No they aren't. This has to do with 2018. Neither of these committees are relevant to this complaint.

You are welcome to provide another response, state that other response will stand for this case, or you can simply state that the committees will not submit a response.

> Kathryn – I am in receipt of the latest volley in this MUR, which seems to me to have absolutely nothing to do with either Cotton for Senate or the Thom Tillis Committee. Since this Complaint does not accuse either of these committees of any violations, and simply is a new complaint against another committee, alleging the same thing already alleged in the earlier complaints against my clients, I am not sure why we received copies of this complaint. I don't even have any allegations to which to respond on behalf of these committees.
