Subject: MUR 8017 (Unknown Respondent(s), et al.) – Supplement to the First General Counsel's Report

I. BACKGROUND

This matter involves allegations that Unknown Respondent(s) violated the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended (the "Act"), and Commission regulations by paying for mailers that lacked disclaimers. The Office of General Counsel ("OGC") circulated the First General Counsel's Report ("FGCR") in this matter on June 16, 2023. The FGCR recommends that the Commission find reason to believe that Unknown Respondent(s) violated 52 U.S.C. §§ 30104(b), (c), and/or (g) and 30121 by failing to report the costs of the mailers and failing to include an appropriate disclaimer on the mailers.¹

However, the Complaint did not attach complete copies of the mailers at issue. And at the time of the circulation of the FGCR, OGC did not possess complete copies of those mailers.

On January 25, 2024, the Commission directed OGC to contact Complainant Joe O'Dea for Senate in writing and request that it provide hard copies of the mailers at issue within 30 days of receipt of the request.² Although Complainant was unable to provide the requested mailers, OGC obtained copies of the mailers from a public source.

II. DISCUSSION

On January 29, 2024, the Office of Complaints Examination and Legal Administration notified Complainant of the Commission's request to provide hard copies of the mailers cited in the Complaint.³ On February 28, 2023, Complainant's counsel confirmed that his client was unable to provide hard copies of the mailers.⁴

During the 30-day period, we continued efforts to find complete copies of the mailers from publicly available sources. Upon further research, we recently discovered complete copies of the mailers at #COPolitics: Follow the Message, a publicly available website devoted to compiling campaign literature distributed in Colorado.⁵ The website also confirms that the mailers were delivered shortly before the 2022 Colorado Republican primary election.⁶ The website is run by Colorado Sun journalist Sandra Fish and it solicits members of the public to submit copies of campaign literature that they receive.⁷ Regarding the first mailer, labeled as Exhibits 1 and 2 in the FGCR, the website shows that Exhibits 1 and 2 are the front and back pages of one mailer folded in half; the inside two pages were not included in the Complaint but are shown on the website and attached to this memo. Regarding the second mailer, labeled as Exhibits 3 and 4 in the FGCR, the website shows that the images in the Complaint are complete; they are the front and back of a single mailer with no additional pages. Finally, regarding the third mailer, labeled as Exhibit 5, the website shows that the image in the Complaint only reflects the front and back pages; the two inside pages of the mailer which are missing in the Complaint are shown on the website and attached below.

The newly discovered pages in the first and third mailers identify Joe O'Dea as a Republican U.S. Senate candidate and notify readers that O'Dea gave campaign contributions to members of the Democratic Party and that O'Dea supported President Joe Biden's "pork barrel

The website does appear to include an additional mailer from Unknown Respondent(s) that was not attached to the Complaint. This additional mailer is similar to one of the mailers attached to the Complaint in that it includes the statement that Ron Hanks is "ENDORSED by the COLORADO REPUBLICAN PARTY." Id., https://ftm.copolitics.co/message_detail/senate-615.

infrastructure spending bill.”⁸ At the end they ask, “do you know liberal Joe?”⁹ The analysis in the FGCR relied on the presence of language in the first and third mailers that O’Dea’s clearly-identified primary opponent Ron Hanks had been endorsed by the Colorado Republican Party, coupled with the fact that the mailers were sent shortly before the 2022 Colorado Republican primary election. The newly-discovered pages do not countermand those endorsements and the #COPolitics: Follow the Message website confirms the mailers were sent close to the election. Accordingly, the new information does not alter any of our recommendations or analysis with respect to the MUR 8017.

REPUBLICAN U.S. SENATE CANDIDATE

JOE O'DEA Gave Thousands In Campaign Contributions To Gun Control Advocate John Hickenlooper and Many Other Democrats

How much do you really know about Republican Senate candidate Joe O'Dea?

- O'Dea has given thousands of campaign dollars to Democratic politicians who want to take away our gun rights – from John Hickenlooper to Congressman Ed Perlmutter to former Treasurer Cary Kennedy and more.¹
- O'Dea is also the only Republican candidate to support Democratic President Joe Biden's $1.2 trillion pork barrel infrastructure spending bill.²
- O'Dea even gave hundreds of dollars in campaign contributions to the very same Democratic Senator he now wants to replace, Michael Bennet.³

MAILER 3 – Partially Included in the MUR 8017 Complaint as Exhibit 5JOE O'DEA Is The ONLY Republican Senate Candidate To Support Biden's $1.2 Trillion Pork Barrel Spending

Not a single Republican member of Congress from Colorado supported Biden's infrastructure bill.

Yet according to Colorado Politics, Joe O'Dea "was the lone Bennet challenger who said he would've voted for the bill," claiming that Biden's $1.2 trillion plan "doesn't explode the national debt."¹

It's not the first time O'Dea has taken a liberal stance that's out of step with Republicans in Colorado.

O'Dea gave thousands in campaign contributions to multiple Democratic candidates, including hundreds to Democratic Governor Hickenlooper after he signed new laws placing strict limitations on the rights of Colorado gun owners.²

O'Dea even donated campaign money to the same Democratic politician he wants to replace – Senator Michael Bennet.³
