Good morning:

I am writing this correspondence in furtherance of the voicemail I left for you this morning. As stated on my longwinded message, I represent Robert Healey, Jr. (candidate), Bob Healey for Congress and Ronald Gravino in his capacity as treasurer, (hereinafter collectively referred to as "Respondents") in connection with the above listed FEC Complaint. It appears that the complaint was received by the FEC on August 24, 2022, and the Respondents were notified on August 30, 2022. As this complaint involves two allegations of potential violations, at least three respondents and potentially a fourth corporation respondent (that I do not represent), coupled with the fact that I was on a family vacation plus the holiday I have not been able to devote the requisite time to investigate and respond to this complaint. Based on the apparent complexity of the allegations and the scope of due diligence required to provide an appropriate response, I am requesting a thirty-day extension from today. Specifically, I am requesting that respondents' written statement demonstrating why no action should be taken against them in response to the complaint be due on Friday, October 7, 2022. When you have a moment, I would like to discuss this matter with you, my request for an extension and the next steps. Thank you in advance for your consideration, courtesy and understanding.
