11 I. INTRODUCTION

12 These matters arise from Complaints alleging that Donald J. Trump has become a 13 candidate for President in the 2024 election cycle and has failed to file a Statement of Candidacy
 14 with the Commission within 15 days of becoming a candidate in violation of the Federal Election
 15 Campaign Act of 1971, as amended (the “Act”). The Complaint in MUR 7968 (the “MUR 7968 16 Complaint”) specifically alleges that, by July 2021, Trump had made statements indicating that 17 he is a candidate for President in 2024 and improperly used a multicandidate leadership PAC, 18 Save America and Bradley T. Crate in his official capacity as treasurer (“Save America”), and 19 Save America Joint Fundraising Committee and Bradley T. Crate in his official capacity as 20 treasurer (“Save America JFC”) to raise and spend millions of dollars to further his 2024 21 presidential campaign. The Complaint in MUR 7969 (the “MUR 7969 Complaint”) makes 22 similar allegations and adds that Make America Great Again PAC (f/k/a Donald J. Trump for 23 President, Inc.) and Bradley T. Crate in his official capacity as treasurer (“MAGA PAC”) also 24 accepted contributions on behalf of Trump’s 2024 alleged candidacy.<sup>1</sup> The MUR 7969
 25 Complaint raises additional arguments, including that the Commission’s testing-the-waters

---

<sup>1</sup> The MUR 7969 Complaint alleges that MAGA PAC, Save America, and Save America JFC have engaged in “improper coordination” with Trump, which appears to constitute allegations of the making and receipt of excessive and prohibited in-kind contributions.

1 regulations are in conflict with the plain language of the Act, and that Trump is disqualified from 2 running for federal office due to his participation in the events of January 6, 2021, at the U.S.
3 Capitol. We do not make any recommendations with respect to these additional allegations.

4 Respondents submitted brief joint Responses stating that Trump is not a candidate; that 5 he is not testing the waters; and that he uses Save America's platform to maintain a public image, 6 support other candidates, and advance policy issues.

7 As discussed below, the available information indicates that Trump has made public 8 statements indicating that he has decided to become a 2024 presidential candidate, at least as 9 early as June 30, 2021. Further, Save America and Save America JFC (collectively, the "Save 10 America Committees") appear to have made excessive in-kind contributions to Trump by 11 spending in excess of $5,000 in support of his 2024 campaign. Accordingly, we recommend that 12 the Commission: (1) find reason to believe that Donald J. Trump violated 52 U.S.C.
13 § 30102(e)(1) and 11 C.F.R. § 101.1(a) by failing to timely file a Statement of Candidacy and 14 designate a principal campaign committee; (2) find reason to believe that the Save America
15 Committees violated 52 U.S.C. § 30116(a)(2)(A) and 11 C.F.R. § 110.2(b) by making excessive 16 contributions to Donald J. Trump; (3) find reason to believe that Donald J. Trump violated 17 52 U.S.C. § 30116(f) and 11 C.F.R. § 110.9 by knowingly accepting excessive contributions; and 18 (4) take no action at this time with respect to the allegation that MAGA PAC violated 52 U.S.C.
19 § 30116(a)(2)(A) and 11 C.F.R. § 110.2(b) by making excessive and prohibited contributions to 20 Donald J. Trump.

21 If the Commission approves our recommendations, we intend to engage in an 22 investigation to assess when Trump should have registered as a candidate as well as the total

1 amount of Save America and Save America JFC's potentially excessive contributions to Trump.
2 We recommend that the Commission authorize the use of compulsory process.

3 II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

4 A. Statements Made by Trump Regarding a 2024 Presidential Candidacy

5 Donald J. Trump was elected the 45th President of the United States in 2016.<sup>2</sup> Trump ran 6 for re-election as President in 2020, but was unsuccessful.<sup>3</sup> Because Trump served one term, he 7 is not term-limited from running for the same office in 2024.<sup>4</sup> To date, Trump has not formally 8 declared his candidacy for the 2024 presidential election, nor has he filed a Statement of 9 Candidacy with the Commission or designated an authorized committee.

10 Beginning in 2021, Trump has made a number of public statements indicating that he has 11 made a decision regarding whether to run for President in 2024. As early as June 30, 2021, in an 12 interview posted on Sean Hannity's YouTube channel with the title "Trump Says He Made Up 13 His Mind About Running in 2024," Hannity began an interview with Trump in front of a live 14 audience as follows:

15 Hannity: Let's talk about your future plans. [crowd cheers] Let 16 me ask the crowd of everybody here, would you like to see the 17 President run again in 2024? [crowd cheers] You're not going to 18 answer but I have to ask, where are you in the process of, or have 19 — let me ask you this, without giving the answer, what the answer 20 is, have you made up your mind?

