RE: MUR 7693

To whom it may concern:

I am writing in my capacity as Deputy Treasurer of Lance Gooden for Congress to provide a response to a complaint filed against Mr. Gooden and his Campaign Committee.

First, the complaint begins by stating that 30% of all expenditures for calendar year 2019 were reimbursements to the candidate as if this is somehow a violation of law. The complaint doesn't cite any regulation that provides limits on what percent of campaign operation expenses can be reimbursed expenses to the candidate. This is because there is no applicable regulation. The law focuses on avoiding personal use and providing proper detail on itemized reimbursements.

Second, the complaint seems oddly concerned that reimbursements for campaign related expenses to the candidate are sometimes round numbers. Again, there is no citation referencing any regulation that prevents a candidate from having clean reimbursements. The law yet again focuses on avoiding personal use and providing proper detail on itemized reimbursements.

Third, the complaint calls these reimbursements grossly excessive because they are higher than other member reimbursements. Becoming redundant, there is no citation to any law that provides thresholds for what is an excessive reimbursement.

We believe the complaint is truly filed as a hit piece right before the primary election. Our expense reimbursements have been clean and never questioned by the FEC. The fact that a primary opponent posts these strange allegations on Facebook weeks before the election and then a complaint is filed appears to be more political strategy than actual concern of campaign finance violations. Moreover, we believe the filer does not understand the regulations or how to read FEC filings properly.

If we turn our focus to what should be of actual concern, avoiding personal use and providing proper detail on itemized disbursements, we see the following in the attached October Quarterly Report from 2019:

As it related to providing proper itemized detail, this filing has 38 itemized memo entries tied to expense reimbursements taking up almost 20% of the entire report. This detail provides all required sub vendors, an explanation of what the expense was for, total cost, date of expense and a filled category code. This complies 100% with the required regulations, providing complete and detailed information on the expense.

As it relates to avoiding personal use, because of the detail provided in the memo entries, we can see these expenses are obviously not personal. Examples include event food and beverage expenses either inside the candidate's home state of Texas or Washington, DC, Facebook advertising and flight expenses.

There is nothing shown that in any way could be interpreted as personal use because of the detailed information provided by the campaign in our filings.

If you have any further questions in regards to this matter I'd be glad to provide additional information in order to resolve this matter swiftly, you may reach out to me via e-mail at rp3@henryalan.com or via U.S. mail at PO Box 3653, Dublin, OH 43016 should you like to request any additional information.

Sincerely,

Robert Phillips III, Deputy Treasurer
Lance Gooden for Congress Committee

Subscribed and sworn before me on this twenty-fourth day of February 2020.

Ashley Klein, Notary
