disclosure of vendor payments to subvenders, provides that a committee would be required to report an adequate description of the purpose of its payments to its vendors. AO 1983-25 at 2. The committee in AO 1983-25 stated that it would disclose a specific description of purpose for each payment made to the vendor, such as media consulting fees, media photocopy expenses, or media buys, which the Commission noted when it determined that the committee would not have disclose vendor payments to subvenders. Id.

⁴⁰ Compare MUR 7291 DNC Resp. at 2 n.2 with, e.g., DNC Services Corp./Dem. Nat’l Committee 2016 October Quarterly Report at 4,463-71 (Oct. 20, 2016) (disclosing purposes of “Legal and Compliance Consulting,” “Travel,” “Data Services Subscription,” “Postage & Shipping,” “Catering, Food & Beverage,” and “Printing & Copying”); DNC Services Corp./Dem. 1 Thus, putting aside the question of whether the DNC failed to accurately disclose the
 2 payees of disbursements, the available information indicates that there is at least reason to
 3 believe that the DNC did not properly disclose the purpose of the disbursements to Perkins Coie,
 4 for what appears to have been opposition research done by Fusion. Where respondents disclosed
 5 inadequate or incorrect purposes, the Commission has held the respondents accountable, finding 6 reason to believe that they violated the Act.⁴¹ Accordingly, the Commission finds reason to 7 believe that the DNC violated 52 U.S.C. § 30104(b)(5)(A) and (b)(6)(B)(v) and 11 C.F.R.
 8 § 104.3(b)(3)(i) by failing to properly disclose the purpose of certain disbursements.

Shipping,” and “Catering, Food & Beverage”). The DNC characterizes the payments for purposes other than “Legal and Compliance Consulting” and “Research Consulting” as payments for “expenses auxiliary to its legal services.” MUR 7291 DNC Resp. at 2 n.2.

⁴¹ See, e.g., Report of the Audit Division at 13-14 (Dallas County Republican Party) (Nov. 19, 2008) (respondent disclosed an inadequate or incorrect purpose for 50 disbursements totaling $215,261 where committee sometimes reported generic purposes such as professional fees and fundraising consultant, which did not allow a person to easily discern why the disbursements were made when reading the payee and purpose together); Factual & Legal Analysis at 2-3, MUR 6204 (Dallas County Republican Party) (finding reason to believe that committee violated, inter alia, 52 U.S.C. § 30104(b)(5) (formerly 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(5))); Report of the Audit Division at 12-13 (Cranley for Congress) (Apr. 23, 2008) (sample review projected $1.4 million in disclosed disbursements lacked required information including, but not limited to, missing or inadequate purposes, for which a person could not easily discern why the disbursements were made when reading the payee and purpose together); Certification, MUR 6134 (Cranley for Congress) (Nov. 19, 2008) (approving the Report of the Audit Division dated April 23, 2008 as the Factual & Legal Analysis); Conciliation Agreement at 4, 6, MUR 5635 (Conservative Leadership Political Action Committee); Final Audit Report, Conservative Leadership Political Action Committee (Nov. 29, 2004) (committee failed to disclose a correct or adequate purpose for disbursements totaling over $1.6 million). In cases involving a limited number of disbursements or small amount of money, the Commission has dismissed the matter or referred it to the Commission’s Alternative Dispute Resolution Office (“ADRO”). See, e.g., Certification at 3, MUR 6518 (Newt Gingrich, et al.) (June 24, 2015) (referring allegations to the ADRO that respondents failed to disclose an adequate purpose for one $47,005 disbursement); MUR 6638 (Todd Long for Congress) (dismissing allegation that respondent incorrectly described the purpose of two disbursements totaling $21,667 as “check” where respondent committee corrected description and terminated). In addition, a recent decision by the United States Court of Appeals for the Eighth Circuit rejected an argument that identifying a purpose of “audio/visual expenses” for payments that were actually compensation for an endorsement did not cause a committee’s disclosure reports to be false. See United States v. Jesse Benton, John Tate, and Dimitrios Kesari, 890 F.3d 697 (8th Cir. May 11, 2018), cert. denied, 2019 WL 1231756 (Benton), 2019 WL 1231758 (Tate), 2019 WL 1231759 (Kesari) (Mar. 18, 2019) (affirming the convictions of three former Ron Paul 2012 campaign officials for, inter alia, violating the Act by causing false campaign finance reports to be filed with the Commission).