21 Trump: Yes. [crowd cheers]

22 Hannity: I think you got it right. [Hannity laughs]<sup>5</sup>

1 Later, in August 2021, Trump participated in another interview with Hannity in which he was 2 asked whether he would run for office in 2024; Trump replied:

3 So because the campaign finance laws are extremely complicated 4 and unbelievably stupid, I'm actually not allowed to answer that 5 question, can you believe that? I'd love to answer it. . . . But, let 6 me put it this way; I think you'll be happy and I think that a lot of 7 our friends will be very happy but I'm not actually allowed to 8 answer it. It makes it very difficult if I do. So, people, you're 9 gonna be happy, 'cause I love this country and I hate to see what's 10 happening to it.<sup>6</sup>

11 A month later, in September 2021, Trump reiterated in response to a similar question: "I mean, I 12 know what I'm going to do, but we're not supposed to be talking about it yet from the standpoint 13 of campaign finance laws. . . . But I think you're going to be happy."<sup>7</sup> Taylor Budowich, a 14 Trump spokesman, has further stated that "President Trump is incredibly well positioned to look 15 beyond November as the need for his leadership has never been more important."<sup>8</sup>

16 On January 26, 2022, during a golf game of which video was uploaded to Instagram, 17 Trump corrected an individual who called him the 45th President, stating, "45th and 47th."<sup>9</sup> A

1 month later, at the Conservative Political Action Conference (“CPAC”) in February 2022, Trump 2 stated:

3 But [the socialists, globalists, Marxists, and communists] are going 4 to find out the hard way starting on November 8th[, 2022], and 5 then again even more so on November 2024, they will find out like 6 never before. We did it twice and we’ll do it again. We’re going 7 to be doing it again a third time.<sup>10</sup>

8 In July 2022, Trump reiterated that he has made his decision regarding the 2024 election 9 cycle: When asked about what would factor into his decision to run, Trump reportedly replied, 10 “Well, in my own mind, I’ve already made that decision, so nothing factors in anymore. In my 11 own mind, I’ve already made that decision.”<sup>11</sup> Shortly thereafter, Trump appeared to make 12 statements concerning a second term in office. At the America First Policy Institute Summit 13 later that month, Trump stated: “I ran the first time and I won. Then I ran a second time and I 14 did much better. . . . And you know what? . . . We may just have to do it again. We have to 15 straighten out our country.”<sup>12</sup> He subsequently stated that “we have to abolish all COVID

6 D. The Complaints and Responses

7 The Complaints allege that Trump has become a candidate for President in the 2024
 8 election cycle and has failed to file a Statement of Candidacy and designate a principal campaign 9 committee despite public statements indicating that he has made a decision to run and has raised
 10 over $100 million through the Save America Committees.<sup>67</sup> Both Complaints allege that Trump 11 has consented to others raising funds for his 2024 candidacy; the MUR 7968 Complaint states

1 that, by sponsoring Save America, Trump has “consented to Save America’s expenditures on his 2 behalf,”<sup>68</sup> and the MUR 7969 Complaint states that Trump has given his “consent to permit
3 others to raise funds on his behalf to amass funds in anticipation of an inevitable candidacy.”<sup>69</sup>
4 In support of this assertion, the MUR 7968 Complaint points to the Save America JFC’s 5 spending on Facebook advertisements and the Save America Committee’s disbursements to 6 Event Strategies, which it states is “the company that stages his rallies.”<sup>70</sup> The MUR 7968 7 Complaint also alleges that Save America has raised more than $100 million “for the purpose of 8 influencing” Trump’s campaign.<sup>71</sup>

9 Both Complaints further allege that Trump has knowingly accepted excessive and 11 as to the Save America Committees,<sup>72</sup> and the MUR 7969 Complaint as to those entities and 13 The Responses deny that Trump has “triggered registration as a candidate for federal 15 by raising or spending more than $5,000 and argue that the Complaints are based on a “few out 16 of context comments.”<sup>75</sup> They deny that Trump has “made any statement referring to Donald J.

8 III. LEGAL ANALYSIS

9 A. The Commission Should Find Reason to Believe That Trump Failed to 10 Timely File a Statement of Candidacy

11 1. The Available Information Indicates that Trump Has Decided to Run for 12 President in 2024

13 Under the Act and Commission regulations, an individual becomes a candidate when the 14 person (1) decides to run for office<sup>80</sup> and (2) receives contributions or makes expenditures

2022, Save America JFC submitted a response incorporating by reference the arguments made in the original MUR 7968 Response. Save America JFC Resp. at 1, MUR 7968 (Aug. 25, 2022). Save America and MAGA PAC did the same with respect to the original MUR 7969 Response. Save America Resp. at 1, MUR 7969 (Aug. 25, 2022); MAGA PAC Resp. at 1, MUR 7969 (Aug. 26, 2022).

<sup>80</sup> 11 C.F.R. §§ 100.72(b), 100.131(b). Though the Act defines candidacy in terms of crossing the $5,000 threshold discussed below in note 81 and the accompanying text, by definition, a contribution or expenditure must be “for the purpose of influencing any election for Federal office.” See 52 U.S.C. § 30101(8)(A) (defining contribution); 11 C.F.R. § 100.52(a) (same); 52 U.S.C. § 30101(9)(A) (defining expenditure); 11 C.F.R. § 100.111(a) (same). Until an individual has decided to run for Federal office, the money they raise and spend for themselves cannot be “for the purpose of influencing any election for Federal office.” Accordingly, an individual must have made this determination in order to cross the contribution or expenditure threshold at 52 U.S.C. § 30101(2).

