RE: P-MUR 668
Foundation for Progress, Inc., and Fundacion Pro Igualdad, Inc.

Dear Mr. Figueroa:

The Federal Election Commission (“Commission”) has ascertained information in the normal course of carrying out its supervisory responsibilities indicating that your clients Foundation for Progress, Inc., and Fundacion Pro Igualdad, Inc., may have violated the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended (the “Act”).¹ Specifically, it appears that your clients may have misreported their source of contributions and violated coordinate communication standards. This misreporting and coordinate communication may have violated the Act, including but not limited to 52 U.S.C. § 30104 (inaccurate reporting), 30122 (contributions in the name of another). We have numbered this matter P-MUR 668.

The Act affords your clients the opportunity to demonstrate in writing that no action should be taken against your clients Foundation for Progress, Inc., and Fundacion Pro Igualdad, Inc. If you wish to file a response, you may submit any factual or legal materials that you believe are relevant to the Commission’s consideration of this matter. Where appropriate, statements should be submitted under oath by persons with relevant knowledge. Your response, which should be addressed to the General Counsel’s Office, must be submitted within 15 days of receipt of this letter. If no response is received within 15 days, the Commission may take further action based on the available information.

This matter will remain confidential in accordance with 52 U.S.C. § 30109(a)(4)(B) and 30109(a)(12)(A) unless you notify the Commission in writing that you wish the matter to be made public. Please be advised that, although the Commission cannot disclose information regarding an investigation to the public, it may share information on a confidential basis with other law enforcement agencies, including the Department of Justice.² While the matter remains open, it will remain confidential as set forth above. After the matter is closed, certain documents from the file will be made available to the public on the Commission’s website. To learn more about the agency’s disclosure policy, please see 81 Fed. Reg. 51, 702 (Aug. 2, 2016). <https://fec.gov/resources/cms-content/documents/notice2016-06.pdf>.

Please note that you have a legal obligation to preserve all documents, records, and materials relating to the subject matter of the referral until such time as you are notified that the Commission has closed its file in this matter. See 18 U.S.C. § 1519.

Any correspondence sent to the Commission must be addressed to one of the following (note, if submitting via email, this Office will provide an electronic receipt by email):
