Dear Mr. Mackenzie:

The Federal Election Commission (“Commission”) has ascertained information in the normal course of carrying out its supervisory responsibilities indicating that the Virgin Islands Republican Party (“VIGOP”) and you, in your official capacity as treasurer (“Committee”), may have violated the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended (the “Act”). Thus, the Committee has been identified by the Commission for possible enforcement action under 52 U.S.C. § 30109.¹ Specifically, the Commission has recognized that the Committee may have violated 52 U.S.C. § 30104, among other provisions of the Act, for failing to timely file eleven (11) 24-Hour Reports to support nineteen (19) independent expenditures, as noted on the Committee’s Amended 2018 30-Day Post-General Report.

The Act affords you the opportunity to demonstrate in writing that no action should be taken against the VIGOP and you, in your official capacity as treasurer, in this matter. If you wish to file a response, you may submit any factual or legal materials that you believe are relevant to the Commission’s consideration of this matter. Where appropriate, statements should be submitted under oath by persons with relevant knowledge. Your response, which should be addressed to the General Counsel’s Office, must be submitted within 15 days of receipt of this letter. If no response is received within 15 days, the Commission may take further action based on the available information.

This matter will remain confidential in accordance with 52 U.S.C. §§ 30109(a)(4)(B) and 30109(a)(12)(A) unless you notify the Commission in writing that you wish the matter to be made public.
