Hi Kathryn.

Please forgive me for overlooking your email. I did have a response.

The PAC was supposed to go to be dissolved and raised no money due to the candidate that it was in support of announcing for president. The purpose was to draft her. It is on me for forgetting to submit that paperwork for dissolving. I requested those forms from the FEC long ago and did not receive a response and never checked back. For that I apologize. As for the accuser, he is an ex boyfriend and I will not let past relationship issues play out publicly.

Thanks so much.
