RE: LI "CINDY" YANG (LEGALLY "GONG") MUR 7581 (or related)

2019 APR 24 AM 11:35

INTEGRITY COUNSEL

Dear Sirs,

I represent Mrs. Gong in the matter referenced above. She is in hiding, and did not receive her mail with an enclosed letter and complaint, which we know exist. Other respondents have received letters. The MUR above was obtained from another respondent's letter, and I do not know if the matters are assigned the identical MUR number.

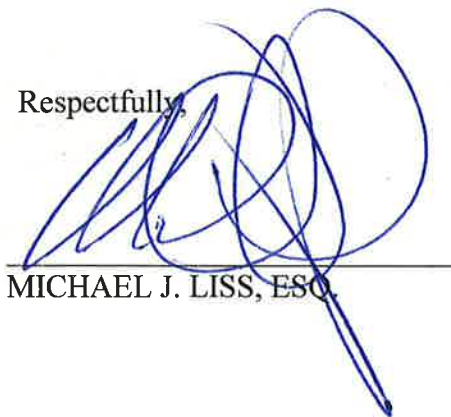

My client, as you know, has been under immense scrutiny and pressure. She has been represented by other counsel in certain aspects of her affairs, and those counsel have not contacted you regarding this matter. Attached is the STATEMENT OF DESIGNATION OF COUNSEL form executed by my client. I will be handling this matter, at least preliminarily, on behalf of Mrs. Gong.

To start, may we have 60 additional days to respond, although I believe my client's response is already late? My hope is to find Washington pro bono representation and that will take some time. I will be prepared and competent if nobody else will help this lady, but I believe it's best for her to try to get experienced DC counsel. Please, may I obtain 60 days from now for her to reply?

Having never worked with your office on a prior matter, any guidance as to the paperwork, process and working with your office would be greatly appreciated. I ask that counsel contact me directly to discuss the foregoing.

Thank you for your courtesies.

Respectfully,

MICHAEL J. LISS, ESQ.
