MUR # 7576

To the FEC about ABC, Jimmy Kimmel Live, CBS and the Late Show with Stephen Colbert,

My complaint about ABC and Jimmy Kimmel Live is that in being overtly political, Jimmy Kimmel as host of Jimmy Kimmel live has in effect violated campaign finance law, because the show is no longer entertainment, it is purely a biased. Kimmel has stated "ridicule" to anyone who does not agree with his politics. The show now constitutes a commercial for the Democratic Party and an unreported campaign contribution to the Democrats in giving air-time to Democrats or other guests that accentuate the politics of the Democratic Party, such as Jim Carrey. This complaint about ABC and Jimmy Kimmel Live is similar to my complaint about CBS and the Late Show with Stephen Colbert, when CBS clearly allowed someone like Robert DeNiro to use air-time to state, "fuck Trump," at the Tony Awards in 2018. These are no longer impromptu comments by entertainers, but deliberate and calculated propaganda that constitutes election activity and unreported contributions to political activity. That is why both ABC and CBS should have their license to broadcast revoked when that special treatment is obsolete these days, because ABC and CBS cannot broadcast commercials for the Democratic Party during or before elections. Their objective "reporting" is merely a tool of a political agenda, which is then imposed on the American citizen via pop culture by people like Kimmel and Colbert.

I David XavieL swear under the penalty of perjury that the aforementioned statements reflect violations of campaign finance laws by ABC, Jimmy Kimmel Live, CBS, and the Late Show with Stephen Colbert.
