Re: Save Missouri Values; request for second extension in MUR 8058

Dear Ms. Dennis,

On behalf of Save Missouri Values ("SMV"), we respectfully ask for another 30-day extension to file SMV's response in the above-referenced matter. With the extension that was previously granted, SMV's response is currently due next Monday, October 10, 2022. The additional extension sought would make SMV's response due on November 9, 2022.

We understand that SQI Limited ("SQI") has been granted a second extension for filing its response in order to allow its counsel to gather additional facts pertaining to the allegations in this matter. Since SMV is on the receiving end of the transaction at issue in this matter, it is possible that any additional facts that counsel for SQI gather in this matter may have an impact on SMV's response, and therefore it would be prudent for SMV to be given the same additional time to file its response.

If the requested second extension to file SMV's response is contingent on SMV entering into a tolling agreement, please send me a tolling agreement to that effect.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,
