Dear Kathryn Ross,

Thank you for your voice mail. I am sorry I missed your call. I tried to return the call but received a notice of unavailability.

I understand that I am the only one who responds in an official capacity. Thanks for clarifying that for me.

I understand that I can have up to 45 days to respond. I would like to take advantage of that extension. I received the letter around the 3/6/19. What date would the response be due?

Are you the correct person to whom I address this request?

I would like to receive confirmation of the extension in writing.

I look forward to receiving the extension confirmation.

Aloha,
