OFFICE OF
GENERAL COUNSEL

2018 DEC 12 PM 1:51

MUR # 7557

Gentlemen:

I wish to file a complaint against 'The Center for Voter Information' and Joseph Kopser, who ran for U.S. Congress here in Texas.

Complainant:

Susan N. Willoughby

, Boerne, Texas 78006

As you can see from the enclosed letter received by U. S. mail, the Center for Voter Information, allegedly in Austin, TX mailed this, although the Nonprofit Stamp is from Lansdale, PA. As acknowledged in the letter, this is a non-profit organization which is prohibited from endorsing candidates, but clearly did, under the guise of "information."

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Susan Willoughby

Center For Voter Information

Dear Susan:

The Center for Voter Information works to provide information about candidates to voters like you across the country. This year, we asked voters in your congressional district what they would like to know about candidates for Congress in the general election being held on November 6th.

Coverage for Pre-existing Conditions: Do the candidates support requiring health insurance companies to cover individuals with pre-existing conditions?

Democrat Joseph Kopser: Yes	Republican Chip Roy: No
Source: kopserforcongress.com/my-values/health-care-for-all/	Source: National Review 3/10/2017

Medicaid Cuts: Do the candidates support cutting funding to Medicaid (the health insurance program for low-income Americans) for 14 million Americans?

Democrat Joseph Kopser: No	Republican Chip Roy: Yes

Millionaire Tax Cuts: Do the candidates support legislation recently passed by Congress that reduces taxes paid by millionaires and corporations?

Democrat Joseph Kopser: No	Republican Chip Roy: Yes
Source: kopserforcongress.com/my-values/tax-reform/	Source: chiproy.com/issues/

A candidate's position is sometimes more complicated than a "yes" or "no." We have done our best to represent each candidate in a fair and reasonable way. But if you want more detailed information, you can visit the candidates' websites at kopserforcongress.com or chiproy.com where additional information on these issues is available. We hope this information is useful.

Sincerely,

Lionel Dripps
