To Whom It May Concern:

Irasema "Sema" Hernandez ran for United States Senator in Texas in 2018 in the Primary.

She raised funds and campaigned, using social media to encourage people to donate to her and to brag about how much money she raised.

She did not file any reports with the FEC or the TEC (Texas Ethics Commission).

Please find enclosed screen shots from her Twitter account where she writes about the amount of money raised. These are from March of 2018, after the Texas Primary.

All candidates, from small local offices to the President of the United States should follow the law when it comes to filing election and ethics reports.

This person has also made it very clear she plans to run for Senate again in 2020, and yet she still has not filed any reports.

Attached please find both of her Twitter accounts where she posts about her campaigns.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Bachand-Halvorson