1 exceeding $5,000, either directly or through an entity the candidate has consented to receive 2 contributions or make expenditures on their behalf.<sup>81</sup>

3 Commission regulations set forth a non-exhaustive set of “[e]xamples of activities that 4 indicate that an individual has decided to become a candidate.”<sup>82</sup> Such indicia include: (1) using 5 “general public political advertising to publicize his or her intention to campaign for federal 6 office”;<sup>83</sup> (2) raising “funds in excess of what could reasonably be expected to be used for 7 exploratory activities or undertak[ing] activity designed to amass campaign funds that would be 8 spent after he or she becomes a candidate”<sup>84</sup>; (3) making or authorizing “written or oral 9 statements that refer to the individual as a candidate for a particular office”;<sup>85</sup> (4) conducting 10 “activities in close proximity to the election or over a protracted period of time”;<sup>86</sup> and (5) taking 11 “action to qualify for the ballot under state law.”<sup>87</sup>

12 In previous matters, the Commission has found reason to believe that an individual had 13 become a candidate and failed to timely file a Statement of Candidacy when public statements
14 and other indicia showed that the respondent had determined to run for office. In MUR 6449 15 (Jon Bruning, et al.), the Commission found that an individual who had publicly said “I want to 16 run. I’m ready to run” and made a solicitation to “help [him] defeat” his primary opponent had 17 made the decision to campaign for office and become a candidate under the Act.<sup>88</sup> In MUR 6735

1 (Joseph A. Sestak, et al.), the Commission found that an individual who had solicited funds via 2 emails asking for support in his attempt to “seek the U.S. Senate” and to “help [him] serve you, 3 again” indicated that he had determined to run and was not testing the waters.<sup>89</sup> And in 4 MUR 5908 (Duncan Hunter, et al.), the Commission found that an individual who stated, inter
5 alia, “while I’ve announced that I am preparing to run for president, I have not made a formal 6 announcement of my candidacy” had, in fact, become a candidate.<sup>90</sup> Further, in Advisory 7 Opinion 2015-09, the Commission advised that an individual becomes a candidate when the 8 individual passes the $5,000 threshold and “when he or she makes a private determination that he 9 or she will run for federal office.”<sup>91</sup> When determining whether an individual “has made a 10 decision to run for federal office, [the Commission] assesses an individual’s objectively 11 deliberate actions to discern whether and when an individual decided to become a candidate.”<sup>92</sup>

12 Here, Trump’s activities indicate that he has decided to run for President in 2024, and 13 that he made that decision no later than June 30, 2021.

14 a. Public Statements

15 As set forth in the Commission’s non-exhaustive list of activities that indicate when an 16 individual has decided to become a candidate, one such indication is that the individual has made 17 or authorized statements that refer to the individual as a candidate for a particular office.<sup>93</sup>

Date	Statement
July 14, 2022 ( approx. )	Trump, in response to question of “[w]hat would factor into” his decision to run: “Well, in my own mind, I’ve already made that decision, so nothing factors in anymore. In my own mind, I’ve already made that decision.” <sup>99</sup>
July 26, 2022	Trump: “I ran the first time and I won. Then I ran a second time and I did much better. . . . And you know what? . . . We may just have to do it again. We have to straighten out our country.<sup>100</sup> . . . We have to abolish all COVID mandates and lockdowns and rehire every patriot who was fired from the military.<sup>101</sup> . . . Washington will be an entirely different place.<sup>102</sup> . . . We need to restore my administration’s initiatives to target and eliminate Chinese espionage.” <sup>103</sup>
September 23, 2022	Trump: “This is the year, we’re going to take back the House, we’re going to take back the Senate, we’re going to take back our country, we’re gonna take back America. And in 2024, most importantly, I gotta say, Ted, I’m sorry but, most importantly, I shouldn’t say that, Ted, but most importantly, we’re going to take back our magnificent White House, we’re gonna take it back.” <sup>104</sup>

1           The Responses argue that the Respondents have not “made any statement referring to 2 Donald J. Trump as a candidate.”<sup>105</sup> Though Trump and the committees associated with him 3 have refrained from using the word “candidate” in reference to Trump, the question is whether 4 he has decided to run for office, not whether he has declared his intention to do so. Here, there is 5 no other reasonable interpretation of Trump’s statements than that he intends to run for President 6 in 2024: First, when asked whether he had made a decision to run in 2024, Trump stated,

1 without equivocation, “Yes.”<sup>106</sup> As noted above, when determining whether an individual has 2 decided to run for federal office, the Commission “assesses an individual’s objectively deliberate
3 actions to discern whether and when an individual decided to become a candidate.”<sup>107</sup> Trump 4 told Sean Hannity on June 30, 2021, that he had made a decision, and both in context and in 5 reference to his subsequent conduct, his objectively deliberate actions indicate that Trump’s 6 decision is to run in 2024.

