Re: MUR 7585

Dear Mr. Jordan:

We write as counsel to Concire, LLC (the "Company"), and Lori Trahan, Resident Agent<sup>1</sup> of the Company, (collectively, "Respondents"), regarding the complaint in the above-referenced matter.

The complaint was received on March 29, 2019. Respondents respectfully request that the time for their response be extended until May 9, 2019. Respondents require more time to review the complaint and develop the information necessary for a response. The complaint makes a wide range of disparate allegations and raises a legal question that has been the subject of multiple FEC enforcement actions and audits, and we need additional time to review and incorporate these precedents in our response. Moreover, given the proximity to the FEC reporting deadline and upcoming religious holidays, this will be a busy time for us. Accordingly, we believe this request to be reasonable.

<sup>1</sup> The FEC complaint was originally addressed to Anne E. Morris as the agent of Concire, LLC; however, as indicated by current corporate records, Lori Trahan is the current agent of Concire, LLC:

We appreciate the Commission's consideration of this request. Please do not hesitate to contact us if you have any questions.

Very truly yours,
