Ms. Ross

I represent the Senator individually in this matter and the Response is intended to cover Senator Tillis as well. While I will send the form to his staff and ask that it be signed, he is in the middle of a campaign, days before election. His focus is on the campaign. So if I cannot get his attention, which is understandable, you will just have to take my word that he joins in the Response. If that is not good enough, I will fight with you about it later, but it seems silly and so Orwellian to argue over whether he is individually covered under a short Response to a Complaint that is obviously nothing more than a campaign tactic. If you would like to discuss this in person, I am happy to do so at .

I noticed that Mr. Tillis was not included in the response and wanted to clarify that Sen. Tillis was named individually. While he can join the response with the committee, he will need a separate designation of counsel that must be signed by him.

If he is not planning to respond, please let us know as soon as possible.

Thanks,
Kathryn
