Re: Response to MUR 7986

Dear Ms. Stevenson:

I write as counsel for Magsig for Congress (the "Committee") and Melissa Allen, in her official capacity as treasurer ("Respondents"). Respondents have received your letter dated May 3, 2022, addressed to Melissa Allen as treasurer of the Committee. This letter and attached exhibits constitute the Respondents' response to the complaint filed in MUR 7986.

Your letter states that you have received a complaint that indicates that the Committee may have violated the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended (the "Act"). Your letter attaches the complaint. The complaint, filed by Charles Dudek, alleges that the Committee knowingly accepted, deposited, and expended federally prohibited contributions from registered California corporations, in violation of 52 U.S.C. 30118(a) and 11 CFR 114.2.

Unfortunately, these allegations are accurate, although the violation of the law was unintentional on the part of the Respondents. The contributions have been fully refunded to the entities in question as prescribed by 11 CFR 103.3 (b)(2).

As you know, contributions from certain types of limited liability companies (LLCs) are permitted by the Act. These contributions are treated as contributions by a partnership if the LLC has chosen to file, under IRS rules, as a partnership; or it has made no choice, under IRS rules, as to whether it is a corporation or a partnership. These contributions are attributed to the members of the LLC using the guidelines used for partnership attribution. Such contributions are attributed to an individual, must be within the contribution limits for that individual, and are disclosed on the committee's reports. 11 CFR 110.1(e)-(g). House and Senate committees report contributions from partnerships on Form 3, Schedule A, supporting Line 11(a)(i). Information about the individual partners is itemized on Line 11(a)(i) using memo entries.

The corporations listed in the complaint are all registered as S Corporations in California.¹ S Corporations are corporations that elect to be taxed as a pass-through entity. Income, losses, deductions, and credits flow through to the shareholders, partners, or members. They then report these items on their personal tax return. IRS approval is required for the S election status. S Corporations, however, are not permitted to make contributions to federal candidates under any circumstances, despite the fact that they may be owned by only one individual, with no other members.

Nathan Magsig has previously run in several local California elections, but this is his first time as a federal candidate. Under California law, corporate contributions are permissible to candidate committees. Cal. Gov't Code §§ 82047, 85301. Although this does not excuse the violation of the Act, it helps explain how this mistake was made. The Respondents were unaware that S Corporations were not permitted to make candidate contributions under federal law.

The Respondent erroneously believed that contributions to the Committee from S Corporations were permissible if they were reported in the same manner as Partnership and LLC corporations and attributed to an individual on the report. As you can see on the Committee's 2021 Year End and 2022 April Quarterly report, attached as Exhibit A, that is exactly how these contributions were reported. Furthermore, the Respondents were tracking these contributions to ensure that no individual violated contributions limits. This was an honest mistake, especially considering S Corporations are treated similarly to LLCs by the IRS, and that these contributions were made by entities with only one or two members.

¹ Please note that one of the contributions listed on the Complaint was not made from an S Corporation. Coelho West is a partnership. There is a S Corporation in California with a similar name, but the entity that made the contribution to the Committee was the partnership entity. When Respondents attempted to refund the contribution from Coelho West, the partnership sent a note back explaining this distinction and confirming that the contribution received from Coelho West was from a partnership. The refund letter and attached note are enclosed as Exhibit D.

Since receiving the complaint and being notified those contributions from S Corporations are not permissible, Respondents immediately fully refunded all the contributions it has received from S Corporations as prescribed by 11 CFR 103.3 (b)(2). A list of the refunded contributions and the date of the refund is attached as Exhibit B. Also attached as Exhibit C are copies of the refund check stubs. Respondents will follow up with any contributors if their refunds remain undeposited within 30 days and will disgorge to the U.S. Treasury any refunds that remain undeposited 30 days thereafter.

Respondents have audited all the contributions the Committee received from LLCs and partnerships to ensure there are no other contributions from S Corporations that were not mentioned in the complaint. It did not find any such additional contributions.²

Respondents were unaware of a problem until they received the Complaint. Respondents never received any correspondence from the Federal Election Commission ("FEC") requesting additional information about these contributions.

Respondents ask for leniency in any fines administered by the Commission due to the fact the violations were made inadvertently by a first-time federal candidate and were remedied as soon as Respondents were made aware of the issue.

Sincerely,

Audrey Perry
Counsel to Magsig for Congress

² In the course of their audit, Respondents discovered that Nathan Magsig for Supervisor 2024, being unaware of the prohibition against a federal candidate making a transfer from his non-federal committee to his federal campaign committee, also made a $1,000 contribution to Magsig for Congress. Respondents promptly refunded this contribution to the non-federal committee.

Refund Letter and Note from
Coelho West

Magsig for Congress

May 10, 2022

Coelho West
Attn: Anthony Coelho Jr.
PO Box 434
Five Points, CA 93624

Dear Mr. Coelho:

Thank you for your recent contribution to the Magsig for Congress committee. Unfortunately, we are unable to accept your contribution because Federal Election Law prohibits contributions from corporations. For that reason we are refunding your check. I am sorry for any inconvenience this may have caused you. If it is your continued intention to contribute to this campaign you can do so by sending personal funds in the enclosed envelope.

Magsig for Congress
2822 S. Maple Ave
Fresno, CA 93725 - 9907

We are sorry for any inconvenience this may have caused you.
If you have any questions please feel free to call Melissa at (916) 548-2825.

Thank you again for your support!

Coelho West is a partnership. Coelho West Custom Farming, Inc is an S-corp. I think there is some confusion between the two entities. Per conversation w/ Melissa, we are returning the check issued to Coelho West as a refund.

Thanks,
Rebecca Hayden