7 In direct response to a question regarding whether he would run for office in 2024, 8 Trump told Sean Hannity, who has vocally and consistently supported Trump and his 9 candidacies,<sup>108</sup> “I think you’ll be happy and I think that a lot of our friends will be very 10 happy . . . . So, people, you’re gonna be happy.”<sup>109</sup> The context makes clear that Trump has 11 decided to run, because if Trump had decided not to run, that decision would not make Hannity 12 or his audience “happy.”

13 Additionally, Trump’s references to campaign finance laws, as he has mentioned multiple 14 times, appear to confirm his decision to run. If he were not going to run, talking about his 15 decision would not cause a change from the status quo with respect to Trump’s campaign

1 finance obligations, whereas deciding to run would immediately implicate the Act's Statement of 2 Candidacy and committee designation requirements.<sup>110</sup>

3         Similar to the Commission's findings in MUR 5908 that a statement that the individual 4 had "announced that I am preparing to run for president, [but] I have not made a formal 5 announcement of my candidacy" was sufficient basis on which to determine the individual had 6 decided to run for office and become a candidate,<sup>111</sup> Trump's similar statements that he has 7 decided whether to run and that the decision will make those who want him to run happy is 8 likewise a sufficient basis for the Commission to conclude that Trump has decided to become a 9 candidate. Similarly instructive are MURs 6955, 6983 (John R. Kasich, et al.), in which the 10 Commission found that a "'non-conditional statement' by an individual . . . that he or she 'will 11 announce his or her candidacy on a given date unambiguously indicates that the individual has 12 decided to become a candidate,'"<sup>112</sup> Here, Trump has analogously asserted that he has "already 13 made my decision" as to which "nothing factors in anymore," evincing the same kind of 14 decisiveness that the Commission found determinative with respect to Kasich's decision to 15 announce his candidacy on a set date.<sup>113</sup>

<sup>113</sup> In MURs 6460, 6482, 6484 (Mitt Romney, et al.), Mitt Romney had replied to a question from a radio host whether he would form an exploratory committee with "I have an idea . . . , but I'd tell you quietly, but I'm afraid you'd let your listeners know, so I'll have to be giving that some thought, but no definitive plans right now." First Gen. Counsel's Rpt. But I can tell you that I'm doing what I've got to do to make sure that if we decide to go ahead, that we'll have a successful effort." Id. This Office wrote that these statements were "consistent with conduct designed to test the waters," and, because testing-the-waters allegations had not been made in the original complaint, recommended the Commission take no action but notify the Respondents of the new allegations and provide them a chance to respond. Id. at 18-19.  7 Trump cannot be referring to a Republican presidential victory (Republicans have won 19 times).

Romney's statements, but wrote that they had voted to exercise their prosecutorial discretion and dismiss the allegations due largely to the relatively small amount in violation. (Nov. 2, 2015), MURs 6460, et al.; Amended Cert. ¶ 1 (Dec. 1, 2015), MURs 6460, et al. Here, the concerns that motivated the controlling Commissioners' decision to exercise their prosecutorial discretion are not at issue, as this matter presents both significantly more statements regarding Trump's candidacy and an amount in violation that may exceed 100 million dollars; further, the testing-the-waters exception is not at issue, as Trump has expressly denied that it applies and his statements indicate that he has made a decision to run for office.

1 Trump's statement to a fellow golfer that he should be called the "45th and 47th"
2 President of the United States<sup>117</sup> is even less ambiguous: Trump was elected the 45th President 3 in 2016, and any individual other than Joe Biden who wins the 2024 Presidential election will 4 become the 47th President. Thus, Trump's statement indicates that he intends to run in (and win) 5 the 2024 election and reflects his decision to become a candidate, in accordance with the 6 Commission's previous conclusion that another individual's statements, including "it's time to 7 do it again," indicated a decision to become a candidate.<sup>118</sup> Trump's subsequent statement in 8 September 2022 that "we're going to take back our magnificent White House"<sup>119</sup> appears to 9 reflect the same intent, as does his series of posts and reposts from the same time period 10 discussing direct comparisons of him with Biden, as well as calls for him to declare his 11 candidacy for 2024.<sup>120</sup> As in MUR 6735, where the Commission found that statements that the

1 “abolish all COVID mandates and lockdowns,” “restore [his] administrations initiatives to target
2 and eliminate Chinese espionage,” and to make Washington “an entirely different place”<sup>123</sup> 3 reflect Trump’s determination to run for the White House in 2024.

4 The Responses do not dispute the accuracy of any of the statements attributed to Trump 5 in the Complaints, and instead assert that neither Trump nor “any other Respondent has . . . made 6 any statement referring to Donald J. Trump as candidate.”<sup>124</sup> However, the Commission has 7 previously advised that, “[w]here the circumstances demonstrate that an individual’s statement 8 regarding candidacy reflects that individual’s decision to run for office, mere assertions that the 9 individual’s subjective intent differs from his or her statement generally will not negate the 10 objective indication of candidacy arising from the statement.”<sup>125</sup> Here, as in the matters
11 discussed above in which the Commission evaluated candidate statements using objective 12 criteria, Trump’s public statements have made clear that he has determined to run for President 13 in 2024. Though these statements alone would be sufficient to indicate that Trump has “made a 14 decision to become a candidate,”<sup>126</sup> he has also satisfied further indicia of candidacy.

