RE: MUR 7464

Dear Ms. McNulty:

The Federal Election Commission (“Commission”) is the regulatory agency that administers and enforces the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended (the “Act”). Based on a complaint filed by Citizens for Responsibility and Ethics in Washington and Noah Bookbinder, the Commission on May 20, 2021, found reason to believe that Unknown Respondents violated 52 U.S.C. § 30122 by making contributions in the name of another in relation to contributions reported as having been made by LZP, LLC to Honor PAC on the following dates and in the following amounts: $175,000 on March 28, 2018; $50,000 on April 6, 2018; $10,000 on April 18, 2018; and $35,000 on October 19, 2018. The Complaint and the Factual and Legal Analysis, which formed the basis for the Commission’s finding, is attached for your information.

The Commission authorized the Office of the General Counsel to conduct an investigation concerning the original source of the funds in question. During our investigation thus far, we have obtained information indicating that Ohio Works may be one of the Unknown Respondents as to which the Commission made findings. It appears that Ohio Works provided the following amounts to Independence and Freedom Network Inc. (“IFN”): $30,000 on March 7, 2018; $200,000 on March 28, 2018; $120,000 on April 6, 2018; and $2,000 on May 7, 2018. It further appears that a portion of the funds provided by Ohio Works to IFN were then transferred to LZP and used to make the contributions to Honor PAC at issue in this matter. We are continuing to conduct an investigation into this matter, after which we will prepare to make a recommendation to the Commission. Prior to making our recommendation, we offer a respondent an opportunity to provide in writing a response to the Complaint and the Commission’s Factual and Legal Analysis. Should you choose to respond, you may also submit any materials — including documents or affidavits from persons with relevant knowledge — that you believe may be relevant or useful to the Commission’s consideration of this matter. Your submission, if you choose to make one, must be submitted within 15 days of receipt of this letter.

You should address any response to the Office of the General Counsel, and the response should reference MUR 7464.

Please note that you have a legal obligation to preserve all documents, records and materials relating to this matter. See 18 U.S.C. § 1519. This matter will remain confidential in accordance with 52 U.S.C. § 30109(a)(4)(B) and 30109(a)(12)(A) unless you notify the Commission in writing that you wish the matter to be made public. Please be advised that, although the Commission cannot disclose information regarding an investigation to the public, it may share information on a confidential basis with other law enforcement agencies.<sup>1</sup>

For your information, enforcement procedures and options are discussed in the Commission's "Guidebook for Complainants and Respondents on the FEC Enforcement Process," which is available on the Commission's website at http://www.fec.gov/em/respondent\_guide.pdf.

OFFICE OF
GENERAL COUNSEL
FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

2018 AUG -9 PM 2:11

In the matter of:

LZP, LLC
Honor and Principles PAC
Lisa Lisker, as treasurer, Honor and Principles PAC
Unknown Respondent (or Respondents)

MUR 74604

COMPLAINT

1. Citizens for Responsibility and Ethics in Washington (“CREW”) and Noah Bookbinder bring this complaint before the Federal Election Commission (“FEC”) seeking an immediate investigation and enforcement action against LZP, LLC, Honor and Principles PAC, its treasurer, Lisa Lisker, and an Unknown Respondent (or Respondents) for direct and serious violations of the Federal Election Campaign Act (“FECA”).

Summary

2. The FECA prohibits making and knowingly accepting a contribution in the name of another person, as well as knowingly permitting one’s name to be used to effect a contribution in the name of another person. This complaint concerns a remarkable four-day period in late March 2018 in which a conduit contribution scheme that violated the FECA seemingly took place. Those four days started with the formation of a federal super PAC called Honor and Principles PAC, followed the next day by the establishment in Ohio of a nonprofit limited liability company, LZP, LLC (“LZP”). The day after that, LZP made a $175,000 contribution to Honor and Principles PAC, even though it has no known business activity and it is virtually impossible that it generated sufficient income to pay for the contribution in just one day.

Completing the cycle, the day after Honor and Principles PAC received the money (the only contribution it has ever reported), it spent $163,838 on an independent expenditure advertisement criticizing an Ohio state representative and endorsing his primary opponent. This appears to be a prototypical example of a conduit contribution scheme in which an Unknown Respondent (or Unknown Respondents) used LZP as a conduit to make a contribution to Honor and Principles PAC, which then spent the money on political ads. These apparent violations of law deprive the public of important information and should be investigated.

