BEFORE THE FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

In the Matter of	)
	)
Keeping America in Republican Control PAC	)
and H. Russell Taub, in his official	)	MUR 7479
capacity as treasurer	)
	)
H. Russell Taub	)

STATEMENT OF REASONS OF VICE CHAIR ALLEN DICKERSON AND COMMISSIONERS SEAN J. COOKSEY AND JAMES E. “TREY” TRAINOR, III

H. Russell Taub was committing fraud. While he represented Keeping America in Republican Control PAC (“KAIRC PAC”) as a legitimate political committee when soliciting over $1.5 million, in truth, he was pocketing much of the money and spending it on himself.<sup>1</sup> The Commission received a complaint against Taub and KAIRC PAC alleging as much, as well as other campaign-finance violations, from the Foundation for Accountability and Civic Trust on August 16, 2018.<sup>2</sup>

But before the Commission could investigate Mr. Taub, the Department of Justice caught up to him first. In early 2019, Taub was charged with and pleaded guilty to wire fraud and knowing and willful violations of campaign-finance law.<sup>3</sup> He was sentenced to three years in prison and another three years of supervised release, and ordered to pay more than $1.1 million in restitution.<sup>4</sup> What few proceeds remained were seized to satisfy a small fraction of that order.<sup>5</sup>

Harold Russell Taub*, 1:19CR00015 (D. R.I. Feb. 12, 2019))).

Notwithstanding this successful criminal prosecution, the Office of General Counsel (“OGC”) wanted to pursue Taub and KAIRC PAC further. OGC recommended that the Commission investigate for the sole purpose of requiring KAIRC PAC to register and report its political activity to the Commission.<sup>6</sup> The Commission rejected that recommendation and voted 4-2 to dismiss the matter.<sup>7</sup>

Dismissal under these circumstances is consistent with the Commission’s longstanding practice of declining to pursue cases where there has already been adequate enforcement and vindication of the Commission’s interests by other government agencies.<sup>8</sup> We have done so even where, in theory, the Commission might seek some further remedy from the respondent, such as additional fines or amended committee reports.<sup>9</sup>

The reason is simple: our resources are limited, and we do not serve the public’s interests by duplicating other agencies’ work or pursuing pyrrhic victories. This is especially true when the Commission faces a backlog of cases where we might undertake original investigations.<sup>10</sup> Justice having already been done in this case, we dismissed this matter as an exercise of our prosecutorial discretion under Heckler v. Chaney, 470 U.S. 821, 831 (1985).

<sup>8</sup> See Statement of Reasons of Chairman Danny L. McDonald, Vice Chairman David M. Mason, and Commissioners Karl J. Sandstrom, Bradley A. Smith, Scott E. Thomas, and Darryl R. Wold, Pre-MUR 385 (Phillip R. Davis) (May 7, 2001) (“Because the violations at issue have been addressed by the Justice Department in a criminal prosecution and a further expenditure of resources is not warranted relative to other matters pending before the Commission, we exercised our prosecutorial discretion by not taking further action.”).
