RE: MUR 7736

Dear Mr. Hurlock:

The Federal Election Commission reviewed the allegations in your complaint received on May 11, 2020. On April 9, 2021, based upon the information provided in the complaint, and information provided by the respondents, the Commission decided to exercise its prosecutorial discretion to dismiss the allegations as to Donald J. Trump for President, Inc. and Bradley Crate in his official capacity as treasurer, and close its file in this matter. Accordingly, the Commission closed its file in this matter on April 9, 2021. A copy of the General Counsel's Report, which more fully explains the basis for the Commission's decision, is enclosed.

Documents related to the case will be placed on the public record within 30 days. See Disclosure of Certain Documents in Enforcement and Other Matters, 81 Fed. Reg. 50,702 (Aug. 2, 2016).

The Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, allows a complainant to seek judicial review of the Commission's dismissal of this action. See 52 U.S.C. § 30109(a)(8).

Sincerely,

Lisa J. Stevenson
Acting General Counsel

The Complaint alleges that in 2016, a questionable donation was made in the Complainant's name to the Committee.<sup>1</sup> The Response, which attached a contribution form signed by Complainant, indicates that a $50 contribution was made by check to Trump Make America Great Again Committee in response to a mailer sent to Complainant and $40 of the amount was allocated to the Committee.<sup>2</sup>

Based on its experience and expertise, the Commission has established an Enforcement Priority System using formal, pre-determined scoring criteria to allocate agency resources and assess whether particular matters warrant further administrative enforcement proceedings. These criteria include (1) the gravity of the alleged violation, taking into account both the type of activity and the amount in violation; (2) the apparent impact the alleged violation may have had on the electoral process; (3) the complexity of the legal issues raised in the matter; and (4) recent trends in potential violations and other developments in the law. This matter is rated as low priority for Commission action after application of these pre-established criteria. Given that low rating, the low
