Hello Trace,

Thank you for your inquiry.

We have been reviewing the allegations from this complainant. Our initial sense is that a handful of their allegations may have some merit - particularly as it regards some petty cash reporting that may have been overlooked at the time. We are working to resolve the exact figures and we will move quickly to file amended quarterly reports as needed. It is our intention to complete this work no later than September 15th., and quite possibly much sooner.

I do want to let you know that we are certain that the vast majority of their allegations and insinuations are not problematic. Most of these individual transactions are not at all related to the campaign. In the interest of being thorough however, we will detail them and the background for your office. We will submit that in our summary to you at the same time we file our amended reports.

Trace on behalf of our campaign team, let me say that I am sorry to have to be of trouble to you. We will work quickly to resolve all, and please let me know as soon as possible if you have any concerns about our proposed next steps and the suggested timeframe.

All my best,

Brian