1                                   b.       Amassing Funds

2           Another of the factors enumerated by the Commission that indicate when an individual 3 has decided to become a candidate is raising “funds in excess of what could reasonably be 4 expected to be used for exploratory activities or undertak[ing] activity designed to amass
5 campaign funds that would be spent after he or she becomes a candidate.”<sup>127</sup> Trump has raised 6 more than $100 million through the Save America Committees, far beyond what could 7 “reasonably be expected to be used for exploratory activities;”<sup>128</sup> indeed, as of this date of this 8 Report, Save America not only has nearly ten times the cash on hand of the next-most-successful
9 leadership PAC, but more than all 706 of the other leadership PACs active in the 2022 election
10 cycle combined.<sup>129</sup> Because of the amount of money Trump has raised via the Save America 11 Committees, the available information therefore indicates that Trump is amassing funds for his 12 2024 candidacy.

13           The Responses deny that Trump is testing the waters,<sup>130</sup> and state that the Save America

 2 indicate that the Save America Committees have spent no funds on any independent 3 expenditures, and a low proportion of their disbursements have been spent on contributions to 4 other candidates, discussed further below.<sup>132</sup> Most critically, of the significant sums raised by 5 the Save America Committees, as of the writing of this Report, they retain over $100 million 6 cash on hand: $92,788,822 by Save America,<sup>133</sup> and $7,507,762 by Save America JFC.<sup>134</sup> As

 10 campaign funds that would be spent after [Trump] . . . becomes a candidate.”<sup>135</sup>

3           Given that the Save America Committees affiliated with Trump have spent little of their 4 total receipts on other candidates or policy advocacy, and that Trump and the Save America 5 committees have explicitly denied raising funds for testing-the-waters activities, it appears that 6 Trump has “undertak[en] activity designed to amass campaign funds,”<sup>153</sup> and has spent 7 significant funds in support of his undeclared candidacy.

8                           c.           Activity Over a Protracted Period of Time

9           Another of the five factors the Commission chose to list as indicia that a candidate has 10 determined to run for office is whether the individual is “conducting activities in close proximity 11 to the election or over a protracted period of time.”<sup>154</sup> As discussed in Part III.A.1.a, above, at 12 the time of this Report, Trump has made public statements indicating that he has determined to 13 run for president over a period spanning more than 15 months. Further, between June 2021, just 14 days before he first publicly stated that he had made his decision, and October 2022, Trump has 15 been the keynote speaker at no fewer than 24 rallies, many of which were advertised under the 16 “Save America” banner and tickets for which were available on Trump’s website.<sup>155</sup> Indeed, 17 Save America has disbursed nearly $9.5 million to “Event Strategies, Inc.,” the vendor that

2 elaborated on what constitutes a "protracted period of time," and noted in the testing-the-waters 3 context that "the length of time that an individual spends deliberating whether to become a 4 candidate is one factor and does not, in and of itself, determine whether the individual has 5 become a candidate,"<sup>157</sup> 15 months, well more than a quarter of a presidential term, appears to 6 fall within the scope of "protracted period of time."<sup>158</sup>

7 2. Trump Has Surpassed the $5,000 Threshold for Candidacy

8 As discussed above, once an individual decides to run for office, the individual becomes 9 a candidate under the Act when: (a) such individual receives contributions or makes 10 expenditures in excess of $5,000; or (b) such individual gives their consent to another person to 11 receive contributions or make expenditures on behalf of such individual and if such person has 12 received such contributions or has made such expenditures in excess of $5,000.<sup>159</sup> Once the 13 $5,000 threshold has been met, the candidate has 15 days to designate a principal campaign
14 committee by filing a Statement of Candidacy with the Commission.<sup>160</sup> The principal campaign

<sup>158</sup> Cf. F&LA at 2, 12, MUR 6776 (Niger Innis, et al.) (dismissing where candidate had tested the waters for a period of approximately six months); F&LA at 8-9, MURs 7689, 7794 (Amanda Adkins for Congress, et al.) (same). The Commission has previously advised that, if an individual engaged in testing-the-waters activities for "several months" in one year, and his activities extended into the next year, the duration of those activities "would be very significant in determining the applicability of the [testing-the-waters] exemptions" in the latter year. See Advisory Opinion 1981-32 at 5 (Askew) ("AO 1981-32"). This would appear to indicate that periods of time greater than a year are generally a "protracted period of time" as contemplated by 11 C.F.R. §§ 100.72(b)(4), 100.131(b)(4).

