4 Subsequent to the RFAI, the Committee amended its 2022 April Quarterly Report on 5 August 16, 2022, and then again on August 19, 2022. Regarding the $10,000 excessive 6 contribution, the amended report discloses the contribution as attributable to four individuals
7 with the last name Williams residing at the same address, each in the amount of $2,500.<sup>4</sup>
8 Regarding the alleged anonymous cash contributions, the amended report asserts that 9 contributions were received at “Pass the Hat” events and that no individual contribution 10 exceeded $50.<sup>5</sup> Regarding the contributions with missing identification information, the 11 amended report discloses additional information for 64 contributions totaling $43,752.26 and 12 removes two others totaling $600.<sup>6</sup> Also, the Committee filed a Miscellaneous Text (FEC Form 13 99) in response to the RFAI that details its standard operating procedures for obtaining missing 14 contributor information, which it contends meet or exceed the FEC requirements.<sup>7</sup> Finally, 15 regarding the disbursement with a missing payee address, the amended report discloses the 16 address.<sup>8</sup>

1           Based on its experience and expertise, the Commission has established an Enforcement 2 Priority System using formal, pre-determined scoring criteria to allocate agency resources and 3 assess whether matters warrant further administrative enforcement proceedings. These criteria 4 include (1) the gravity of the alleged violation, taking into account both the type of activity and 5 the amount in violation; (2) the apparent impact the alleged violation may have had on the 6 electoral process; (3) the complexity of the legal issues raised in the matter; and (4) recent trends 7 in potential violations and other developments in the law. This matter is rated as low priority for 8 Commission action after application of these pre-established criteria. Given that low rating, as 9 well as the remedial steps which the Committee has taken, we recommend that the Commission
10 dismiss the Complaint consistent with the Commission's prosecutorial discretion to determine 11 the proper ordering of its priorities and use of agency resources.<sup>9</sup> We also recommend that the 12 Commission close the file and send the appropriate letters.