Complainants

3. Complainant CREW is a non-profit corporation, organized under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. CREW is committed to protecting the right of citizens to be informed about the activities of government officials and to ensuring the integrity of government officials. CREW is dedicated to empowering citizens to have an influential voice in government decisions and in the governmental decision-making process. CREW uses a combination of research, litigation, and advocacy to advance its mission.

4. In furtherance of its mission, CREW seeks to expose unethical and illegal conduct of those involved in government. One way CREW does this is by educating citizens regarding the integrity of the electoral process and our system of government. Toward this end, CREW monitors the campaign finance activities of those who run for federal office and those who make expenditures to influence federal elections, and publicizes those who violate federal campaign finance laws through its website, press releases, and other methods of distribution. CREW also files complaints with the FEC when it discovers violations of the FECA. Publicizing campaign finance violations and filing complaints with the FEC serves CREW's mission of keeping the public informed about individuals and entities that violate campaign finance laws and deterring future violations of campaign finance law.

5. In order to assess whether an individual or entity is complying with federal campaign finance law, CREW needs the information contained in disclosure reports political committees must file pursuant to the FECA, 52 U.S.C. § 30104; 11 C.F.R. § 104.1 et seq. CREW is hindered in its programmatic activity when an individual or entity fails to disclose campaign finance information in reports required by the FECA.

6. CREW relies on the FEC's proper administration of the FECA's reporting requirements because the FECA-mandated disclosure reports are the only source of information CREW can use to determine if an individual or entity is complying with the FECA. The proper administration of the FECA's reporting requirements includes mandating that all disclosure reports required by the FECA are properly and timely filed with the FEC. CREW is hindered in its programmatic activity when the FEC fails to properly administer the FECA's reporting requirements.

7. Complainant Noah Bookbinder is the executive director of Citizens for Responsibility and Ethics in Washington. At all times relevant to the complaint, he has been and remains a citizen of the United States and a registered voter and resident of Maryland. As a registered voter, Mr. Bookbinder is entitled to receive information contained in disclosure reports required by the FECA, 52 U.S.C. § 30104; 11 C.F.R. § 104.1 et seq. Mr. Bookbinder is harmed when an individual, candidate, political committee, or other entity fails to report campaign finance activity as required by the FECA. Mr. Bookbinder is further harmed when the FEC fails to properly administer the FECA's reporting requirements, limiting his ability to review campaign finance information.

Respondents

8. LZP, LLC is a Domestic Nonprofit Limited Liability Company organized and registered in Ohio. LZP, LLC, Articles of Organization for a Domestic Limited Liability Company, <https://bit.ly/2HCJKAY> (attached as Exhibit A). LZP was formed and/or incorporated on March 27, 2018. Id. It is not known if LZP conducts any business or has generated any income.

9. Honor and Principles PAC is an independent expenditure-only committee ("super PAC") established on March 26, 2018. Honor and Principles PAC, FEC Form 1, Statement of Organization (Mar. 26, 2018) (excerpts attached as Exhibit B).

10. Lisa Lisker is treasurer of Honor and Principles PAC. Exhibit B.

11. Unknown respondent (or respondents) are the true source or sources of funds LZP transferred to Honor and Principles PAC, as well as the conduit or conduits, if any, through which such funds passed before being contributed to LZP.

Factual Allegations

12. Honor and Principles PAC was established on March 26, 2018. One day later, on March 27, LZP was formed and/or incorporated.

13. The next day, March 28, LZP made a $175,000 contribution to Honor and Principles PAC. Honor and Principles PAC, FEC Form 3X, 2018 April Quarterly Report, at 6 (Apr. 15, 2018) (excerpts attached as Exhibit C). LZP is the only contributor reported by Honor and Principles PAC. Id.

14. On March 29, 2018, LZP's contribution to Honor and Principles PAC was used to pay $163,838 to Target Enterprises, LLC, a "strategic media placement company," for a "Non Federal IE-Media Buy." Id.; Target Enterprises, About, <https://bit.ly/2J8ljJG>. Soon after, an ad criticizing Ohio state Representative Larry Householder (R-72) and endorsing his primary opponent, Kevin Black, began airing on Ohio television stations. Twitter, Medium Buying, Apr. 1, 2018, <https://bit.ly/2qwXSUD>; Ohio House of Representatives, Representative Larry Householder (R), <https://bit.ly/2HNB2PV>; Black announces for 72nd House District, Coshocton Tribune, Feb. 9, 2018, <https://ohne.ws/2J1do1A>.