1 committee must file a Statement of Organization within ten days of its designation,<sup>161</sup> and it must 2 file disclosure reports with the Commission.<sup>162</sup>

3 The Commission has established “testing-the-waters” regulations excepting from the 4 definitions of “contribution” and “expenditure” funds received and payments made solely to 5 determine whether an individual should become a candidate, thereby permitting an individual to 6 test the feasibility of a campaign for federal office without becoming a candidate under the 7 Act.<sup>163</sup> These testing-the-waters regulations seek to draw a distinction between activities 8 directed to evaluating the feasibility of one’s candidacy and conduct signifying that a decision to 9 become a candidate has been made.<sup>164</sup> The testing-the-waters exceptions are not available to an 10 individual who has decided to become a candidate, even if the individual has made only “a 11 private determination that he or she will run for federal office.”<sup>165</sup>

12 The available information indicates that Trump has passed the $5,000 threshold 13 triggering status as a candidate via funds raised and spent by the Save America Committees in 14 support of his 2024 candidacy. As a preliminary matter, Trump has given his consent to the 15 Save America Committees to “receive contributions or make expenditures” on his behalf.<sup>166</sup>

 5 Trump's former principal campaign committee.<sup>170</sup> Trump reportedly personally fundraised for 6 the Save America Committees by calling donors and holding events to raise money.<sup>171</sup>

7 Having established that Trump has consented to the Save America Committees receiving 8 contributions and making expenditures on his behalf, the question becomes whether the Save

MUR 7968 Resp. at 3 & n.5; MUR 7969 Resp. at 3 & n.4. This Report distinguishes from one of the matters the Responses cite as support for this proposition elsewhere, as appropriate. See supra note 122 and accompanying text (discussing MUR 6929 (Scott Walker, et al.)). With respect to the other four matters to which the Responses refer, they present circumstances that are not analogous to those at issue here. MUR 6928 (Rick Santorum, et al.) involved testing the waters, which the Responses explicitly disclaim, and on which the Commission ultimately split because Commissioners did not agree on whether Santorum had spent any funds evaluating his potential candidacy. See First Gen. Counsel's Rpt. at 18, MUR 6928; Statement of Reasons, Chairman Peterson & Comm'r Hunter at 13, MUR 6928 (writing that "thinking about running for office is not the same as spending money to evaluate a possible run for office" (emphasis in original)); Cert. ¶ 2 (Feb. 6, 2019), MUR 6928. MUR 7381 (Rick Scott, et al.) involved allegations that a candidate had failed to file a report covering the first three days of his candidacy, and resulted in a dismissal under the Commission's Enforcement Priority System. See Gen. Counsel's Rpt. at 1-2 & Cert. (Nov. 15, 2018), MUR 7381. MUR 6750 (Carl DeMaio, et al.) involved allegations that a candidate had used a state ballot measure committee he had founded to fund his

1 However, the Save America Committees have done so on his behalf, and have raised more than 2 $100 million in the process. Further, Save America JFC has spent at least $1.3 million on 3 Facebook advertisements under pages named, e.g., “Team Trump,” more than 250 of which ask 4 whether users would “Vote for Trump” a third time.<sup>174</sup> As the Commission has previously 5 advised, funds received or payments made by third-party organizations such as multicandidate 6 political committees for “activity indicating that an individual has decided to become a 7 candidate” may trigger the Act’s registration and reporting requirements associated with 11 of “contribution” and “expenditure” such that testing-the-waters expenses do not trigger the 12 $5,000 threshold for candidacy, the Responses explicitly deny that Trump is testing the waters, 13 and state that he has not “raised any money for testing[-]the[-]waters activities.”<sup>176</sup> Further, the

And MUR 6960 (Peter DiCianni, et al.) involved allegations that a candidate had begun testing the waters and used a non-federal committee to pay for associated expenses, as to which the Commission found no reason to believe because the complaint was “conclusory” and “the Commission [had] no information that credibly suggests” that the complaint’s allegations were true. 1 knowingly accept any contribution or make any expenditure in violation of the provisions of 2 52 U.S.C. § 30116.<sup>181</sup> The Commission's regulations at 11 C.F.R. § 106.1 require that 3 expenditures on behalf of more than one clearly identified federal candidate be attributed to each 4 such candidate according to the benefit reasonably expected to be derived.<sup>182</sup> Under 5 Commission guidance, where a potential candidate engages in activities on behalf of a non-6 connected multicandidate committee, such as a leadership PAC, but also undertakes activities 7 relating to his own candidacy, the candidate must allocate any expenses between that committee 8 and his candidacy pursuant to 11 C.F.R. § 106.1(a).<sup>183</sup> If the multicandidate committee spends 9 more than $5,000 on an individual's candidacy, that committee makes excessive in-kind 10 contributions to the candidate in violation of 52 U.S.C. § 30116(a)(2)(A).

