MUR 7918

Sarah Jane Garraty

West Grove, PA 19390

To whom it may concern:

I disputed two unauthorized credit card charges that resulted in my name and personal information being posted under individual contributions on the Federal Election Commission website. Since the transactions and utilization of my name and personal information were unauthorized by me and deemed as such by the financial institution, as stated in the enclosed letter, I am requesting to have the two individual transactions (enclosed) that list my name and personal information as the contributor be removed from the Federal Election Commission website entirely. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Sarah Jane Garraty

Dear Ms. Garraty:

This is in response to your email to the Federal Election Commission (the "Commission"), received on May 11, 2021. The Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended (the "Act") and Commission Regulations require that the contents of a complaint meet certain specific requirements. Your email does not meet these requirements. Specifically, although your correspondence was notarized and signed in the presence of a notary public, it was not sworn to sufficiently, as required under the Act.

In order to file a legally sufficient complaint, you must swear before a notary that the contents of your complaint are true to the best of your knowledge and the notary must represent as part of the jurat that such swearing occurred. See 52 U.S.C. § 30109(a)(1); 11 C.F.R. § 111.4(b)(2). The preferred form is "Subscribed and sworn to before me on this ____ day of ____, 2021." Please note, it is not sufficient for the notary to acknowledge the identity of the individual before him or her. We regret the inconvenience that these requirements may cause you, but we are not statutorily empowered to proceed with the handling of a compliance action unless all the statutory requirements are fulfilled. See 52 U.S.C. § 30109.

This matter will remain confidential for a 15 day period to allow you to correct the defects in your complaint. Any corrections to your complaint must be submitted in writing to the General Counsel at the FEC's street address, or submitted by email to EnfComplaint@fec.gov, if you are in a state in which electronic notarization is permissible.

Complaints received by mail on or after June 18, 2020, will not be processed on a daily basis until the Commission resumes normal mail operations. Therefore, the Commission asks that anyone filing an enforcement complaint by mail also send an electronic copy of the complaint to EnfComplaint@fec.gov. The Commission encourages the use of electronic signatures and notarizations where permitted by state law. Electronically submitted copies of complaints that otherwise appear to be in order will be deemed received on the date the copy was electronically received by staff. Complaints that are filed only by mail will be deemed received when actually received by Office of General Counsel staff, subject to mail processing delays.

If the complaint is corrected and refiled within the 15 day period, the respondents will be so informed and provided a copy of the corrected complaint. If the complaint is not corrected, the file will be closed and no additional notification will be provided to the respondents.

Sincerely,

Jeff S. Jordan (by MBD)

Dear Sarah J Garraty,

Recently, you notified us of unauthorized charges made on the above referenced account, and our investigation of your claim is complete.

To prevent additional unauthorized charges to this account, your account was given a new account number. To the extent any of the unauthorized charges were billed to your old account number and not transferred to your new account number, you are not responsible for payment of those charges. To the extent any unauthorized charges were transferred to your new account number, your account has been credited in the amount of those charges. The credit(s) will be reflected on your next periodic statement.

We're happy to have helped you resolve this issue. If you have any questions, please contact us at 1-866-756-1957. As always, thank you for banking with PNC Bank.

Sincerely,

Alaina Jacobs