15. Honor and Principles PAC's disclosure report provides little information about LZP. The only information provided is that LZP's address is 10 West Broad St., Columbus, OH 43215. Id. As LZP's Ohio registration indicates, that is also the address of LZP's registered agent, James G. Ryan, a lawyer at the firm Bailey Cavalieri in Columbus. Exhibit A. Bailey Cavalieri, James G. Ryan, Member, <https://bit.ly/2qMoZKu>.

16. On information and belief, LZP did not generate sufficient income in the one day between its formation and the date on which it contributed $175,000 to Honor and Principles PAC to account for the contribution. LZP does not appear to conduct any business, and it does not have a presence on the Internet. Rather, it appears an Unknown Respondent (or Respondents) provided the $175,000 to LZP to make the contribution to Honor and Principles PAC.

Count I

17. The FECA and FEC regulations prohibit making a contribution in the name of another person and knowingly permitting one's name to be used to effect a contribution in the name of another person. 52 U.S.C. § 30122; 11 C.F.R. § 110.4(b).

18. An Unknown Respondent (or Respondents) appears to have made a $175,000 contribution to Honor and Principles PAC in the name of LZP in violation of 52 U.S.C. § 30122 and 11 C.F.R. § 110.4(b).

19. LZP appears to have correspondingly violated 52 U.S.C. § 30122 and 11 C.F.R. § 110.4(b) by knowingly permitting its name to be used to effect a $175,000 contribution by Unknown Respondent (or Respondents) to Honor and Principles PAC.

20. If these violations were knowing and willful, they are subject to criminal penalties and should be referred to the Department of Justice for investigation. 52 U.S.C. §§ 30109(a)(5)(C), 30109(d)(1).

Count II

21. The FECA and FEC regulations also prohibit knowingly accepting a contribution made by one person in the name of another person. 52 U.S.C. § 30122; 11 C.F.R. § 110.4(b).

22. Honor and Principles PAC and Ms. Lisker appears to have violated 52 U.S.C. § 30122 and 11 C.F.R. § 110.4(b) by knowingly accepting a contribution made by Unknown Respondent (or Respondents) in the name of LZP.

23. If these violations were knowing and willful, they are subject to criminal penalties and should be referred to the Department of Justice for investigation. 52 U.S.C. §§ 30109(a)(5)(C), 30109(d)(1).

Conclusion

WHEREFORE, Citizens for Responsibility and Ethics in Washington and Noah Bookbinder request that the FEC conduct an investigation into these allegations, declare the respondents to have violated the FECA and applicable FEC regulations, and order respondents to correct these violations by amending Honor and Principles PAC's disclosures to identify and make public the source(s) of the contribution to the PAC. In addition, respondents request that the FEC impose sanctions appropriate to these violations and take such further action as may be appropriate, including referring this case to the Department of Justice for criminal prosecution.

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION*FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS*RESPONDENTS: Unknown RespondentsMUR 7464*I. INTRODUCTION

This matter was generated by a Complaint filed with the Federal Election Commission (the “Commission”) alleging violations of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, (the “Act”) that Unknown Respondents made $270,000 in contributions in the name of another through LZP, LLC (“LZP”), a newly created LLC, which is a disregarded member of the Independence and Freedom Network, Inc. (“IFN”), a 501(c)(4) organization, to Honor and Principles PAC (“Honor PAC”), a federal independent expenditure-only political committee (“IEOPC”). The events at issue took place over the course of a four-day period: both LZP and Honor PAC were formed in the same week, then LZP made its first contribution to Honor PAC, which subsequently made its first disbursement.

LZP represents that it received the funds for the federal contributions from its sole nonprofit corporate member, but does not provide any details regarding the name of the entity that funded the contributions to Honor PAC. For the reasons explained below, the Commission finds reason to believe that Unknown Respondents violated 52 U.S.C. § 30122 by making, and allowing LZP’s name to be used to make, contributions in the name of another.

