Re: MUR 8038

Dear Mr. Lockett:

We are Counsel to Protect and Serve PAC (“Respondent”) and are writing with regards to the complaint designated MUR 8038. The complaint alleges Respondent accepted a contribution from a federal government contractor. This is not the case.

On February 22, 2022, Protect and Serve PAC received a $250,000 wire transfer. “Angel Staffing Incorporated” was the entity reflected on the wire documentation received by Respondent’s bank that accompanied the transfer. Accordingly, Respondent’s treasurer reported this receipt as a contribution from Angel Staffing Incorporated on Schedule A of its 2022 April quarterly FEC report.

Since this complaint was filed, Protect and Serve PAC learned the contribution was in fact from Shannon Ralston, President and CEO of Angel Staffing, and was made through the use of a non-repayable drawing account of Angel Staffing that contained her personal funds. Ms. Ralston’s counsel reached out and asked Protect and Serve PAC to amend its FEC report to accurately reflect the contributor name. Protect and Serve PAC amended its FEC report on September 10, 2022 accordingly.

We expect this information is sufficient to resolve any concerns regarding this matter and ask you dismiss this complaint.

Respectfully,