5 the accomplishments of the Trump administration and support 6 other candidates who will define the future of the America First

9 Because we recommend that the Commission find reason to believe that Trump became a 10 candidate no later than June 30, 2021, we likewise recommend that the Commission should 11 consider Trump to have become subject to the Act's contribution limits no later than that date.
12 The available information shows that, from June 2021 to present, Trump has traveled extensively 13 for more than 24 rallies, appeared at CPAC and the America First Policy Institute Summit, and 14 spoken repeatedly at these events about his decision to run for office in the 2024 election cycle

<sup>187</sup> See Part III.A.1.a, c, supra. Given Trump's fundraising on behalf of the Save America Committees, which the available information indicates he has used to finance his candidacy, and which are subject to a higher contribution limit than that applicable to candidates and their authorized committees, it appears that Trump may have used the Save America Committees to solicit contributions “not subject to the limitations . . . of [the] Act” as they apply to him in violation of 52 U.S.C. § 30125(e). If an investigation uncovers information relevant to a violation of 52 U.S.C. § 30116(f) in this respect, we will make an appropriate recommendation.

1 you vote for Trump a Third Time?”<sup>188</sup> Taken together with the limited proportion of funds the 2 Save America Committees have spent advancing other candidates,<sup>189</sup> the Responses’ claim that 3 Trump is “support[ing] other candidates who will define the future” describes only a fraction of 4 the Save America Committees’ activity. Instead, at least a portion of these expenditures appear 5 to reflect the purpose of advancing Trump’s 2024 candidacy, and the available information 6 indicates that the Save America Committees have contributed far in excess of $5,000 to 7 supporting those efforts.<sup>190</sup>

8           Accordingly, we recommend the Commission find reason to believe that the Save 9 America Committees made, and Donald J. Trump knowingly accepted, excessive contributions 10 in violation of 52 U.S.C. § 30116(a)(2)(A), (f), and 11 C.F.R. §§ 110.2(b), 110.9.

<sup>190</sup> The Commission has previously advised that payments for candidate events constitute contributions to that candidate. See Advisory Opinion 1988-22 at 6 (San Joaquin Valley Republican Assocs.) (stating that a corporation’s payment of costs for a candidate’s public appearance was “campaign[-]related” and, thus, presumptively constituted a “contribution” subject to corporate prohibition on contributions in connection with federal elections); see also Advisory Opinion 1986-37 at 4 (Nat’l Conservative Found.) (stating that public appearances by candidates at sponsored events will be campaign-related “if such events include any express advocacy of the election or defeat of any candidate or the solicitation of contributions to any candidate or political committee,” and that “the absence of express advocacy or solicitations will not preclude a determination that public appearances by candidates are campaign[-]related”); Advisory Opinion 1994-15 at 2 (Byrne) (stating that the Commission has determined that financing particular activities involving the participation of a Federal candidate will result in a contribution to or expenditure on behalf of a candidate if the activities involve (i) the solicitation, making or acceptance of contributions to the candidate’s campaign, or (ii) communications expressly advocating the nomination, election or defeat of any candidate, and that the absence of those factors will not preclude a determination that an activity is “campaign-related”); Advisory Opinion 1996-11 at 4 (Nat’l Right to Life Comm.) (stating that Commission public funding regulations consider other factors, including the “setting, timing and expressions of the purpose of an event, and the substance of the remarks or speech made . . . in determining whether a stop is campaign-related”).

1           C.     The Commission Should Take No Action at his Time with Respect to the 2           Allegations as to MAGA PAC

3           The MUR 7969 Complaint alleges that MAGA PAC has also made excessive 4 contributions to Trump.<sup>191</sup> However, neither the Complaint, nor the available information, 5 provide any details regarding any contributions, in-kind or otherwise, made by MAGA PAC to 6 Trump. Though the Save America JFC fundraises on behalf of both Save America and MAGA
7 PAC, it has transferred approximately 10% of the amount transferred to Save America to MAGA
8 PAC.<sup>192</sup> Further, the majority of MAGA PAC's expenditures appear to be focused on expenses
9 associated with resolving post-electoral activity relating to the 2020 election cycle. However, it 10 is unclear whether MAGA PAC's expenditures relating to consulting and legal fees associated 11 with recounting and disputing the 2020 election are for the purpose of influencing Trump's 2024 12 presidential run.

13           Accordingly, as we recommend the Commission authorize an investigation into the other 14 allegations at issue in this matter, we recommend the Commission take no action at this time 15 with respect to the allegations that MAGA PAC made excessive contributions to Trump in 16 violation of 52 U.S.C. § 30116(a)(2)(A) and 11 C.F.R. § 110.2(b).

17           D.     We Make No Recommendations as to the Other Allegations in the MUR 7969
18           Complaint

19           The MUR 7969 Complaint raises additional arguments and seeks additional relief as to 20 which we make no recommendations. First, the MUR 7969 Complaint argues that the Act

<sup>192</sup> Save America Joint Fundraising Committee: Spending 2021-2022, FEC.GOV, <https://www.fec.gov/data/committee/C00770941/?tab=spending> (last visited Oct. 12, 2022) (under "Disbursements," click "Group by: Recipient Name") (showing $49.16 million in transfers to Save America and $5.46 million in transfers to MAGA PAC).