1 II. FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

2 A. Background

3 The key events in this matter took place during a four-day period in March 2018. Honor
4 PAC registered as an IEOPC with the Commission on March 26, 2018.<sup>1</sup> LZP registered as a
5 nonprofit LLC with the state of Ohio on March 27, 2018.<sup>2</sup> LZP made its first contribution in the 6 amount of $175,000, to Honor PAC on March 28, 2018.<sup>3</sup> Honor PAC made its first
7 disbursements for political advertising in a nonfederal race on March 29, 2018.<sup>4</sup>

8 Honor PAC filed reports with the Commission disclosing $270,000 in receipts for 2018,
9 all from LZP: $175,000 on March 28, 2018, $50,000 on April 6, 2018, $10,000 on April 18,
10 2018, and $35,000 on October 19, 2018.<sup>5</sup> It has not reported any receipts for 2019 and 2020. Its 11 reports also disclose $252,607.92 in disbursements in 2018: $24,769.92 for operating
12 expenditures (for legal fees and compliance consulting) and $227,838 for “other disbursements”
13 to media vendors for “non-federal-direct mail,” “non- federal-media buys,” and “non- federal

<sup>3</sup> See 2018 April Quarterly Report at 6, Honor and Principles PAC (Apr. 15, 2018) (disclosing only one receipt for the entire reporting period). According to the Commission’s databases, LZP has made federal contributions to only Honor PAC.

8 LZP’s (March 27) formations, along with the March 28 contribution from LZP and Honor PAC’s
9 March 29 disbursement to Target Enterprises, the Complaint alleges that LZP made, and Honor
10 PAC knowingly accepted, a contribution in the name of another.<sup>10</sup> The Complaint states that 11 LZP “does not appear to conduct any business” and has no presence on the internet, and argues

2 Respondents must have provided the $175,000 to LZP to make the initial contribution to Honor

4 effect that contribution.<sup>12</sup>

1                   the source of money or the thing of value to the recipient candidate or 2                   committee at the time the contribution is made; or

3           (ii)     Making a contribution of money or anything of value and attributing as the 4                   source of the money or thing of value another person when in fact the 5                   contributor is the source.<sup>26</sup>

6           The requirement that a contribution be made in the name of its true source promotes 7 Congress’s objective of ensuring the complete and accurate disclosure by candidates and
8 committees of the political contributions they receive.<sup>27</sup> Courts therefore have uniformly 9 rejected the assertion that “only the person who actually transmits funds . . . makes the 10 contribution,”<sup>28</sup> recognizing that “it is implausible that Congress, in seeking to promote 11 transparency, would have understood the relevant contributor to be [an] intermediary who 12 merely transmitted the campaign gift.”<sup>29</sup> Consequently, both the Act and the Commission’s
13 implementing regulations provide that a person who furnishes another with funds for the purpose
14 of contributing to a candidate or committee “makes” the resulting contribution.<sup>30</sup> This is true
15 whether funds are advanced to another person to make a contribution in that person’s name or

<sup>30</sup> See Boender, 649 F.3d at 660 (holding that to determine who made a contribution “we consider the giver to be the source of the gift, not any intermediary who simply conveys the gift from the donor to the donee.” (emphasis added)); O’Donnell, 608 F.3d at 550; *Goland v. 1 promised as reimbursement of a solicited contribution.<sup>31</sup> Because the concern of the law is the
2 true source from which a contribution to a candidate or committee originates, we look to the 3 structure of the transaction itself and the arrangement between the parties to determine who in 4 fact “made” a given contribution.

5         The Complaint’s allegation that LZP was used to make contributions by other persons is 6 supported by the fact that LZP purported to make a $175,000 contribution in its own name to 7 Honor PAC two days after Honor PAC was formed and one day after LZP was formed, and by
8 the lack of public information regarding the LLC’s activities or evidence indicating that LZP
9 could make such a contribution without an infusion of funds provided to it for that purpose.
10 When an LLC purports to make a political contribution in close temporal proximity to its 11 formation date, without evidence of activity or any specific information regarding the 12 provenance of its funds, the circumstances may support a reasonable inference that the LLC was 13 provided funds for the purpose of making a contribution, i.e., that the LLC was used as a conduit
14 to mask the identity of the true contributor. However, in determining whether such an inference 15 is supported, the Commission considers the overall record, including the amount of the 16 contribution, the LLC’s stated purposes and activity, and whether other information, such as the 17 attribution of the LLC contribution, suggests an attempt to circumvent the Act’s disclosure
18 requirements.

