

BEFORE THE FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

ENFORCEMENT PRIORITY SYSTEM

DISMISSAL REPORT

MUR: 7925

Respondents: Jim Banks for Congress, Inc., and Steve Martin, Jr., in his official capacity as treasurer
Thomas W. Kelley
Kelley Automotive Group, LLC

Complaint Receipt Date: September 3, 2021

Response Date: September 24, 2021

EPS Rating:

Alleged Statutory

Regulatory Violations:

52 U.S.C. § 30116(a), (f);
11 C.F.R. §§ 110.1; 110.9

20 The Complaint alleges that Jim Banks for Congress, Inc., and Steve Martin, Jr., in his 21 official capacity as treasurer (the “Committee”) received excessive contributions from Thomas
22 Kelley in multiple ways. It alleges that Kelley contributed under two different spellings of his name
23 — “Thomas Kelley” and “Tom Kelly” — and through Kelley’s sole proprietorship, Kelley
24 Automotive Group LLC.¹ Specifically, the Complaint alleges that “Kelly” made two $2,900
25 contributions under his own name and another two $2,900 contributions through his LLC, on 26 March 31, 2021, and subsequently made a $2,500 contribution using the correct spelling of his 27 name “Kelley,” on June 25, 2021.² Accordingly, the Complaint alleges that Kelley made and the 28 Committee knowingly accepted excessive contributions.³

29 In its Response, the Committee states that the alleged violations were due to clerical and 30 software errors and that the excessive contribution that resulted from these errors was promptly

1 refunded when it came to the Committee’s attention.⁴ The Response explains that Kelley made a
 2 $10,000 contribution through Kelley Automotive, LLC to the Banks Victory Fund, a joint
 3 fundraising committee, on March 31, 2021, which allocated $2,900 for the 2022 primary election
 4 and $2,900 for the 2022 general election, with the remainder going to Bank’s Leadership PAC,
 5 House Conservatives Fund.⁵ In other words, there were only two allocations to the Committee
 6 (with Kelley and the LLC attributable to each) whereas the Complaint mistook the memo entries as 7 separate contributions and assumed there were four total contributions that exceeded the 8 contribution limit.⁶ Regarding these contributions, however, the Response states that a clerical error
 9 resulted in the misspelling of Kelley’s name, which caused the Committee’s software to miss the 10 excessive $2,500 contribution that was made in June under Kelley’s correct name.⁷ However, the 11 Complaint states that it refunded Kelley the $2,500 contribution that exceeded the contribution
 12 limits within 15 days after it learned “of the duplicative record and overage.”⁸

13 Based on its experience and expertise, the Commission has established an Enforcement
 14 Priority System using formal, pre-determined scoring criteria to allocate agency resources and 15 assess whether particular matters warrant further administrative enforcement proceedings. These 16 criteria include (1) the gravity of the alleged violation, taking into account both the type of activity
 17 and the amount in violation; (2) the apparent impact the alleged violation may have had on the 18 electoral process; (3) the complexity of the legal issues raised in the matter; and (4) recent trends in 19 potential violations and other developments in the law. This matter is rated as low priority for

⁴ Response of Jim Banks for Congress, Inc., and Steve Martin, Jr., in his official capacity as treasurer at 1 (Sept. 24, 2021). Thomas Kelley and Kelley Automotive Group LLC did not respond to the Complaint.

⁸ Id. The Response states that the Committee refunded $2,500 to Kelley on Sept. 24, 2021, which the Response explains was a refund of Kelley’s $2,500 contribution made on June 25, 2021. Id. See Jim Banks for Congress, Inc. 2021 October Quarterly Report at 199. <https://docquery.fec.gov/cgi-bin/fecimg/?202110159467479011>.

1 Commission action after application of these pre-established criteria. Given that low rating, the 2 remedial actions of the respondents, and the low dollar amount involved, we recommend that the 3 Commission dismiss the Complaint consistent with the Commission's prosecutorial discretion to 4 determine the proper ordering of its priorities and use of agency resources.⁹ We also recommend
5 that the Commission close the file as to all Respondents and send the appropriate letters.