1 dictates that an individual is deemed a candidate once the person gives “consent” to another to 2 raise $5,000 or more in contributions, which that individual does receive; as such, the Complaint
3 argues that the Commission’s testing-the-waters regulations “exceed the unambiguously 4 expressed intent of Congress, conflict with the plain meaning of the statute, and contravene the 5 explicit statutory language and are, therefore, invalid as a matter of law.”<sup>193</sup>

6 We make no recommendations with respect to this allegation for several reasons.
7 Initially, the Commission’s testing-the-waters regulations are an appropriate exercise of its 8 congressionally delegated rulemaking authority.<sup>194</sup> Moreover, the testing-the-waters regulations
9 are not at issue here, as the Respondents explicitly deny that their activities fall under the testing-
10 the-waters exemption. Because the testing-the-waters regulations do not cause the MUR 7969 11 Complainant’s purported injury, his challenge to that regulation in this context is inapposite and 12 would likely fail for lack of standing in a judicial context.<sup>195</sup> Accordingly, we make no 13 recommendations as to this allegation.

14 Second, the MUR 7969 Complaint argues that Section 3 of the Fourteenth Amendment to 15 the United States Constitution disqualifies Trump as a candidate in the 2024 election for his <sup>194</sup> See Payments Received for Testing the Waters Activities, 50 Fed. Reg. at 9993 (“The Commission has concluded, on the basis of its experience and the comments received on the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, that these examples further illustrate the line drawn between ‘testing the waters’ activities and campaigning after an individual has decided to become a candidate.”); see also Chevron U.S.A., Inc. v. Nat’l Res. Def. Council, Inc., 467 U.S. 837, 843 (1984) (quoting Morton v. Ruiz, 415 U.S. 199, 231 (1974)) (“The power of an administrative agency to administer a congressionally created . . . program necessarily requires the formulation of policy and the making of rules to fill any gap left, implicitly or explicitly, by Congress.”).

<sup>195</sup> See Lujan v. Defs. of Wildlife, 504 U.S. 555, 560-61 (1992) (“Over the years, our cases have established that the irreducible constitutional minimum of standing contains three elements. First, the plaintiff must have suffered an ‘injury in fact’ — an invasion of a legally protected interest which is (a) concrete and particularized, and (b) ‘actual or imminent, not “conjectural” or “hypothetical.”’ Second, there must be a causal connection between the injury and the conduct complained of — the injury has to be ‘fairly . . . trace[able] to the challenged action of the defendant, and not . . . th[e] result [of] the independent action of some third party not before the court.’ Third, it must be ‘likely,’ as opposed to merely ‘speculative,’ that the injury will be ‘redressed by a favorable decision.’” (internal citations omitted)).

1 participation in the events of January 6th, 2021, at the U.S. Capitol, and demands that the 2 Commission “block the acceptance of Mr. Trump’s FEC Form 2 ‘Statement of Candidacy.’”<sup>196</sup>
3 Despite the MUR 7969 Complaint being directed to the Commission, the MUR 7969 Complaint 4 defeats itself with respect to this request by acknowledging that “the United States Supreme 5 Court would be the only authority that the drafters of [the Constitution] could have possibly 6 envisioned as being the most competent and legitimate body to determine whether an individual 7 is ineligible under the Anti-Insurrection Qualification Clause.”<sup>197</sup>

8         As the MUR 7969 Complaint acknowledges, it does not appear that Congress intended to 9 confer on the Commission the authority to determine the underlying question of whether an 10 individual is ineligible for public office under Section 3 of the Fourteenth Amendment. For this 11 reason, we make no recommendations as to the MUR 7969’s proposal that the Commission 12 reject any Statement of Candidacy Trump files.

13 IV. INVESTIGATION

14         We plan to seek information to investigate (1) information regarding Trump’s alleged 15 candidacy, including when Trump should have registered as a candidate; and (2) the amount of 16 potentially excessive contributions made by the Save America Committees and received by 17 Trump. We will request communications with Trump relating to his candidacy, as well as with 18 representatives of the Save America Committees. We will also request financial records from 19 the Save America Committees to supplement the disclosure reports available on the FEC’s 20 website. While we will first pursue informal discovery methods, we also request that the

3 V. RECOMMENDATIONS

- 4 1. Find reason to believe that Donald J. Trump violated 52 U.S.C. § 30102(e)(1) and 5 11 C.F.R. § 101.1(a) by failing to timely file a Statement of Candidacy and 6 designate a principal campaign committee;
- 7 2. Find reason to believe that Save America and Bradley T. Crate in his official 8 capacity as treasurer and Save America Joint Fundraising Committee and Bradley 9 T. Crate in his official capacity as treasurer made excessive contributions in 10 violation of 52 U.S.C. § 30116(a)(2)(A) and 11 C.F.R. § 110.2(b);
- 11 3. Find reason to believe that Donald J. Trump knowingly accepted excessive 12 contributions in violation of 52 U.S.C. § 30116(f) and 11 C.F.R. § 110.9;
- 13 4. Take no action at this time with respect to the allegation that Make America Great 14 Again PAC and Bradley T. Crate in his official capacity as treasurer violated 15 52 U.S.C. § 30116(a)(2)(A) and 11 C.F.R. § 110.2(b) by making excessive 16 contributions to Donald J. Trump;