<sup>31</sup> O’Donnell, 608 F.3d at 555. Moreover, the “key issue . . . is the source of the funds” and, therefore, the legal status of the funds when conveyed from a conduit to the ultimate recipient is “irrelevant to a determination of who ‘made’ the contribution for the purposes of [Section 30122].” United States v. Whittemore, 776 F.3d 1074, 1080 (9th Cir. 2015) (holding that defendant’s “unconditional gifts” to relatives and employees, along with suggestion they contribute the funds to a specific political committee, violated Section 30122 because the source of the funds remained the individual who provided them to the putative contributors).

1           The record in this matter supports a finding that there is reason to believe that Unknown
2 Respondents violated the Act's prohibition against contributions in the name of another by 3 making contributions through LZP to Honor PAC. LZP implies that it was provided funds by its 4 purported single member to make the contributions to Honor PAC and does not dispute the 5 assertion that it appears to have engaged in no activity other than making the contributions at 6 issue and appears to have been formed solely to make contributions using the funds of another.
7 The record supports a conclusion that that was, indeed, the case.

8           First, the temporal proximity between LZP's formation and its first contribution to Honor
9 PAC just two days later supports a conclusion that LZP was likely created to effect a
10 contribution, and that LZP was not the true contributor to Honor PAC but was, instead, provided
11 funds for the purpose of making the contribution. LZP has not explained the reason for the 12 LLC's formation, the quick turnaround for making its first political contribution as a newly
13 formed entity, or how the making of that contribution almost immediately after the LLC's
14 organization was consistent with the LLC's organizational purpose or governing documents.
15 The absence of any public information of LZP's activity other than the making of contributions,
16 considered in conjunction with the timing between LZP's creation and first contribution, tend to 17 support a conclusion that funds were directed to LZP for the purpose of making a political 18 contribution.

19           Second, while LZP states that its corporate member had sufficient assets from which to 20 make the contribution to Honor PAC, it does not reveal the identity of that corporate member or 21 describe the origin of those assets. There is no available information concerning the nature of 22 the company, or how its corporate member procured the assets that LZP used for its 23 contributions to Honor PAC totaling $270,000. Instead, information from the Supplemental

1 Complaint reveals that IFN directly controlled LZP’s activities, and it is possible that IFN was
2 actually LZP’s nonprofit corporate member. IFN’s IRS filing states that it owned 100% of LZP
3 and further discloses that it received a $271,000 contribution from an individual, which could
4 have been the source of LZP’s $270,000 in total contributions to Honor PAC.<sup>32</sup> Indeed, IFN’s
5 2018 Form 990 lists LZP’s total income as only $271,000.<sup>33</sup> Additionally, in disclosing its
6 “Political campaign activity expenditures” IFN’s IRS filing lists contributions to purported 527
7 organizations; however, both of those entities, Honor PAC and Onward Ohio, were actually
8 committees registered with the Commission.<sup>34</sup> In fact, both committees disclosed those 9 contributions in their reports filed with the Commission, albeit Honor PAC listed the 10 contributions as coming from LZP and not IFN. Therefore, we are unable to conclude that those 11 assets were provided to LZP for any other lawful purpose and not for the purpose of making a 12 political contribution.<sup>35</sup>

13 Third, the timing of Honor PAC’s formation and its first disbursement, in relation to 14 LZP’s formation and first contribution, also raises an inference that the IEOPC may have been
15 involved in the alleged conduit contribution scheme. As described above, Honor PAC’s
16 registration with the Commission, LZP’s registration as an LLC, LZP’s first contribution to 17 Honor PAC, and Honor PAC’s first independent expenditure all took place within a four-day
18 time period.<sup>36</sup> All of Honor PAC’s receipts came exclusively from IFN, through LZP, and the

<sup>35</sup> Without information about LZP’s single member we cannot determine whether the funds came from a lawful or prohibited source, such as from a foreign national in violation of 52 U.S.C. § 30121.

1 political committee apparently failed to seek information from either entity for the proper
2 attribution of any of the contributions on its disclosure reports. These facts support an inference
3 that Honor PAC was aware of the true purpose behind LZP's creation, namely, concealing the 4 identity of the true contributor.

5 The available information suggests that LZP's creation was an attempt to circumvent the 6 Act's disclosure requirements. Based on the foregoing, the Commission finds reason to believe
7 that Unknown Respondents violated 52 U.S.C. § 30122 by making,, and allowing LZP's name to 8 be used to make, contributions in the name of another.
