RE: MUR 7609

Dear Mr. Noti:

The Federal Election Commission has considered the allegations contained in your complaint dated May 9, 2019, but there was an insufficient number of votes to find reason to believe that respondents violated the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, and an insufficient number of votes to dismiss the allegations. Accordingly, on April 22, 2021, the Commission closed the file in this matter. A Statement of Reasons providing a basis for the Commission's decision will follow.

Documents related to the case will be placed on the public record within 30 days. See Disclosure of Certain Documents in Enforcement and Other Matters, 81 Fed. Reg. 50,702 (Aug. 2, 2016).

The Federal Election Campaign Act allows a complainant to seek judicial review of the Commission's dismissal of this action. See 52 U.S.C. § 30109(a)(8). If you have any questions, please contact Nick Mueller, the attorney assigned to this matter, at (202) 694-1650.

Sincerely,

Lisa J. Stevenson
Acting General Counsel
